TIDBITS

Claire Greene dience was located, there had been Horace Greensmith.

Margaret Folsing lights focused upon the characters, Horace bring in the shirt and of of nine volumes of Irving's works, donated by Mrs. Eliza Cooper.

sentiment of the Winnebagos:

And a Remnant Shall Return

In the forest, dark and vast.

Large the tribe with many Tepees.

Warriors on the war path they;

Silently with looks profound.

of the White Man's

How their lands they had to give.

Keep traditions of the race.

Matters not how long the way;

In the Harvest Dance—this day.

"And their aged Chief to hear.

Year by year their homage pay,

· their night calls, watch their

Wm. H. Patey, July 28, 1925.

And who knows, but thy heart or

And the ancient rites he keeps.

The Upper Della

For the bounty of the year,

As the Chief his story tells.

Perfection and Frances Brundage.

Hallowe'en Party be a jitney dance-10 cents a cou-Swift descending without mercy,

Oral English glish course. All absences from the program will appear in the Tid Bits. C. Faculty Meeting

A faculty meeting was held the study hall Wednesday evening Come to worship with their fathers or not the faculty would attend the Come to thank the great Creator Teacher's Conference Rochester on November, 4th and 5th. Come to dance there in the moon-

Impressions Gained From Northwest Trip Thus the remnant returning,

(Continued From First Page.) the wonderful scenery at the New 1 York Hippodrome and other noted, theatres; yes, and we have had the pleasure of seeing and hearing some stage, but we never saw such splendor displayed as the natural scenery 1 enhanced with the effect of electric lighting, or heard more gifted ar-We never enjoyed a more trip thru the Upper Dells. It was the moonlight and twilight up the a few of them: In the Upper Dells the river is held their and below the gorge. In the Dells cere-the river becomes both deeper and mony in full native dress at the old swifter, the dam below retarding for all religious ever. The Eau Claire sandstone amphitheatre seating are a few of the many. They are This amphitheatre with its named from the fact that their apperfect acoustics, where the higher pearance after the water and eroup and farther back you go does sion has ceased to make them apnot in the least interfere with hear- pear like their name: High Rock, ing perfectly the human voice ex- Romance Cliff, Chimney Rock, Stone in low tones as easily as Face, Old Dell House, Chapel Gorge, the you were standing close by the Circle Bend, Eton Grotto, It is located in a beauti- Yard, Sturgeon Rock, Glen Eyrie, ful natural setting among the ferns Devil's Elbow, The Narrows, Blackand rocks and has been used by the hawk's Cave, Rattlesnake Rock, Ar-Indians for hundreds of years for tist's Glen, Cold Water Canyon, all gatherings. It is a most beau- Giant's Shield, Alligator's Head, Steamboat Rock, Rood's Glen, Arch seremony of this kind in the identi- Nest, Stand Rock, and Louis Bluff.

with the beautiful pine trees and to what would otherwise be a very where the fresh air and green trees | of Yellow Stone, while the audience was in darkness, what will happen when he calls for short—is much beloved by sermon will deal with capital. The fortune but a small income, he went tions. In conversation with the Amanda. The poor old horse is just suave, luxury-loving rector warns to live with an aunt, who had little view the writer was told of the many about on his last legs and finally a him not to offend the men of money. Sympathy for his hallucinations and tates Mme. Didier's disposing of the that the angered confregation walks treatment at the hands of speciallisten to him and Ben is heart- son of the enormously rich senior ations by experts, the Shylocks were than that which is bagged.

Dawson and Elwood Wil- The End of the Trail; The War to her customers and heartlessly to the Great Spirit and the Peace Amanda is especially the victim on and Amanda tells the girls she Songs. For a better term we will have to call these tableaux. About Keeps herself enshrouded in a veil his shirt and Amanda pleads with the girls she have to call these tableaux. About Keeps herself enshrouded in a veil his shirt and Amanda pleads with the girls she self into such a frenzy that he persons having claims against said the persons h opposite hill from where the au- her with royalty and wealth—and is amazed and amused by the girl.

Robert Common pany with a number of other selection by Benjamin Pillsbury Jones—Ben, Gilchrist announces his Christmas size, if not great vigor. Left a great spectacles?

at home

Tammany Leaders and Sachems are on the payrolls of New York for $637,324 a year.

Cost of running the State has gone up 226% in six Smith years.

You pay! If you don't pay an income tax, you do pay rent. Your grocer and butcher and baker pay rent. And a big part of rent is taxes.

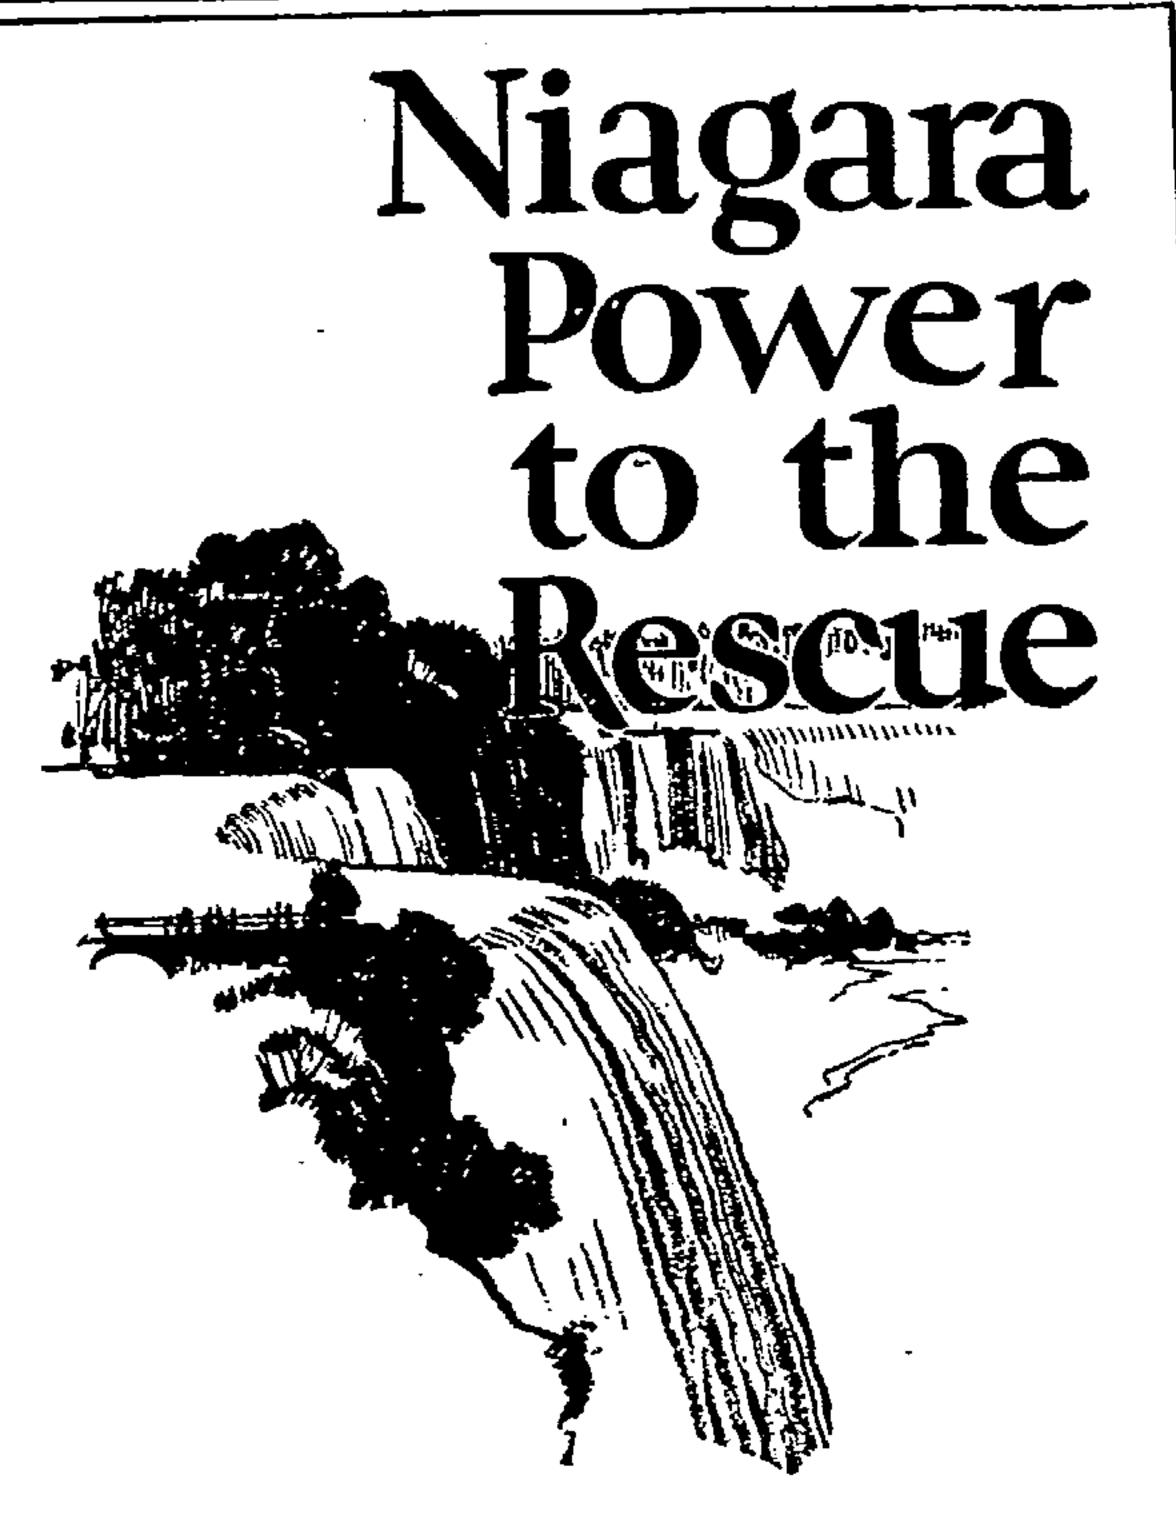

Your meat, your bread, your clothes, your shoes, all pay for state extravagance.

Al Smith says: "I do not know how to reduce state expenses without curtailing activities." Ogden Mills says: "I do know how and will."

VOTE FOR for GOVERNOR

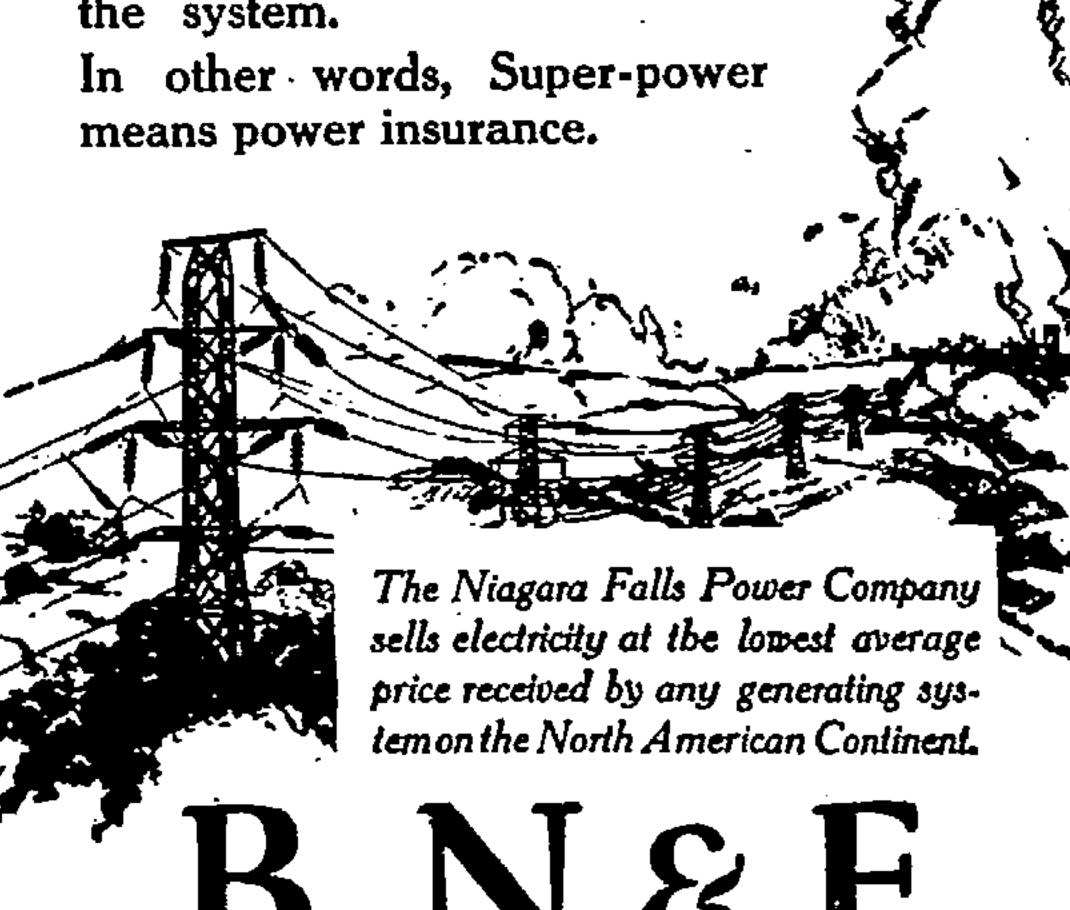

because he gives away his fortune that was devoted entirely to preserv-

OPTOMETRIST-OPTICIAN

Recently low water in Cattaraugus Creek threatened a power shortage in the Springville territory. That would have meant crippled electric service and darkened homes. Fortunately, interconnection had been made the preceding month with the Niagara, Lockport and Ontario lines, and dependable Niagara power came quickly to the rescue. That's what Super-power service does for a community. By interconnection, surplus power of one district is made instantly available to meet temporary need or emergency in other communities of the system.

Buffalo, Niagara and Eastern Power Corporation Buffalo General Electric Co. The Niagara Falls Power Co. Tonawanda Power Co.