THE HORNELL SALE 65 REGISTERED HOLSTEIN-FRIESIAN CATTLE

WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1926 On the Hornell Fair Grounds, Hornell, N. Y., at 10 A. M.

ALLEGANY-STEUBEN COUNTY ANNUAL CONSIGNMENT SALE

All cattle are from herds under Federal supervision—nearly all from fully accredited herds—60

Never Was There a Better Time to Produce Milk The price is good, and this sale includes selected animals from many of Southern New York's most prominent Holstein Breeders' Herds. DO NOT MISS THIS SALE—there will be sold a 33-pound cow that gave almost 90 pounds of milk a day for seven days, and her two daughters.

A daughter of a 30-pound cow that gave about 95 pounds of milk a day; a daughter of a 29-pound cow, and others that are richly bred.

15 High Bred Bulls Sell Under the Hammer including a son of Ida Pontiac Segis, a 30-pound cow that gave 655 pounds of milk; a five months old son of a twice 28-pound cow; then there are many young bulls mostly ready for service—backed by good breeding which will sell at prices to head good grade dairies.

You should take the time to attend this sale; you should take advantage of this chance right at home to buy animals which are the result of years of careful breeding, and you will obtain animals that will pay you a handsome profit at the pail. The only cow to keep is the profitable producer. Keep less cows BUT better cows -that should be the slogan. Buy one of these cows and get the results of two at the pail.
