up, to end with a splash against the lake noted every move. were several acres of marsh and sides; but to have two pound pure like that in the lake. The per was no fun even if it was not muskrats and carp, with their un-dangerous. After the second atending rooting, kept it roily and tempt to thrust it off by his tai trash strewn. Beneath the road ran thrusts, the big bass started for And resembles sorrow only a large open-end culvert, several deeper water. There was danger feet beneath the lake surface stones that the mate might return. The Come, read to me some poem, filled in on each side and made an weight pulled the bass to a circular excellent place for crawfish and rock course; even seven pounds of bass That shall soothe this restless for In a large crater some eight feet course with that weight hanging to under low water, in a cavern, a nar- a flipper. row deep head was thrust out. Only Down they sank, the big bass trythe rise and fall of the under jaw ing now and then to give an effec. Whose distant footsteps echo again was drawing near. In all the whole lake there were none that gravel of the bottom. matched this finny denizen of the From the edge of the cattails, and slowly gave way to deeper water, an old willow log, long since water-logged and sank, one end emsedded in the bozy mud, stuck there had been.

ranean cellar made in the mud by the parents. The eggs, hatched in the warm water and these little dark colored creatures about one-fourth of an inch long had come feast on the minute organisms that float around thru the water. If you stood still long enough you might be able to make out a pale bluish-green form steal in from the deeper water glide near and float around; then silently recede from view. This was the mother bullhead. Across the narrow neck of water that separated the culvert from the stomach, that was his one particular makes excellent reading. This was his domain; he But the passage that interested me had ranged it from shore to short impost was this: was far from being satisfied. Daybreak found him rounding the want.

ting across thru the reeds at an an- than I can spend. a whirling gulp and he could go back not want for any of the things that years. to the rock cavern for the day. For money can buy; at 35 he did not . once the way seemed open for an want anything at all; at 49 he died. slanted over the hill and lighted up writing anything intended to make to clear the rear of any obstructions with a divine discontent. the big bass gave one mighty thrust To make men and women discon- was draining Europe of its best J each way with his thick heavy tail tented with bad health, and to show workers. And Europe has not yet and pumped visciously with his fins them how, by hard work, they can discovered what America has learnand he was upon the swirling help- have better health. his powerful tail he turned and their intelligence, and to stimulate surplus above living costs the proa mouthful of tiny fry; them to continued study. getting set for a spurt to deep water better homes, more money in the sure in which to spend and enjoy when a dark object hurled head-on bank. at his side. Automatically his tail But it does no harm, in our striv- can prosperity, and that such wages pumped and his back-end moved ing after these worthwhile things, to can be paid when the worker's arm in away from the line of attack, but pause once in a while and count our is strengthened and his production y not soon enough. The dark object blessings. had fastened itself on his right front Prominent among my blessings I chines instead of hand tools. sipper, bringing his tail around al- count the joys of anticipation—th most to his nose on the opposite side delights of crecting Castles in Spain. and the big fish lashed back with his If you would discover the really strong for Castles in Spain. I have nead, hanging like a bull dog to his right flipper was no ordinary antagdoughty to grip and lithesome. the father of that swirling mass, Many with red patches top to float and die from the spear to cling thrusts of the black panther, laying the in the shadowy recess of the old man-made barrier thrown across the The big bass was armed against I see the lights of the village deep water, but never clear and weight hanging from his right flip- That my heart cannot resist: was not equal to keeping a straight denoted life, but the round gleaming tive tail thrust, but it was all in Thru the corridors of Time, eye located on each side of that vain. These two rows of fine harmless looking head noted each teeth were sawing deeper into the movement within range of their muscles that controlled the flipper. vision. It was resting time for the muscles that controlled the hipper. Life's endless toil and endeavor; big bass, who had for several seasons turning half way over as he shot used the cavern for a home. Many towards the gravel in the bottom; Read from some humbler poet, a crawfish had been sacrificed on the this was easier than going ahead. Whose songs gushed from altar of his insatiate appetite. The As they neared the bottom with one sun's glare was receding; soon the mighty thrust of his tail the bass As showers from the clouds of time to fill that capracious craw crushed the black body against the pain smote him in the chest, but the panther still clung to the flipper. Who, thru long days of labor, Again the bass turned and made And nights devoid of ease. across the lake, this time headed for Still heard in his soul the music where the lake bank ran far out that rocky recess he had so long Of wonderful melodies. used for home. The pain in his lness was setting in where the pain As they drew abreast of the openthis way and that in the water about black panther silently slid from the balanced top. At first glance they profusely went down that insatiate panther slowly wended his way back!

By R. E. SHAFF

Riding to the Matoppos one day scarcity of labor, as compared with may never have everything you colonies instead of to jail. "Take myself, for instance I am vices being sold to the highest bid-the breakwater to the flag-set cove not an old man, and yet there is der for a term of years. Even their the ever-moving nothing I want. I have been Prime working conditions were better than swarm of future eel ports. In pur- Minister of the Cape, there is De prevailing in England, according to it in the water mud too shallow to and there is a big country called after sunset. No landless man could allow his heavy draft to follow. Cut-after me, and I have more money make a living with his bare hands \ "You might ask, 'Wouldn't you that.

rear of the still circling school of like to be Prime Minister again?' The importation of negroes from Back watering with his flukes Well, I answer you very fairly-I Africa put an end finally to the e took in the situation, for five should take it if it were offered me white bond-servant, tho not minuates at least he silently viewed but I certainly don't crave for it." after Benjamin Franklin had thundthe swirling mass—one good spurt, At 25 he was so rich that he did ered against the practice for industry increased the demand for unmolested attack. The sun's rays

I hope I may never be guilty of in the early days of the machine the feast before it; it also reminded poor people contended with their lot. intolerable from modern standpoints I would rather be known as one ___conditions were always so much With a couple quick tail thrusts who sought to inspire his readers better over here that European goved, that wages high enough to en-. With a sudden thrust of To make them discontented with able the worker to buy out of his ducts which he himself makes, with his balance he was just To urge them on to beter jobs, hours short enough to give him left.

his surplus are the secret of America multiplied by giving him power ma-

By Henry Wadsworth Longfellow

Falls from the wings of night As a feather is waited downward From an eagle in its flight.

Some simple and heartfelt lay, And banish the thoughts of day. Not from the grand old masters, Not from the bards sublime,

For, like strains of martial music Their mighty thoughts suggest

A stinging | Or tears from eyelids start.

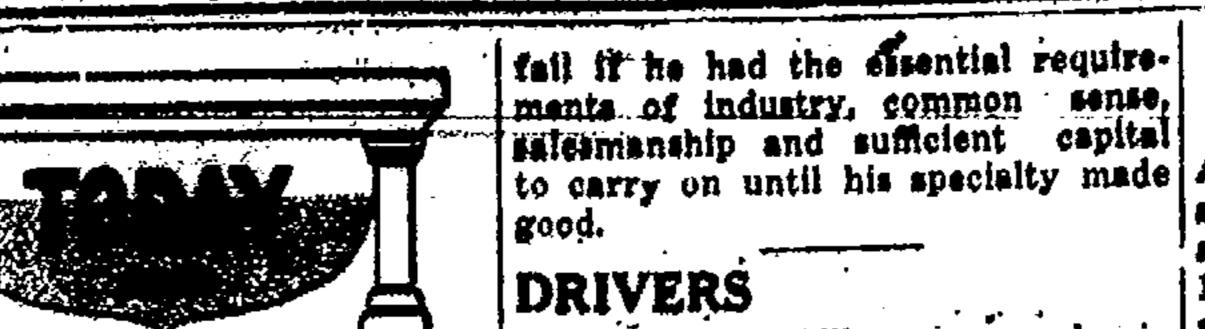

That follows after rrayer.

Continued From First Page." ant manufacturing centers of the has abandoned every other crop to raise gladiolus. He is getting rich.

a court order fixed the wages on a make money. certain job at 20 pounds of tobacco met a woman in Ohio who was earna day, which at the then prevailing ing a very price amounted to about 30 cents. skunks for their fur. I know an-The beginnings of prohibition are other man who grows only violets. period, forbidding employers to com- who made money if he gave pel workers to accept wine as part attention to anything but his of their pay, since that is "a great cialty. I have never known one to big bass, bent on filling the empty His life was full of adventure; it nursery or preparative for drunken-The reason for high wages America then, as always, was the

in Europe on such short hours as it end of the lake. Beyond the road the spear trusts of the panther by Gleam thru the rain and the mist gayety and wildness is mostly staged knows how to drive. And that that crossed on top of this barrier the scales that lined his wide flat And a feeling of sadness comes over for out-of-town visitors, three hun- means a lot more than merely how dred thousand of them in town every to shift gears and apply the brakes; day. The average bedtime of the it means appreciation of the fact real New Yorker is nearer nine that there are other cars on the o'clock than midnight. When New road as well as pedestrians.

Some day nobody will be allowed town tolks pay the exorbitant prices not some sense of responsibility to in the pit. Very few New Yorkers others. would know where to find a night club or how to get into a speakeasy. ANTIQUES They live in New York because they

Yorkers go to the theater they buy more than 2,000 churches every

The droughts in the Northwest

's water from Lake Ontario. 300

Eventually sewage will be disposed

I know a farmer who is perhaps

I know another farmer who

the greatest authority on serious attention to the problem

can make more money there, but china, glass or junk, if it is battered only by working harder than they enough, can be sold somewhere as did in the small towns they came an "antique." I attended several from. To get ahead they have to country auctions in New England live regular lives. They bring their last summer and saw absurd prices small-town habits with them and fill paid for trash to which most folks would not give house-room. among them there was always piece or two which was a real bargain. I bid on a Sheraton table, which might have been 50 years old his and the Northeast in 1929 have or 150, but which was of value to made communities of every size turn me because it would fit my dining | room, was beautiful in design and in- sturdy in construction, and a modcreases and people crowd into towns ern table equally good would cost the problem becomes more serious more than $200. I stopped bidding from year to year, even in rainy at $175 and the table went to a seasons. New York City looks dealer who hid $5 more saw this identical table. 1 is well designed, well built and in and sooner or later science will find good condition. The things that our 'a way to purify sea-water for drink-i the world. He grows nothing else, open shelves placed low enough for Completion of Tax Roll The tax roll of the Yillage Andover, N. Y., has been completed and deposited with the Village Clerk and will there remain until June 15, 1930, when taxes will be collect.

P. W. BICHARDSON.

I dressing, cream or lemon juice.

some mothers keep an extra bottle, nnbe Castoria in the house. It is effective iunk that we discard may be pricefor older children, too; read the book

FINAL SALE OF COATS All Coats sold at $25.00 now—$12.50

All Coats sold at $49.50 now—$24.75 ALL MILLINERY and CHILDREN'S COATS REDUCED

By Arthur Somers Roche

The Andover News is proud to announce the publication of "Devil-May-Care," by Arthur Somrs Roche, as a serial, beginning soon and appearing every week thereafter.

Proud because this story is one of the most unusual that has ever been written, and is the product of one of the greatest story tellers of modern times.

There's a thrill in every incident and a punch in every paragraph of "Devil-May-Care." Don't pass up the chance of reading

Davis Hill

Barney Mills

illness and death of Mrs. Emery.

with Mrs. Norman Rogers.

Mrs. Clifford Frost and daughte

Notice of Sale

ers" were some time in coming, but Briggs were visitors at Mr. and Mrs. lost nothing in intensity, Members of the Dean families of

South Hill

South Hill were in Wellsville Satur- of the January birthdays day and Sunday, calling at the home Rebekahs, Wednesday evening. Jerome Dean, where his mother Mr. and Mrs. Fred Halsey, Mr. wood. Vet. Regan of Wellsville tested Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Buffalo. Dean Bros', dairy, Saturday and Frank Halsey.

Mrs. A. L. Dougherty and baby Howard Greene and Miss Genevieve ville. son were week-end guests of her McCormick attended the picture narents in Wellsville, returning with show in Wellsville, Sunday evening. Mr. Dougherty, Sunday evening. The well, being drilled by the her daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Ordi- Charles Weller of that village. Empire Gas Co., on the Horan farm way at Elm Valley. was torpedoed last week.

ters. Mesdames Dean and Dougher- were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn ters survive. Mrs. Margaret Dean, Mr. and Mrs. of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davis. Howard Dean, John P. Dean and Lyle Nye of Wellsville was a busi-Mr. and Mrs. James Dean attended ness visitor on the hill. Monday. the funeral of Mrs. A. Dean from Immaculate Conception church at Wellsville, Tuesday. Mr. Boyer was doing business o the hill, Wednesday.

Whitesville

spent a couple of days last day morning. been ill the past few days. ors of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tracy.

The Rev. Thomas Carter, prison day afternoon with her sister, Mrs.]. of Buffalo, is preaching James Hamilton of Rexville. every evening this week at the M. E. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Tracy and church here. He is a man who has Leona were Sunday supper guests o had a miraculous conversion and ex- Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bliss. Howard Slack has been spending the past week visiting his uncle, Dr. John Bishop of Niagara Falls. Lee Millspaugh of Andover was in both of Clarence A. Slaght as administrator of the Estate of morning and evening. Nearly 30 members of the Troups- Hartrum, deceased, for an Order burg M. E. church, with their pastor, and Decree finally, judicially the Rev. H D. Tubbs, attended the tling his accounts as such admin-Sunday morning service at the M. istrator; and for authority to

E. Church here. Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Travis left said deceased died seized in order morning for a few days' to pay the debts, funeral expenses visit with friends at Nerwich, N. Y. and etc., of said deceased. the members of the Woman's For- granted in the above entitled pro-

o spend the winter months. the 24th day of February, 1930 at

Misses Bernice and Gertrude Rog- bounded and described as follows: Roy Meeks of Canistee and Misses Village of Andover, Laura and Esther Howland of Adrian legany and State of New York being attended the dance here Friday

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Mallotte of Commencing in the center of Baker Milwaukee spent Sunday afternoon Street in said Villlage at a stake in with Mr. and Mrs. Guy Drake.

Frank Watkins and Albert Trowson Lot in said Village, running bridge were callers in Rexville, Mon- thence along the westerly line Jennie Williamson spent Lot 238 feet to the northwest corn-

Monday afternoon with Mrs. A. McCaffery attended a party at Mrs. erly on a line parallel Miss Mae Whitmore spent Tues the northwest corner of the Platts day night with Miss Agnes McCai- lot now owned by one Wallace; The Everready Class met with line of the Wallace lot on a lin

Mrs. Mary D. Young, Wednesday parallel with the center of said, Mrs. Blanche Banks and daugh- east corner of the Wallace Lot ter. Isabelle of Canisteo spent Wed- thence southerly along the easterly The Sunday School Class for the Street, 128 feet to the place of be-

folks met with Mrs. Hope ginning be the same more or less. and Miss Isabelle 1020 evening with Miss Agnes McCaffery. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn VanFleet and children of Canisteo visited Mrs. | 8 Jennie Williamson, Sunday. Rachael VanFleet of Canisteo rum, deceased. If functional Biadder Irritation

Administrator of the Estate of George Hart-

Jan. 16 .- To Mr. and Mrs. Haivey Lewis of Wellsville, a son. Jan. 16.-To Mr. and Mrs. San of Wellsville a daughter, Jan. 11 .- To Mr. and Mrs. Harry of Angelica, a Feldbaurer James Frederick.

Marriages Jan. 11 .- Mrs. Mabel Geisenhot r. and Mrs. Leeman Davis, Mrs. of Wellsville and Edward Keans o

and Merie F. Green, both of Green-

Deaths

Mrs. Frank Halsey and son. Mrs. Anna Dean, spent Monday on Slocum were guests of Mrs. Frank by two sons and five daughters.

daughters and a son survive.

Miss Ruth Hazlett and Russell

Mrs. George McKinley spent Fri- One daughter and three sons sur-Jan. 16.—Charles Beedle of Canlaseraga, aged 47 years died from Deceased was an interior decorator. He leaves in England, coming to America in learly youth, and had been engaged Wellsville over 50 years. His wife and a foster daughter survive.

Executor's Sale To settle the Estate of the late Tebruary 8th, 1930, with the privithe home of his parents, Mr. and ministrator of said Estate will sell lege in me, however, of rejecting any at Public Auction at the Law Of- or all offers made. ten o'clock in the forenoon, all of the real property owned by said deceased, at the time of his death. ALL THAT TRACT, PIECE O.

> bounded and described as follows:) Dependable Laxative for what was known as the Henderson easterly along the northerly Baker Street 66 feet to the north-Dated this 7th day of January, CLARENCE A. SLAGHT,

International Sunday School Lesson for February 2

Putting God's Kingdom First Matthew 6:5-18; 19-21; 31-33 Rev. Samuel D. Price, D.D.

The the few verses indicated are as recorded in Matthew, has become Mrs. Anna Dean, died Friday morn- and Mrs. Fred Halsey, Mr. wood.

Mrs. Anna Dean, died Friday morn- and Mrs. Bert Halsey and family, Jan. 15.—Miss Loretta M. John- rich with helpful truth, the entire in all history. It is the joy of Electrically lighted and well heated. Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Halsey were son of Cuba and Thomas Evans of chapter should be considered. This adults as well as children. It does Glen Rugar, Dyke street. is another choice portion of Scrip- more to bind mankind together than Jan. 18.—Miss Alberta McCarthy ture to commit to memory. The any other act or form. It is used Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Amesbury, and Lawrence Payne, both of Wells traditional place for the delivery of in health and when too sick to think WANTED-High grade man a this general message is the Horns of for one's self. In it you will find agent for outstanding old line, legal Hattin, just back of the Sea of Gali- elements that should enter into gen- reserve Mutual Casualty Insurance

The prayer life of Jesus is men-ship, confession, petition, and thanks-mobile Insurance with exclusive tera frequent visitor on the hill recent- Saturday and were supper guests of more, at the home of a sister, Mrs. tioned frequently. He spent the is introduced: that we are to be ritory and opportunity to build pernight in solitary prayer before giv- is introduced: that we are to be manent business of your own in a Jan. 18.—Mrs. Addie Stryker ing his address to the multitude and forgiven in proportion as we are rapidly growing field. Applications Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Davis were Young, 66 years of age, widow of selecting His twelve apostles. Many gracious to others. John Dean of Buffalo who was visitors in Wellsville, Saturday. | the late Charles H. Young, at her knew Him, for it was in the very | The general theme of this sermon gated, and preliminary corresponcalled to Wellsville by the death of Mrs. L. E. Davis and Mrs. Floyd home in Scio. Deceased is survived middle of His public ministry. Pray- is about the Kingdom of God and dence must give as much information Jan. 15.—Mrs. John McManns at This activity is noted in every race, enter into the reckoning. The Mas business experience, references, and Mrs. Ford Green and children her home in Withey, after a long the the function varies greatly. To ter Teacher seeks to do His utmost other pertinent matters. No objeca few days last week with his daugh- and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Green illness. Three sons and four daugh- avoid throwing stones at ourselves, for the hearers by calling their at- tion to part time man until business. Jan. 18.—Edward B. Covill, 77 with much ostentation when the call manent, and which will be current tion, address Post Office Box 878,

Bernard McAndrew visited his Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Davis and years of age, at his home in Wells-comes from the minaret of the tem- in the life that is eternal. In an Jamestown, N. Y. grandmother, Mrs. Alice Livermore, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davis were ville, where he had been a resident ple. Prayer wheels are a device early pastorate a man and woman with the livermore, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Davis were ville, where he had been a resident ple. Sunday evening visitors at the home and proprietor of the Covill Jewelry with some who believe that they are came rather unexpectedly before the Store for 17 years. His wife, two credited with a prayer every time session and sought admission to the repairing, rush and splint seats, that wheel turns around. More in- church. When I asked them what carting free. The City Upholstery, Jan. 20.—Archibald H. Gaines of telligent people may be just as inef- had especially influenced them they 12 Depot street, Canisteo. Wellsville, aged 50 years. He leaves fective when they assume to pray. | replied that it was a verse which I Each one who really approaches had used at the funeral of their Jan. 10.—Wesley Gross, 18-year- the Throne of God has a place, or baby: "Where thy treasure is, there old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Gross places of prayer. Thither we resort will thy heart be also." Wednesday while at work on his Father. At times it takes longer to when we rest our lives in the Allcon-i Giver. Worry does not help any

Luke gives the Lord's Prayer as and pray at the same to The Teacher pur-things shall be added unto a lifelong resident of Wellsville. posed to indicate principles in prayer Matthew 6:33.

AUCTION The undersigned will sell at Public Auction on the San Jan. 11.—Alfred Sutherby drop-ped dead at his home in Wellsville, ford Mead farm, now owned by Mrs. Perry Stevens, five Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, aged 74 years. Deceased was born miles from Andover, on West Greenwood Hill THURSDAY, JANUARY 30, 1930 at 1 O'clock Sharp

6 HOLSTEIN COWS, 2 HEIFERS, coming two years food, everything else formed gas. ou years, at his home on Knights old; 1 BULL, coming two and 8 head full blood all T. B. Now, thanks to Adlerika, I eat any-

Hay Rigging, Buggy, Harrow, nearly new; Potato Hiller, nearly new; Flat lieves all GAS so you can eat and Land Plow, Hay Rack, Cider Barrel, Shovels, Rakes, Pitch Forks, Neck sleep better. Acts on BOTH upper Yokes, Log Chain, 40 Black Leghorn Pullets now laying and all other and lower bowel, removing poisons Wilhelm Will, I offer for sale the HOUSEHOLD GOODS:-2 Beds, Springs, 2 Wash Stands, 2 Tables, 4 which caused your stomach trouble.

on good interest-bearing notes payable at Andover State Bank.

PAGE SEVEN

chunk stove, sideboard, dining table, desk, rocking chairs. S. P. Tay-FOR SALE-Cream separator an

FOR SALE --- Wood or gas range,

wood cook stove. E. A. Richardson FOR RENT FOR RENT-Mrs. Jane Slocum house on Baker street. Inquire & Charles Hoard, 24 Dyke street,

FOR RENT-Rooms, furnished o.

eral prayer, such as adoration, wor- Company. Agency to cover Auto-

Strayed or Stolen Black and white house cat, has a black nose, very tame. Any information regarding him will be Allegany County Leads Albany, Jan. 18.—Allegany counthe State Home Bureau Federation ed a membership gain during the year of 28 per cent. greater than the gain of any other county. The average membership of each bureau was 634, but the largest bureau in the state, Erie county, had a membership of more than 1.300.

is a Prescription for 'it is the most speedy remedy knows.

Married Woman Fears Gas -Eats Only Baby Food "For three years I ate only baby

PAIR WORK HORSES, Double Harness, Single Harness, Lumber Wagon, Just ONE spoonful Adlerika reyou never knew were there. and farm in the towns of Ward and Dining Room Chairs, Kitchen Chairs, Cock Stove, Heating Stove, Fruit No matter what you have tried for Main street last Friday evening. of December, 1929 and entered in Andover, formerly occupied by him, Jars, Dishes, Churn, Butter Bowls and many other articles too numerous stomach and bowels, Adlerika will

A good cup of tea is restful and refreshing. We have imported Silver Leaf Tea for over 30 years. is always uniformly good. Heart's Delight is equally good. Try it.

