than those of his father's generation

Every American baby born today

FIRST INSTALLMENT bunch of ribbons.

or real estate, when she had finally a touch of the bizarre into every dal and talk of real estate for a mo-

One young man, Billy Leeson, turned to the pretty brunette beside him. "I'm a hard working lawyer, down -one's been ruined by salt water: I refuse to spoil this." "Sh-sh!" said the girl.

"Why shouldn't I be?" demanded The lawyer shrugged. "I don't know. Only you seem a par erowd here. Nicer. not so-zo row pockets the ball."

cited and everything."

angers you or not. That's what you tertainer-sang-danced.

"Really, you're a sweet boy. And wear a wound stripe. Don't tell me it that the contender trained proper- the water had certain cavaliers whom -but you mustn't tell it to a soul- you've never heard of her!"

give one. We will all go to the pool. yielded to his demands for a di- The ladies will stand in the shallow vorce)—had a reputation for putting water. The gentlemen, each holding an anklet, will dive from the deep end. Swimming under water, the anklets upon the limbs of the ladies. "We go to the pool," said the No fair inching away. Thus will partners be arranged for the rest the evening's entertainment."

"We rarely go too far," she smil-' on. I've two dinner suits down here queerly: "I'll be standing at the edge of the pool," she said. "Is that an invitation?" he asked. She exhaled fiercely, as the puffing away a strand of hair that an-

"Honest, you seem rapt and exyou'd want to know if she was married, my cautious friend," she jibed 'You needn't bother, only-" "Only what?" he inquired, as she

"Nothing at all," she replied. and in that moment the dinner broke Sunday supplements. "Now tell me spoke to a man whom he knew.

"Nurse?" asked Leeson:

one tiny glass too many of the cham-created by her earlier words. She must have a drag with the Clarys, pagne whose bursting corks had lent moved slightly away from him, and to be placed next to her."

a Fourth-of-July tone to the party, paid attention to her hostess.

He had met Devil-May-Co the steed upon a chair and waved a "in days of old," went on Mrs. he was glad that he had not met her nas had tendered an invitation, he dripping features twisted in a tri-Clary, "fair ladies were wont to give earlier. Otherwise—he was an ex- had not the wit to grasp it instantly, umphant smile, bent over and dipped guerdons to their brave knights—a tremely sane young man-leaving but must clumsily ask her to tell his hands below the surface of the

Mrs. Clement Clary-"Copper" Cla- lock of hair, a jewel, a ribbon, and Palm Beach would not have been him in words of one syllable. Cal- water. Leeson tapped the man easy. In one brief hour at dinner low that was the word, he not infrequently said, hell, head- "The pretty custom of our ances- she had left marks upon his soul. His feet lagged, and he was last "I claim a foul," he said quietly. lines and five millions in cash (the tresses has given me an idea for to- He knew that. Now, strolling with at the pool. The men had disdained "I like winners," first Mrs. Clary had refused stocks, night's party. I have here sixteen the laughing crowd toward the pool, bathing suits, and, dinner-coated and carelessly. bonds, other negotiable instruments, anklets. To each man here I will with them but in no way of them, he patent-leathered, stood laughing by Three men pounced upon her: drive an airplane: she'd shot a tiger: led the mirth of the men. debonairly skincered her own speed-I to one side. "I'm rotten at catching names," boat out to Rum Row off the Jersey "You don't mean that," said Lee at the card by her plate. Who is told a thrilled world that she wanted pole. This anklet fits a certain girl cozy supper for two." to meet men who were the spiritual and I'm the ba-ad boy who's going "Your dinner partner? That's heirs of L'Ollonois. Blackbeard, La-Ito cut it on her."

would take issue with him, debate musical comedy since. Got nearer unchaperoned, a lone woman amid her.

her expressions, remembered all that now tripping down to the shallow water. Across the pool young Lee- | 8 She turned away from him again, he had read of her in the fevered end; toes tested the temperature of son was leading a young girl from cause severe pain. She could the water, and shrill shricks drown-the water. the kind to make some man hap y she was dragged away by them. He she'd climbed the mountains; she'd A tall, Viking-like man edged him "Stand anywhere else, young felhe said, "and I didn't get a glance Coast, and in extenuation—thereof ler." he chuckled, "but give me the quality in the girl's laughter which Lucy Harkness; "Devil-May-Care,' fitte and the rest. Scandal always! Leeson eyed the man resentfully. consorted illy with the gay eyes, the everybody calls her. She was six- hovered about and around her, but and yet even in his resentment would and the smooth teen when we entered the war. Dis- not even its shadow rested upon her. have granted the charm of the blond rest of the evening is? Didn't she "And where did you appeared from home, and her par- Her friends, the press and public- giant. He had met him before, and say that we were to be partners? tory where the porky is numerous, learn so much about me, Mr. Lee- ents were nearly frantic. Lied about every one seemed to consider her had heard much of him. Stevens You know what these parties her age, her family, everything; a unique type, one to whom any-was his name, Tim Stevens. He pos-like: you come and go. Are you The young man's embarragament | managed to get over there. Decorat- | thing was possible and whom noth- | sessed all those things which Leeson quitter?" ing smirched. There was, for in-lacked: wealth, assured position, and "You know better," she reminded stance, the tip that had been given the things which accompany them. him. Her voice was languid, dulled, "At that age?" His acquaintance by a revengeful discharged maid, to Leeson remembered now that all as the interest had departed from are wholesome. I don't care if it laughed. "Lord no! Went as en- the effect that Lucy Harkness was thru dinner Stevens had called across the night. Heaven having an affair with Ted Kelly, the the table to Lucy Harkness, had "Then let's go," he said. knows where she picked it all up. lightweight contender. She was raised his glass to her, indeed had Still she lingered, watching For a moment it seemed as if she Turned down all sorts of offers for found at his camp in the Catskills never seemed to take his eyes off ple mount the steps leading from the the trivial matter; then she laughed, the front than any American wo- a dozen pugilists. Yet her announce- The air was rent with shrieks and turned back to her. patted him lightly on the cheek, and man. Gassed in a sudden attack, ment that she had bet twenty thou- cheers. Quite evidently many of "Did the wrong man win the race was given the right by Pershing to sand on Kelly and intended to see to the women standing waist-deep in to you?" he demanded.

The world also thought place the girdles of temporary part- the best man losing. The right man

He had met Devil-May-Care! Well, then, when this chastest of all Dia- He swam to them as Stevens, she asked. There was a final dis-"I knew." boasted Tim Stevens, sance and shoot him on sight. There seat us together, we'd be together very stupid beast, devoid of fear. ?" inquired Lucy Harkness.

ve always got He shook his head. "Not at all."

ing in tenements, starving: the tak- up on wires or otherwise protected. ters rule, my dear. But we aren't to re-created in his mind her features, the diving-board. The women were the pool, their feet paddling in the have to be cut out. They are poi-"Where?" she asked. "To the Minerva." he told her.

> She looked at him thoughtful "What's the idea. Tim?" "A little sail down the lake. "But we are guests of Mrs.

> water; his eyes followed hers.

THE PRICKLY PORCUPINE

One of the familiar inhabitants of the woodlands is the prickly old She turned to Stevens, from this harmless animal whenever say the porcupine is a common nui-

he returned and again to forage and destroy. The "porky" has an insistent craving for salt and will gnaw any-"So far?" she echoed. "But there thing that has the least saline flavor. must always be a Waterloo, mustn't anything that perspiring hands havetouched, such as an axe-handle, gunstock, canoe paddle, fishing rod or boat oars and will ruin the article. He is also very fond of leather thru and will chew up your saddle, bridle. gloves, belt, sweat-band of your hat "Do or any other sweaty cloth or rope.

the givers look happy? Watch them, Foodstuffs that are salty or greasy waiting on table, driving taxis, liv- are never safe from him unless hung the are hard to extract from the flesh or clothing. When they break off i they work deep into the-body --- and Few farmers or sportsmen who > lown dogs have not experienced the time when "Shep" clamped his jaws over the back of a porcupine in an leffort to crush out the life of the strange looking animal. Many men and boys have set for hours with a pair of pinchers extracting quills from the lips, mouth and tongue of their favorite hunting dog. The lesson the dog learns is a good one as he rarely bothers the spiny inhabitant of the outdoors after once getting his fill of sharp quills. Don't fall for the age-worn belief quills any great distance. He merepossesses the ability to "drop" a few needles as he plods along in his leffort to escape. His quills naturalally picked up later by other animals

More than 200 Onondaga county She twisted her pretty shoulders. potato growers treated potato; seed ly, was accepted applaudingly by all they preferred to be the ones to "That's a fallacy, that rot about in 1929.

ANDOVER NEWS, ANDOVER, N. Y., FRIDAY, JAN. 31, 1930

of Mrs. Barney Schriener West Greenwood Grange Hall, Satat Welleville. Thomas Joyce and sons, Raymond and Edward and Orville Greene were Mona were in Andover, Wednesday, than his father. visitors at Floyd Slocum's, Wednes- Mrs. Ada Atherton spent the week day evening. end at her home at Adrian. Mr. and Mrs. E. Carson and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Padden and 16 or so, had been guided by the have been perfected. Clarence of Wellsville, Mr. and Mrs. family spent Sunday with her par- wisdom of Thomas Lincoln, age 36. Now capital in large amount has and a night's sleep will put it back most of Europe. But the man who Bert Halsey and Mrs. Pearl Davis ents, Mr. and Mrs. Will O'Dell on "Now, Abe," we can imagine him been subscribed to finance industries into trim again. Probably no human reaches 55 cannot count on more

Davis Hill

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum attended Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster and vision that was to help him conquer GAS I. O. O. F. installation at Wellsville, family were Tuesday evening guests the world. of Mr. and Mrs. Lester York.

guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Hor-

Greenwood

Saturday callers in Greenwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Updyke were ton of Hornell.

Rexville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arling Briggs, Miss- Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Davis and But there must be convictions, not ever before. War is no longer an defect in the physical organs. es Edna and Rosanna Joyce were son, Fred, spent the week-end at the Sunday guests at the home of Mr. home of their daughter, at Hornell. or passions. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum. Iva Ueidimeir were out of town more" than their fathers.

spending some time with relatives Andover, Tuesday. turned last Wednesday from a two Mildred Coombs. weeks visit with relatives at Elmira Mr. and Mrs. Van Coombs and you have the chance." Miss M. Kelly, teacher of Marsh and Mrs. Harry Baker, Monday school spent the week-end with her George Conley and Mrs. E. Teribury were in Andover. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Train and Leowere Saturday night and Sunday with Phyllis Mulconery in Andover, Saturday.

In the matter of the application and two daughters. Bernice and of Clarence A. Slaght as administ Saturday evening trator of the Estate of George with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Spencer in Hartrum, deceased, for an Order and Decree finally, judicially set-Miss Dorothy Sampson spent Mon-tling his accounts as such adminday night with Miss Mae Whitmore, listrator; and for authority to sell Sunday after-said deceased died seized in order at to pay the debts. funeral expenses and etc., of said deceased.

Young Hickory. BY VIRTUE OF AN ORDER Whitmore attended the show in Hor-granted in the above entitled pro- to me about getting a job nell Saturday afternoon. Mrs. George Stephens, Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. George Stephens the Office of the Surrogate's Clerk visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cook in of the County of Allegany, at Bel- world.

Trowbridge. town Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Caffery and the real property owned by said de- and yet know how, gently and apdaughter and Albert Caffery of West ceased, at the time of his death preciatively, to temper it with the

A. L. Trowbridge was a business a portion of Great Lot No. 65, Red Kidney Beans, Beets, Asparacaller in Canisteo, Saturday after- bounded and described as follows: gus. Pimentoes, Oris Taylor and Miss Isabelle | Street in said Villlage at a stake in Bankes of Canisteo called on Mr. the southwest corner of the Henderand Mrs. Fay Taylor Saturday even-son Lot in said Village, running

Mr. and Mrs. George York and what was known as the Henderson two sons, James and Alton, Mr. and Lot 238 feet to the northwest corn Mrs. Tom Taylor and two children er thereof; thence westerly on Ganistee and Mr. and Mrs. Clif-line parallel with the center ford Caffery and daughter visited Baker street, 194 feet; thence south Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Jr., Sun- erly on a line parallel with the

Miss Dorothy Sampson spent the the northwest corner of the Platts week-end with Miss Agnes McCaf- lot now owned by one Wallace; fery and attended the dance. the wallace lot on a line "California Fig Syrup"

Nearly Killed by Gas

Simple glycerin, buckthorn, saline, 198 as mixed in Adlerika, helps dage Drug Co.

-Druggist Saves Her east corner of the Wallace Lot

A DOLLAR'S WORTH

THE CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MONITOR

A Paper for the Home, World Wide in Its Scope

CLARENCE A. SLAGHT Estate of George Hart-

Clip this coupon and mail it with $1 for a six weeks' triel subscription to

Than His Father

Sometimes a boy does know more

Ours would have been a very dif- this farm waste for making paper mind. ferent history if Abe Lincoln, age and also a substitute for lumber nourishment, will quit of its own ac- 55, which is the average length of saying, "don't waste time readin' which will contract with farmers for being has ever used his brain to its than 15 years more of life with any Louise Hyland spent a few days them books. Readin' never done me their stalks, after harvest, send their full capacity. Men who have studied degree of certainty, and the chances Tom. Ellerington of Niagara Falls at Andover, where she was trying any good, and what was good enough own machines into the fields to gath. that subject say that most of us use are that he will pass on in ten years. Mrs. Gladys Brown and daughter, Lincoln knew more than his fath- points where they will be manufac- thought. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Davis and fam- Veronica, have returned to their er. It was a divine disobedience tured into useful products. This But let worry, jealousy, fear of ily, Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Davis, home on King Hill after spending that led him to close his ears to the will help conserve the forests and losing one's job, one's money or extinct Creat Relation takes according Mrs. Pearl Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Ar- some time with her father, Fred man who had brought him into the will also add to the profits of the one's sweetheart, creep in, and the to remind the United States that world, and open his heart to the corn growers.

The boy who has not some firm The International Red Cross is violent stimulation, and the process Mr. and Mrs. Glen Amesbury, Mrs. Will O'Dell, daughter Fran-convictions and a willingness to de-preparing for the next war. One of of decay is hastening. Most of the pecially the sensational newspapers Howard Greene and Mr. McCormick ces and son, Richard, spent Tuesday fend them, even against the argu- the certainties about the next war deaths from heart disease and kidattended the dance at Greenwood, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. ment of those older than himself, is on any large scale is that poison gas ney trouble are the result of emo- war is more "newsey" are already Mr. and Mrs. John Williams and I know two men who "knew tions. The aggressor in the next > is ward and Robert O'Dell were in his salary is $40 a week. poison gas from the clouds. But the boy quit school and went call this a civilized world

Veta Coombs spent Monday night other day. "There is a man who" might have become general manager Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster were of this business if he had a college education. His salary might have been $20,000 a year; instead He's reached his limit |Surrogate's Court: County of Alle-| What a shame that he hasn't educa-| tion enough to go on."

> And his boyish obstinancy is costing "Keep vourself clean, my said the father of another hov. "You'll never regret it. man who is worth his salt must sow good intentions, as follows:

He "knew more" than his father.

So he sowed right merrily. I saw him the other day. He came should keep her feet warm, and her than on any other deadly enemy of ceedings by this Court by Guy O. I could not give him a job; should not wrap three hundred dol- vince, when I am appealed Mrs. Emiline York visited Mr. and Hinman. Surrogate. on the 31st day man could. God knows what will beof December, 1929 and entered in come of him.

YOUTH is the mainspring of the mont, N. Y., on the 31st day of De- Its insurgency, its inquisitiveness, her feet in ballroom sandals. the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. A. at Public Auction at the Law Of- forward in spite of the conservat- telling young women that jay-bird best. fice of Crayton L. Earley, in the ism of age. Mrs. George Bankes and daughter Village of Andover. New York on Fortunate are those of us who Isabelle of Canisteo were callers in the 24th day of February, 1930 at recognize the divine importance of ten o'clock in the forenoon, all of youth's cocksureness and conceit,

Hill called on their grandparents, bounded and described as follows: riper judgment of added years. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge Sun- ALL THAT TRACT, PIECE OR Speaking of Heart's Delight veg-PARCEL OF LAND, situate in the etables, here are some of them: To- Formerly sold for $25 $30 $35 $40. A F A Bilious Fever and Malaria. D. P. Madison of Canisteo was in Village of Andover, County of Al- matoes, Corn, Succotash, Peas (five town Monday afternoon on business. legany and State of New York being sizes), Wax, Refugee, Baked and aforesaid Henderson line 88 feet to

Children's Harmless

the problem of how to get rid of his cently made to the New York Acad-er them, and haul them to central less than a quarter of our power of COAL whole picture is changed. The emo-

they will endow coming generations will be used on a larger scale than tional tension rather than any real trying to lay the foundation for in-If we ever do go to war against Great Britain it will be over some-With all the talk about the in-thing far more important than a great war will not wait for the ene- creased average length of human coal-bed located where the tempera-One boy is the office manager of my to assemble an army, but will try life, the age of 70 still remains the ture is always below freezing and Mrs. Edward Padden and son, Ed- a large manufacturing concern, and to wipe out a whole city by dropping normal limit for the human being, usually 40 degrees or so below zero. So Dr. Louis Dublin, medical head Even if the coal were accessible if "Better go on in school," said his What the Red Cross is looking for of one of the great insurance com- would not be worth fighting over. Mrs. Grace Brewster and daugh- father to him when he was 17 years is some means of detecting the most panies, reports. Only exceptional Coal is losing its importance in the Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Edwards re- ter, Idanette, spent Monday with old. "Better go to college; better minute trace of poison gas in the individuals live beyond 70, and in economic scheme of things, now that get all the education you can while air. A prize of $2,000 is offered to America the proportion who die be-oil has become the principal fuel for the successful inventor. And we tween 65 and 70 is increasing. Yet the world's navies as well as the heels of astonishing altitude are most unnaturally freakish, contrary BRIEF BUSINESS BRINGERS ) all laws of common sense—that > range and refrigerator. G. H. Beebe. led away good advice and the time it took to give it, on the barber that that time is a mighty precious com- customers, unquestionably carrying WANTED—Young calves to yeal. modity that everybody has, and rubbish from diseased scalps to Floyd Slocum. that it should not be ruthlessly healthy ones. Along with the brush i-WANTED-High grade man as thrown away. To waste time, is to goes the public comb, equally ef-And some squander something that can never fective in doing harm. Maybe you agent for outstanding old line. legal But the boy knew more than his am trying in my modest way, to tell vant to keep a jar of antiseptic solu- Company. Agency to cover Autofather. He knew that every young you my opinion of prodigalities that tion in which to submerge his brush mobile Insurance with exclusive ter-I have committed with perfectly and comb between customers—I just ritory and opportunity to build per-I have found it an utter foolish- I have, perhaps, squandered more manent business of your own in a rapidly growing field. Applications ness to tell my lady patient that she time against the six o'clock dinner dence must give as much information lars worth of furs about her neck, victim of the custom. who comes to business experience, references, and and go in zero temperatures with me with failing circulation, a threat her legs clad in silk stockings, and of apoplexy, shortness of breath, And, I have wasted many a word neys—these at the age of 50 or 60,

WANT upholstering, refinishing, carting free. The City Upholstery

Colds, Grippe, Flu, Dengue, minerals which might be lost in the

EVERY OVERCOAT

Every $25, $30, $35 Suits, all re-

15 FUR COATS Sold up to $125.00 WHILE THEY LAST! $39.50

FUR COATS Sold up to $175.00 WHILE THEY LAST!

$59.50

DIOTICE!

"THE WOMEN'S SHOP OF HORNELL"

COAT, SUIT & DRESS

122 COATS Sold up to $49.50 WHILE THEY LAST!

COATS Sold up to

DRESSES CHOICE

& C., COAT, SUIT & DRESS CO., Inc.,

SILK DRESSES

CHOICE

$18.00,

$6.85

YOUR

$20.00, $25.00