GEE! But It Makes Me Hopping Mad!

Some folks act as if they were doing you a favor, when they allow you to paint their houses and bring them back to new again. I often their own suburban street and make comparisons?

The shabby house, unpainted, stands out most conspicuously and it always seems to be saying: "The folks who live here have no community pride." And there's a lot of truth in this idea. People do not wear ragged clothes-they'd be ashamed to. Then, why live in ill-kept, frayed and unsightly homes? I make homes attractive, colorful
