

confide his commissions.

The man grinned.

'in' people in arguments."

It was all over so quickly that she because of the like of—" he was a crusty old bachelor—"

With a shudder, she felt the ring slip upon her finger.

THIRD INSTALLMENT SYNOPSIS

shady character, informs Maddison that Rex had cashed a check for 18,000 pounds bearing Luke's signature. Detective Bird, known as "The Sparrow" calls on Maddison, the money. who refuses to take any action altho his signature was forged on the Frother was a forger. Her love for : events is the figure, still shadowy, of Gunner Haynes, a famous Ameri-Maddison and Margaret, apparently,

Now go on with the story-

By chance, the evening before Rex's

She stood there, her bands gripped, her breath coming quickly and more quickly, and heard him override the protests which came over the wire. Presently he hung up the phone and turned to her, a smile of triumph on his flushed face. "You are Maddison's!" he said "Lock, stock and barrel, darling-I am what old Bird calls a child of the poor." Even she could not realize that he was speaking prophetically. "Do you want to see a man named Lewing?" Stiles asked Maddison. "Lewing? Who is he?" From Mr. Stile's expression disparagement he gathered that Lewing was not of any great ac-"Show him in."

the room was tall and spare of build. crook. That's silly. If you can't do at last. "No--no, don't interrupt. His deep-set eyes had in them a work you've got to do something; It's a big thing. I don't want to she loved him. "Mornin' sir."

He neld his head downwards and He seemed rather proud of this "Ive been a selfish brute. Of, tective was there, the Sparrow—the sideways, looking up from under accomplishment; was not without his course, darling, I quite understand." Sparrow, who righted so many sir." he said in his husky voice. Stiles left with the greatest reluct- hancens to him, and he can write to "Sit down, will you?" and drew a chair to him.

The visitor sat down. up for him, but the bek handed out her. With a shudder she felt the Luke Maddison were not among the the three moon. The Gunner's ap- ring slip upon her finger. pealin' to the sessions." Luke nodded.

"He has got three months hard of her vengeance was played. Some- Margaret at once. Before lunch he Labor and is appealing? I hope he body put a pen into her hand, and remembered and telephoned. gets off. Did he send you to me?" a squat forefinger showed her the Lewing nodded slowly. He had place where she must sign her began. the appearance of a man who was name. For a long time she held the Lying and expected to be found out pen, and when she wrote it wavered the suspicion she felt. in her firgers and the scrawled sigat any moment. "Yes. A few quid would do him nature looked like nothing she had ment," he said gaily.

a bit of good. He wants a mouth-lever seen. off—an' the Sparrer knows." | Meurice, or was it the Bristol? There that she would be asked to renounce which are being continually put out "Who is the Sparrow?" A slow smile dawned on Mr. Lew- about these details; anyway, they {did not matter if she kept her cour- | lievable!" ing's face. "He's a busy—a detective. Bird age. The two o'clock wedding had by name—" not wholly confined to diately after to catch the night boat that I have rather less than I need."

confided Lewing, were alone in her pretty little draw-three o'clock.' -a few quid would help him." ance with the redoubtable gunman present has been found dead with a note addressed to his sister stating that he dressed to his sister stating that he manners and certainly the vocabu- kind. I wonder if he came to pick hardly believe the evidence of his and grounds. The sheriff was adsent to inmates are carefully searchhas been ruined by investments rec- mean sneak-thief who was looking hat to me as I came out."

Stammering like a schoolboy, he vised that prisoners should always ed and visitors supervised. ammended by Luke Maddison, weal- at him stealthily from the other side | She was not listening, and, after told her in disjointed sentences of be carefully supervised when work- Copies of the jail rules and record of the table was hardly the type of he had gone, could remember noth the situation which had arisen, and ing outside the jail, to prevent the cards used in connection with inman in whom the Gunner would ing that he had said except some she listened and did not speak until passage of contraband or breaches mates' funds are attached hereto for thing about Rex. It was indecent he stopped.

rang her up, but she would not see she said. "A tenth of that would about as follows: Breakfast—either That the deficiencies in the heat-"I suppose you know Mr. Bird or receive him. She must go thru have saved Rex." very well?" he asked as he counted now without help. Luke was com- He could only stare at her un- and sugar, bread and butter, coffee door which will not close be repairing at seven. At six she called him comprehendingly. and had one panicky moment when "It was rather dreadful to see a ed beef or hamburg or friend salt the plate fronts in the cells in the "The Sparrer? I should say se! she feared that he had already left man make a god of money, Luke, pork or baked beans, potatoes, veg-old part, and steel folding seats and check. Maddison does not know of He's always goin' on about the child- his flat and could not be found, and to know that for its sake he is etable, bread and butter, coffee with tables be installed in each cell. ren of the poor-but he's always Then she heard his voice. laggin' 'em! He pretends there's a "Darling, isn't it odd. I can't be-life."

> the clang of a bell; to herself hardly seemed that it was she who "And to accuse this poor dead boy of forgery—to add that infamy to "I-you are speaking of me?" he said in a whisper. "Of you. I knew that you were coming to get your money back—i that is why I did not go with you to Here, where I have friends and can meet you on even terms." A pause, and then:

Not a penny can you have—not She wished he would speak during the silence that followed. She wished he would rave, curse her, do all the things that were consistent with her picture of him. But he said nothing. He was not even looking at her, but was studying the pattern of the carpet. Presently he

"Good-bye," he said and turned

"Luke, I am giving you no mon-

You gave it to me—it is mine.

The man who followed Stiles into mind—"of fellows who go on the thing for me." She found her voice and then there came to her a realfurtiveness that was almost animal. you can't starve. The last time the go away tonight, not for a day or Why he gravitated to the Em-I want to be alone, not to see bankment he could never tell; and it almost seemed to Luke that it I says: 'Look here, Mr. Bird, why you. My nreves are in a terrible seemed a natural objective. He had he was pricing every article within don't you go after the children of state; I think I am on the verge of no thought of suicide, no intention of finding that gross way to forgetthe As she went on, he listened with fulness. Walking slowly by the movables as would show him a pro- poor?' He couldn't answer me. He a growing sense of alarm and dis- parapet, he came to a halt before was dumbfounded. I'm always beat- may. And yet he was not thinking Scotland Yard and eyed that Gothic building incuriously. That big de-vanities, even if he had to lie about The conversation did not occupy wrongs, could hardly disentangle the five minutes of time; he could hard-problem which deadened the mind "Here is ten pounds. Give that ly realize what was happening, to of Luke Maddison. The "children Luke glanced at the manager and to your friend. I can't help him what he was agreeing, before he was of the poor!" He smiled mirthlesssignalled him to leave the room. Mr. much more. I'd like to know what sitting at his writing table staring ly. He was one of the children of blankly at the telegraph forms which he was to cancel so many big man. To protect the children of At two o'clock Margaret Leferre pleasant arrangements. the poor and punish the wrongdoer. stended from her car at the door of Danty, waiting at Waterloo Sta- Who had done wrong? Margaret? face, the visitor stretched out a hand the Marylebone registrar's office, and tion with a full view of the barrier, He tried hard to apportion all blame official, turned to greet the, palest filter thru to the platform. He saw head and walked slowly back toward bride that had ever entered those the barrier close and the red

She spoke not at all, only answer- the darkness, and went home humhoarse voice. "The Sparrow spoke ed the questions that were put to ming a little song, for Mr. and Mrs. DON'T LIKE OUR LOCK-UP SITE (Continued from First Page)

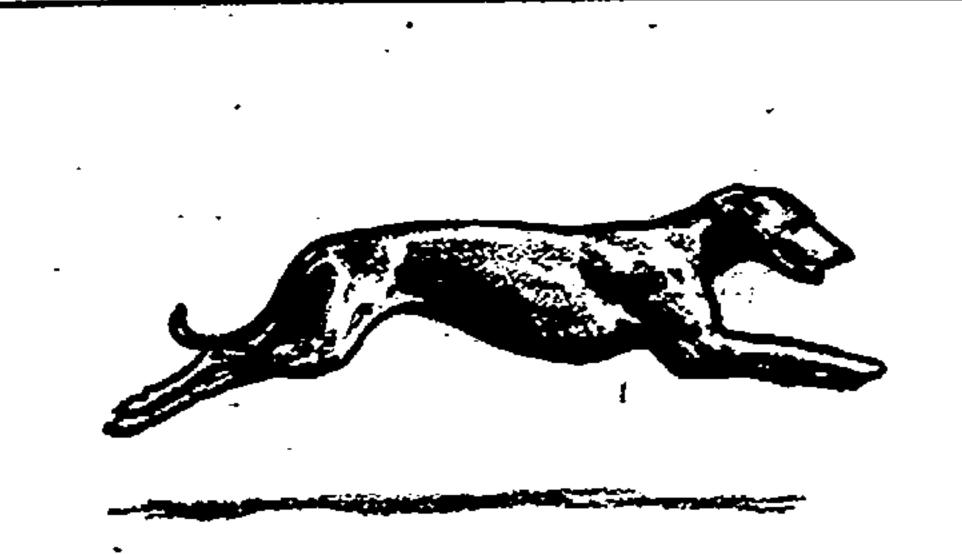

and at the time of inspection, althou it was not a severely cold day, one "I want to see you, darling," he section was too cold to be habitable. t would be possible to replace "Why?" It was difficult to disguise the doors and cell fronts with modern barred doors and gratings, as is "I want you to sign a little docu-| contemplated in another county jail. and while this is being done some So that was it! Danty had warned scheme could doubtless be devised piece. The Sparrer says he'll get Leaving for Paris that night—the her. Only she had never dreamed to protect the water supply valves

> The niche toilets in the new part! are showing signs of rust and . the The installation of a steel fold ing table and seat in each cell, as It was merely Inmates are required to bathe on He was, true to his methods, five

Luke felt in his pocket and took of him to mention the boy. Danty "Ninety-seven thousand pounds," Three meals, a day are served a cooked or dry cereal with milk ing system be corrected, the cell with milk and sugar. Dinner-stew-ed, grated fronts be substituted for willing to sacrifice even a young milk and sugar. Supper-bread and milk or soup with bread, and tea. lot of poor people who are sufferin' lieve it—I still think of myself as To him her voice sounded like Inmates without funds receive one

SPEED

in MODERN

FF at the touch of a switch. That's your 1930 electric range. You wait but an instant for burners to come to life. Then there's loads of Here's greyhound speed, and cleanliness such as you've never even dreamed about, plus amazing economy. For cooked electrically, meals cost but about a pennya person. While the price of most necessities has almost doubled, Niagara Hudson electricity costs less today than when flaming youth smoked calabash pipes real heat for fast cooking.

Electric Cooking

Ovens heat as quickly as a storm breaks in April. And, once started, automatic oven control tends meals like the tried and true cook it is. Food tastes better, too, cooked in the flavor sealed oven.

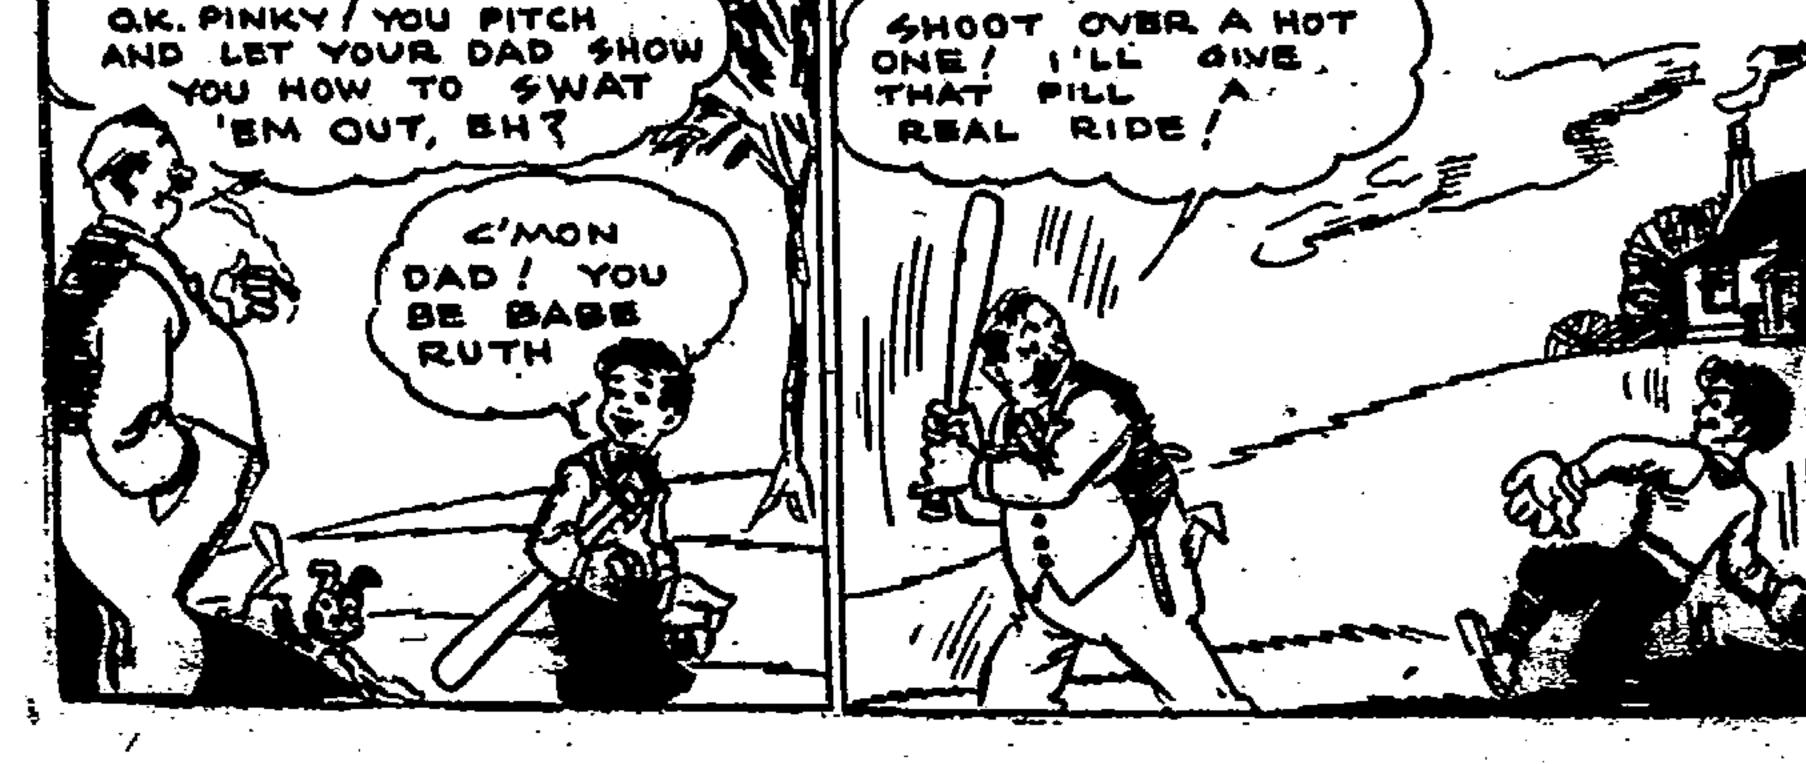

NIAGARA, LOCKPORT & ONTARIO POWER COMPANY

WHO'S GOING TO GET SPANKED

minutes late, when he was shown admission and at least weekly there-

Greenwood

Mrs. Catherine Dean, a resident Trowbridge. of the hill for more than a half century, died at her home the morning Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Caffery were of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Halsey, Sun- St. Bonaventure of May 2nd, and her death is mourn-callers in Alfred, Sunday. ed by the entire community. Sin- Mrs. Jennie Williamson left Mon- Rosanna and Edna Joyce were cere sympathy is extended to the day for Canisteo to spend a few Sunday dinner guests at the home A loss of $500,000 was suffered Over-fatigue or unhappiness at the home A loss of $500,000 was suffered Over-fatigue or unhappiness at the home of the loss of the control most time may be the cause cuse, detoured from Elmira for din- Agnes McCaffery. ner with his mother and family on Mrs. Mark Todd and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Leeman Davis floor of the monastery and had gain-

Sunday with Triends. home over the week-end. recently in school meeting activities. Cleone Thompson and Porter Thomp- of Mrs. Leo Davis, Tuesday. Mrs. J. Dougherty and Mrs. H. son of Canisteo spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Montgom-Dean motored to Wellsville, Tues- Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Bess in Wood- ery and son of Hornell visited at Printing House.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Dennis of Hor- Mr. and Mrs. Judd Sampson visit- Mrs. Herbert Walton of Medina, nell were Sunday callers at the Dean ed Mr. and Mrs. Sam Sampson in moved her household goods to the and Dougherty homes. East Greenwood, Sunday. John Dean of Wellsville, who was Mr. and Mrs. H. C. McCaffery Edward Earley where she will make called to Andover by the death of and two sons and Mr. and Mrs. her home for the present. Mrs. Catherine Dean, was calling on Stewart McCaffery visited Mr. and Misses Rosanna and Edna Joyce; relatives, Tuesday.

Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge, Sunday. School meetings were in order, Mrs. Oro Woodward and daughter afternoon. Tuesday evening and altho there Marie of Woodward Hollow visited Mrs. Pauline Adams of Wellsville was some rivalry as to trustee in Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge, Monday. is visiting her mother, Mrs. E. Car-Fulmer Valley district, matters were settled amicably.

Whitesville

May 5.—The weather has been were in Canisteo on business, Mondelightful the past few days. Farmers are busy preparing the ground for the crops. Mrs. Clara P. Simmons who has urday. been spending the winter with her Mrs. George Caffery spent daughter in Friendship, returned to week with her daughter, Mrs. Grant Conley. her home here Saturday for the Fuller in Andover. Mrs. P. K. Millspaugh went 'to

Andover Sunday afternoon and was Hornell visitor Monday, returning Mrs. Ella Green and Mr. and Mrs. John Will was drawing wood Roy Shattuck of New York were re- Monday. cent guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Lyle Cady of Adams Center and Miss Aroline Lewis of Ithaca spent thur Hall, Tuesday. the week-end with her parents, Mr. Douglas Sanford was calling on were in Andover, Friday. Mrs. Thomas Leet and the young Bradish Coudersport, Pa., also Charles Sigremoved by Dr. H. R. Taylor, last

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Deming visited . Andover relatives several days last ' Mrs. Arthur Stockwell has been n Vermont. Mrs. Eva Walden is employed in the home of Dr. and Mrs. H. R. $50 at their May breakfast. from Saturday night of Wellsville and Mr. and Mrs. Guy again. Whitney and sons of Hornell. Barney Mills

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Bliss shopped

Mr. and Mrs John Wallace and family were callers at Norm Rogers Mrs. Neva Edwards, William Emery

Tr. and Mrs. Leo Davis and family Saturday callers in Andover.

bereaved family, in the loss of their days with her daughter, Mrs. Glenn of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Slocum. Will Dean of Philadelphia, on the Miss Dorothy Sampson spent Fri- family and Mr. and Mrs. Orville seminary and church buildings Green's, Sunday.

Ordo Williamson and Clarence Mr. Davis. The Schoonover families spent Webster were in Hornell, Tuesday, Mrs. Pearl Davis is visiting her sonal property and collections were found. A tablet called Rexall Orunday with friends. Many out-of-town friends and A shower was held for Mr. and The annual school meeting of Sister, Mrs. James Gibson of Nile.

Sister, Mrs. James Gibson of Nile.

WANTED

Sister, Mrs. James Gibson of Nile.

Fire companies from most of the tablet attracts water from the system. relatives were callers at the J. Dean Mrs. Oris Taylor at the home of District No. 6 was held Tuesday surrounding towns responded to a into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel WANTED—Poultry and all kinds home over the week-end. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Trowbridge, evening with a good attendance. call for help and assisted in keeping called the colon. The water loosens of junk. Paying best cash prica. Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniher and son, Wednesday evening. They received Floyd Slocum was re-elected trus- the fire from spreading to the adja- the dry food waste and causes a Bring to Mrs. Coats' any time after and of Wellsville visited, their movement and son, was re-elected trus-Harold of Wellsville visited their many useful and beautiful presents. tee; L. E. Bavis, collector and Leo cent buildings, fighting hard against gentle, thoro, natural movement 6 p. m., any day. Isaac Fleishman. daughters and families on Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Stephens and Davis, clerk and Miss Genevieve a strong wind, their work is being without forming a habit or ever in-

The Messrs. Clark and Griggs son, Olin, of Dryden Hill; Burr Wil- Clark teacher for the coming year. praised. It is estimated that 10,000 creasing the dose. Arling Briggs' home Sunday.

visited Mrs. Frank Halsey, Sunday Ordo Williamson and two child- son this week. ren and Bell Bennett was in Hornell Edna and Rosanna Joyce visited Sunday to see Leo Williamson, at Mary Etta Spicer Saturday night

West Greenwood Albert Baker of Norton Hollow was a business caller in town, Sat-May 5.-Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Teribury and family of Andover

last spent Sunday at the home of George Clarence Brutsman and Frank Northrup were in Andover, Friday.) Mrs. Gladys Brown and Veronica of King Hill have been spending May 3.—Otto Witter and family few days at the home of her father, were in town, Monday evening. Fred Conrad. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Hyland and family attended mass at Andover, James Mitchell was in this vicin- Sunday morning. Otto Witter was calling on Ar-Ischool house, Friday, Arbor Day. Ivan Brown and Bernice Conrad

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Brewster and

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Douglas of ... OI Scranton, Pa., are visiting her broth-Otto Witter and family were in working the Mary O'Boyle farm.

Mr. and Mrs. John Rogers, Jr., dence.

Arthur Hall moved his family spending some time visiting relatives from the Mary O'Boyle farm, Sat-Otto Witter and Gordon Douglas were in town with a veal calf, Sat-

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slocum and grandson, Ernest Rice were calling Mrs. P. K. Millspaugh had as on Otto Witter and family, Satur-

now drawing mail with his car once

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence McCracken cality with a veal calf, Saturday. ton to Los Angeles, Cal. They made and family who have lived in our the distance from Scranton here in neighborhood for some time, have the record time of nine hours by spent Friday afternoon with Mrs. party for William Slocum held at Mr. and Mrs. Sherd Austin enter of Scranton, Pa.; Mr. and Mrs. Les-Edwards and daughter, Eveof Rocherter. A fine dinner was they be well-grown, healty, number,

BELMONT, N. Y. FRIDAY

Bill $1.00.

Air and shake furs before storing Swept by Fire the fur the wrong way and examine trade. R. E. Shaff.

with the burning of the central meal time may be the cause Mr. and Mrs. Ford Green and group of buildings, the monastery, children's loss of appetite. return from a business trip to Syra-day night and Saturday with Miss Green were visitors at Archie St. Bonaventure college at Allegany. RELIEF FROM CURSE The fire started on the fourth Thursday, also called on the Cather- Charlotte of Bath and Mrs. Mary moved to Andover Sunday, from the ed considerable headway when disine Dean family. He was accom- Tilroe and son, Dexter of Syracuse Wilcox farm. Lawrence Ordinary covered. While the students respanied by a business associate, Mr. called on friends in town, Friday. Will move on the farm vacated by cued many valuable works of art, misery than any other cause."

Rut immediate relief has been applied to business associate, Mr. called on friends in town, Friday. Will move on the farm vacated by cued many valuable works of art, misery than any other cause."

were frequent callers on the hill liamson, Mrs. Mell Williamson, Mrs. Mabel Halsey was a visitor people and 2,000 cars were at the Character of property in school meeting activities activities activities character of property in school meeting activities act scene. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. planting, then cultivation can be de-Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c layed until the corn is high enough

Store. J. D. Cheesman & Co.

POR SALE

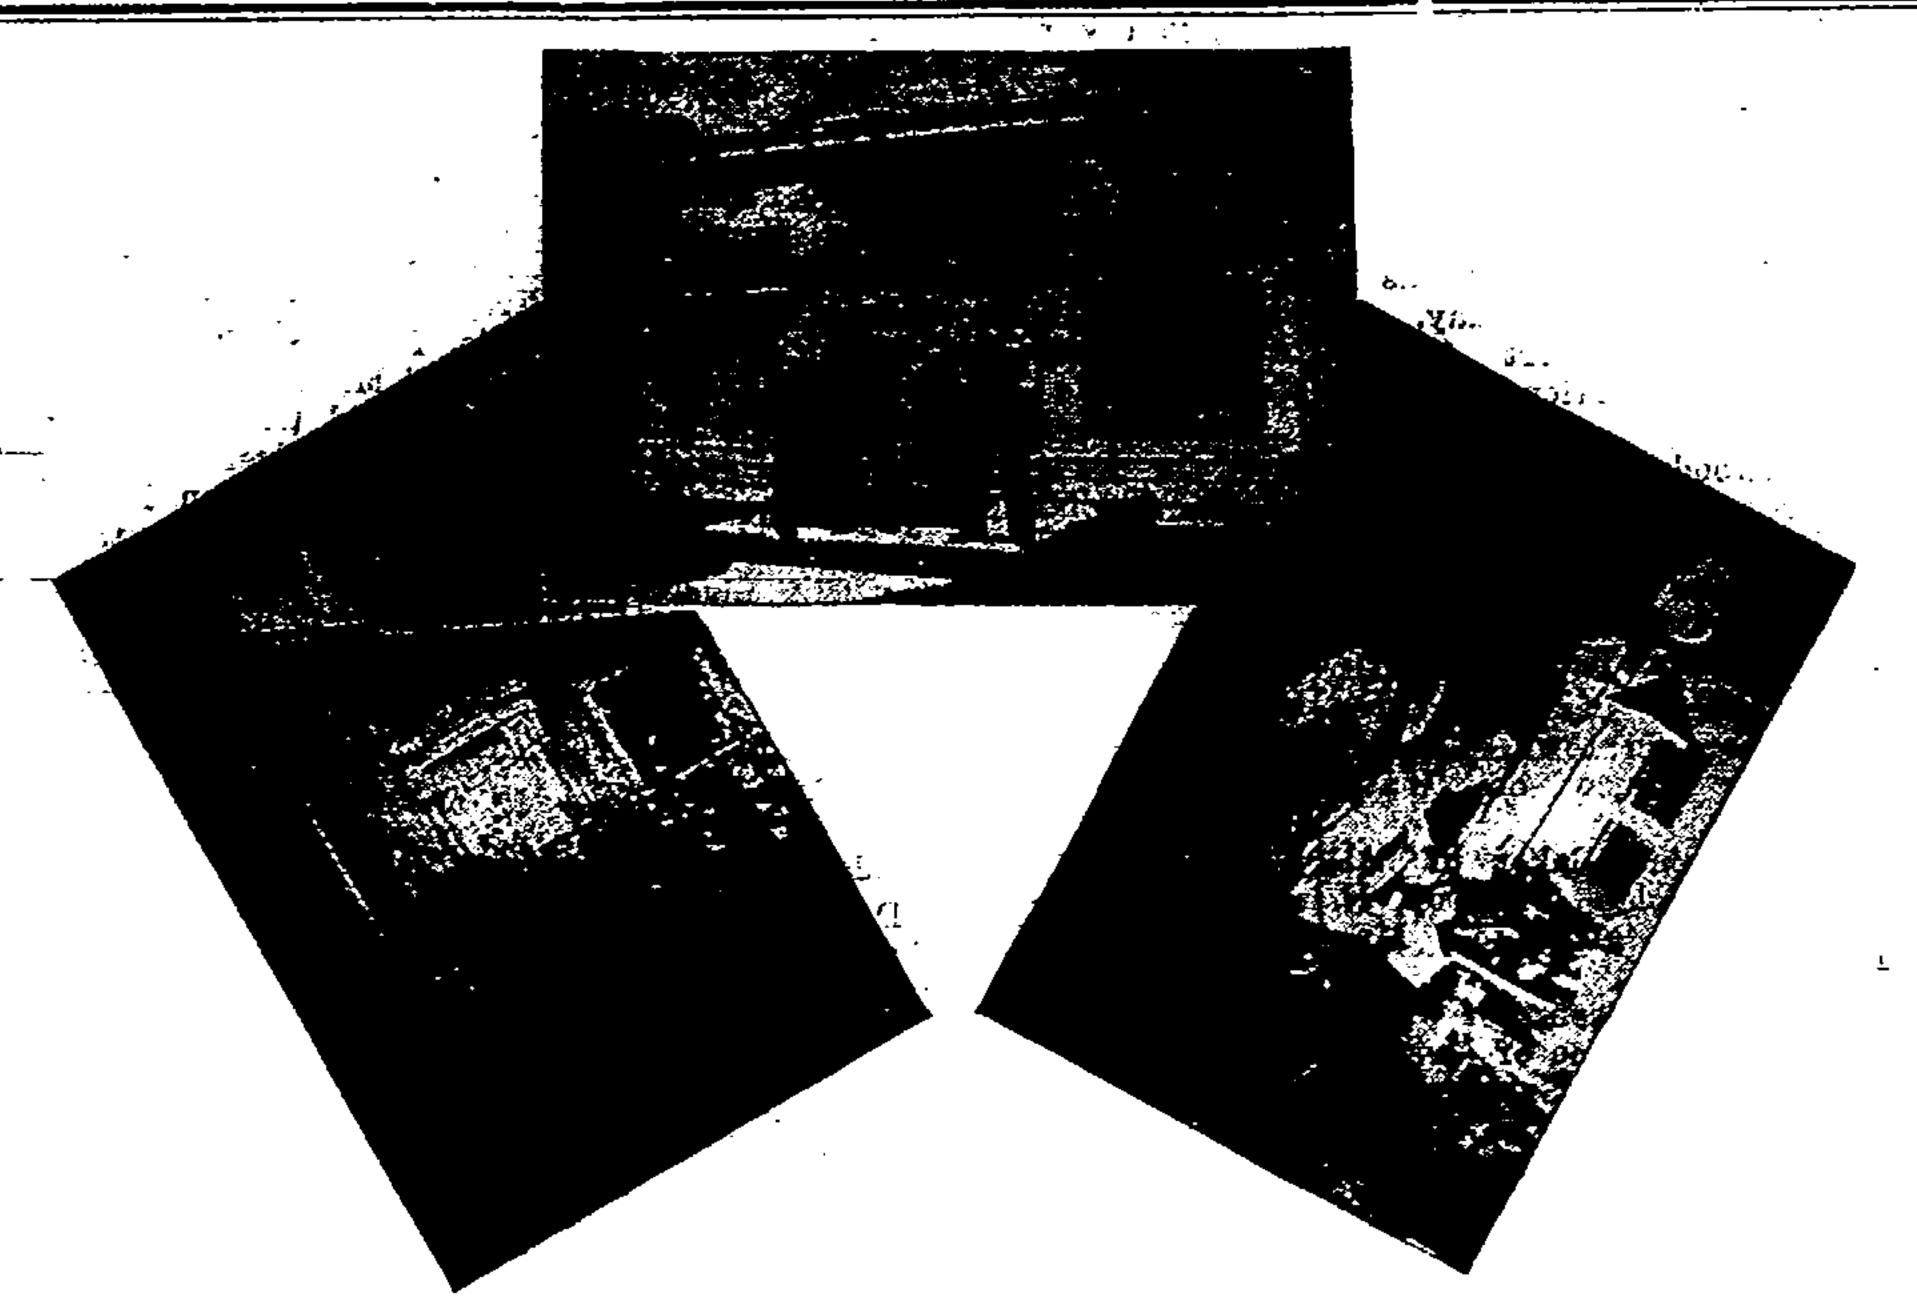

FOR SALE—Quantity per of eggs to New York City, with Potatoes, good for eating or plant-ten weeks old. Price $1.00 each them for the summer. Also brush Also Dodge light truck for sale or

FOR SALE—Cheap. Six room house with about three-fourths acre of land, on Rochambeau Avenue. Inquire of Guy S. Wood.

statues and furnishings, much per- But immediate relief has been change, Almond, N. Y., our phone Quality Printing at the News today at the nearest Rexall Drug to cultivate easily. Kill the weeds before rather than after planting.

At the left is the first abode of the Exchange, a henhouse converted into a shop. In the center is the present Exchange, combining a shop

Biography of a Typewriter is Our Salesman."

this particular business, their angle maintaining the family homestead the old Liberty Highway, and thru of interest being the unique instance Besides that, in the small town liv- southern New York route to the of an office machine agency, hand- ing expenses were as low as he could middle west via. Jamestown. And lling a general line of machines and possibly find anywhere. Next, he while Mason and his organization

We are all subject to colds. Bull except that when it became known shop but also as a display room a they need not cause us suffering, that he could tell a Caligraph from new machines.

and store. On the right is a corner in the repair department er away and involving too much ex- vice work now, while Edward Mason pense per trip for local firms to pay 23-year-old son of R. C. Mason, the tariff of traveling expenses in handles the steel equipment line miles away with no firm anxious to papers as sub-dealers, taking care of local calls and using their contake care of a considerable territory in their respective towns for the Business in a Tiny New in which were scattered but pros. Mason Typewriter Exchange. Road York Hamlet. -- "Service perous settlements. Getting togeth- signs of the arrow type posted at 'er a few tools, Mason began to fix well selected points read 'Typewrittypewriters and no one needs to tell ers, Almond, N. Y.' These signs, spiration an office machine agency son was soon selling them machines, ers and a regular monthly distribun the little nearby village of Al-Starting without capital. he carried tion of circular letters by mail, keep class machine service that "Office rides from one town to the next in ship of the old homestead property equipment lines of America has de- distinct advantages. His rental ex- next door. Both properties face voted an article to elaborating on penses were only those involved in Main street, which is Route 17 of locating in so small a discovered that Almond, which spans continue to sell and overhaul office village and making good. The ar- the boundary line between Allegany machines, the good neighbors conticle as produced in that publication and Steuben counties was the most tinue to plow, harrow and reap, disbringing the only five miles of concrete highway with sympathy Mason's first attempt , the city they had left, and finding a chicken coop unten- there was in the state of New York

Or taken in time, heads it off entirely. variably besough to fix the office hitch-hiking and bus riding to get "park" under the six huge willows You can avoid other suffering the same typewriter. This call came so fre his business started, Mason decided on the creek bank, the garden, the

