The Family
DOCTOR
JOHN JOSEPH GAINES M.D.
IN REVIEW

Ho-hum! The millennial dawn ap- proaches, thanks to our medical columnists. Every man his own dietitian, his own self-cultivist, his own psychiatrist. The family doctor is headed for the long vacation when he shall have talked himself out of a job for all time to come.

Among my contemporaries I read that tobacco does not shorten life; that the snifter of corn whiskey is not guilty, nine times out of ten.

That meat and salt don't have a blame thing to do with one's blood pressure—that both are actually es- sential to hitting on all six. That health exercises are often indulged up to a fatal point in many cases.

That, diet, rest and sleep are to be taken at the dictation of appetite.

Which knocks most of the medi- cal theories and speculative hypothe- ses into cocked hats—almost. Every man his own doctor. He can go on living, and, die in his turn—so— he passes.

All of which is so much. piffle, written for the price, yet pregnant with horse-sense deductions.

No two men or women are exact- ly alike. Hence, there can be very few set rules governing the conduct of many. Here are some, however, that I may say I use myself:

Be temperate IN ALL THINGS. No human ever uttered better ad- vice than that. Temperance in eat- ing, drinking, working, thinking, sleeping, laughing, sighing, living, dying—temperate in all things. Ob- serve that simple rule—and cut the doctor's bill to near zero.

Then, you will catch the "flu" or break your leg—or wife will receive a visit from the stork—just any old thing will happen; then call the doc- tor, as you always have done.
