CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes just as bland and just as harmless as the sugar coats.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, or few drops of Castoria have him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more reliable in diarrhea. When coated tongues or bad breath tell of constipation, give the gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Peckham's signature.

Mosher & Backus, Owners

Monday and Tuesday evenings of this week services were held in the M. E. church in preparation to the coming evangelistic services in that church. Evangelist Rev. T. E. Bell will begin his work next Sunday evening.

"Tony" Phillips of Wellsville is "fishing" for Rogers & Updyke while Park Rogers is drilling for him down at Scio.

We send out this week with each copy of the News, a fine portrait of our esteemed citizen, the Honorable James S. Phillips, recently re-elected for his second term, to the New York State Assembly.

A minister in condoning the shortage of the apple crop, delivered a eulogy on the healthfulness of that fruit, stating that "except in the case of our first parents, apples were harmless until made into cider." With all due regard for the Divine we would like to inform him that in Eve's case the apple was also harmless until it was "inside her."

Williams & Earley have purchased the Thompson farm between Scio and Allentown consisting of 240 acres. The land lays between the old oil belt and the new Scio field. They have a crew of men clearing up the land and fixing up the buildings.

MENDING WALL

By Robert Frost

Something there is that doesn't love a wall,
That sends the frozen-ground-swell under it,
And spills the upper boulders in the sun;
And makes gaps even two can pass abreast.
I let my neighbor know beyond the hill;
And on a day we meet and walk the line
And set the wall between us once again.
We keep the wall between us as we go.

To each the boulders that have fallen to each,
And some are loaves and some are nearly balls.
We have to use a spell to make them balance:
"Stay where you are until our backs are turned!"
We wear our fingers rough with handling them.
He is all pine and I am apple orchard.
My apple trees will never get across
And eat the cones under his pines,
I tell him.
He only says, "Good fences make good neighbors."

Before I built a wall I'd ask to know
What I was walling in or walling out,
And to whom I was like to give offense.
He will not go behind his father's saying,
And he likes having thought of it so well
He says again, "Good fences make good neighbors."

Professors Alter Lord's Prayer in New Bible

An insight to the kind of phraseology the new American Bible of Dr. J. M. Powis Smith and Dr. Edgar Goodspeed of the University of Chicago is to have, has been made public.

The Lord's Prayer for example, will read as follows:

Our Father in Heaven,
Your name be revered.
Your Kingdom Come!
Your will be done on earth as it is done in Heaven!

Give us today bread for the day.
And forgive us our debts as we have forgiven our debtors,
And do not subject us from the evil one."

The new Bible is to make its appearance Nov. 10.—Rhinebeck Gazette.

WE RING BELLS!

There is something about the ringing of bells that gladdens the heart. That is the reason they are put on cash registers. However, anyone can push the lever—but only a customer can make it mean anything. Good printing tells your story better to the possible customers for your product. Good printing, consistent with your good product, conveys the right impression about your company. Good printing rings the bell on your cash register—with meaning. The oftener good printing makes your register ring, the less each sale has cost you in advertising. The most effective advertising is always the cheapest. Let us sell you sales thru good printing. We are expert in the printing of catalogs, booklets, leaflets, folders, handbills, posters and letterheads. No job is too large—no job is too small—for us.
