Marquis are tendering a reception to all their congregation and all Whitesville friends to be held in the church parlors Thursday evening. This will be followed by a Watch Night Service, watching the old year out and the new year in. A two weeks series of revival ser- vices will begin in the M. E. church here next Sunday morning, con- ducted by the Rev. Tony Anderson of Kentucky. Everyone is invited to attend. Whitesville people were greatly shocked on Monday morning to learn that Ray Baldwin, the manager of the Whitesville branch of the Wells- ville Milling Co., had been found dead in his car near the Hallsport cheese factory, about 8 a. m. On Thursday, Mr. Baldwin left with his brother, Joseph, of Wellsville, to pass Christmas with their family in Buffalo. They returned Sunday evening and Ray left his brother in Wellsville about 12:30 a. m., to re- turn to Whitesville. No more was known of him until he was found by Hiram Parker while going to his farm. His brother Joseph was called also Dr. Probasco, who acting as coroner, decided the cause of death was cerebral hemorrhage. Mr. Bald- win was 43 years old and had lived here about 18 months and made a host of friends. Undertaker Fred Wildman took charge of the remains and prepared them for burial. His sister and family came from Buffalo and on Tuesday left for Buffalo with the remains where the funeral will be held at a time not stated here. The business people of Whites- ville sent a wonderful floral offering with the remains, as an indication of their respect and esteem for one who will be greatly missed.

ROCKEFELLER

Three solid blocks, nearly eight acres, in the heart of Manhattan Island, are to be known as "Rocke- feller Center." King George II. of England gave this land to found King's College. King's College is now Columbia University and still owns the land. John D. Rockefeller, Jr., leased it from the University for 87 years at a rent of $3,000,000 a year, and is financing the construction of a group of buildings which are expected to surpass in beauty and utility anything yet attempted anywhere. Only unlimited millions can handle an operation of this magnitude. Mr. Rockefeller is doing this as a public service rather than for the possible profit. Nobody today is afraid that the Rockefellers are trying to seize control of the United States. They are not that kind of people.

LAMONT

A Methodist minister's son got a job as a financial reporter on a New York paper. He attracted the attention of J. P. Morgan, the elder, who offered him a job and then took him into partnership. He now ranks next to J. P. Morgan, II., head of the famous banking house. Thomas W. Lamont spent a day recently giving a Senate Committee the lowdown on international debts. When he had finished, the Senators and public who read the report of Mr. Lamont's testimony had a new and clearer understanding of the functions of an international banker. Instead of the enormous profits which banks are supposed to make thru lending money to foreign gov- ernments, Mr. Lamont made it clear that the profits were never more than five per cent., often less, divid- ed among hundreds of thousands of investors in foreign loans, and that the House of Morgan sometimes got as much as a quarter of one per cent. fee for managing the distribu- tion of these loans, but often did the job for nothing. The foolish idea that great fortu- nes are made by robbing the pub- lic is gradually being dispelled.

GANGSTERS

Jack ("Legs") Diamond "got his" at the hands of rival gangsters, after a Troy jury had acquitted him of a kidnaping charge. Both in life and in death this dull-witted, vain, cheap crook got a great deal more publicity than he ever deserved. His career is worth mentioning only on one ground. It furnishes the perfect proof that crime does not pay. His widow and friends could not raise money enough between them to pay his funeral expenses and had to ask for charity. All that he ever got out of life was a little brief momentary excitement and a constant fear of exactly the thing that finally happened to him. He was a perfect example of the type of undeveloped mentality in which vanity and laziness are combined. He never did an honest day's work but was a boastful coward, as all gan- gsters are.

CHICAGO

Good citizens of Chicago have long been disgusted with their commu- nity's reputation as the crime center of America. Not very much has ever done about it until Col. Robert Isham Randolph, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce, appointed a committee, whose names were known only to himself, of ener- getic citizens whose job was to find evidence which would stand up in court and clean up the town. The "Secret Six" and the Chicago Crime Commission now say that they have got crime licked in Chicago. A year ago the Crime Commission published a list of 28 "public enemies." Today five of these criminal leaders are in prison, two are under sentence, one is awaiting deportation, two have been killed by their own kind, four are fugitives from justice, one is under arrest on a murder charge, and the others are under the constant surveillance of the reorganized Chicago police force. If the Chicago citizens and news- papers do not stop there, but continue their war on organized crime, the world will not be afraid to go to Chicago's World Fair next year.

PROSPERITY

What do we mean by prosperity? A return to the boom times of 1928? What is the standard of prosperity? I make no claim to being a prophet, but I think that we are all fooling ourselves if we expect prices of goods, wages, rents, salaries and other items of income and outgo to return to the high figures of four years ago. It is highly probable that when we recover our economic balance we will find that we are about where we were before the great war, with the exception that a higher percentage of our people will be earning a living income than was here in 1917. Then something will happen again to make us believe that we can all get rich quick and we will have another crazy speculative boom and another panic. That is what has always happened, and what has been will be.
