Mrs. Angie C. Tullar, Philanthropist Dead

Mrs. Angie C. Tullar, 90 years old, died at the home of her son. Rayard

Mrs. Angie C. Tullar, 90 years old, died at the home of her son, Bayard C. Tullar, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, following an illness of one week. Mrs. Tullar suffered a slight stroke a week ago from which she never recovered.

The daughter of a pioneer settler in this section, William Cobb, Mrs. Tullar was known for her many benevolent and munificent gifts and her sterling character. Her loss to the community is inestimable.

As donor of Tullar Maternity hospital, Mrs. Tullar's interest in humanity is best portrayed. Mrs. William F# Jones, who together with her husband gave Wellsville Jones Memorial hospital, was a close friend of Mrs. Tullar. In 1928 Tuller Maternity annex was dedicated. It provided much redded facilities for the accommodation of maternity cases.

Thruout her philanthropies is seen.

the accommodation of maternity cases.

Thruout her philanthropies is seen an interest in young people. Over 25 wars 2go she provided Tullar 2th the fiver of four scholorships at Alfred University. One of these is available each year for a graduate of Wellsville High School. She was also one of the donors of the present library building on Main street. Mrs. Tullar was the only surviving charter member of the Christian Temple church, which she was active in organizing in Wellsville.

Funeral services were held at the late residence in this village at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon, Rev. Richard E. Lentz, pastor of the Christian Temple, will officiate. Interment will be made in Woodlawn cemetery.

To Play Friendship
