Sexauer, president of the League, over the radio.

There was a large audience present last Sunday evening at the M. E. church to enjoy the fine entertainment put on by the George Washington Bicentennial Committee of that church. The auditorium was decorated with the national colors and a large picture of Washington, also a smaller one showing him at prayer in Valley Forge. The music by the choir consisted of national hymns. A literary program, conducted by Mrs. Marquis, in her usual successful manner, consisted of songs and recitations and a very amusing play "He, Could Not Tell a Lie." Our fellow townsman, D. C. Barney, gave the address of the evening on the life and achievements of George Washington. It was very good and the entertainment as a whole reflected credit upon the committee of five of whom Frank Rigby was chairman.

Over 30 Andover boys started west Monday night to work for the Erie railroad shoveling snow west of Salamanca on the snow train now trying to find the railroad tracks in that section. It has been years since a storm has blocked the "Old Reliable" tracks, and they are giving employment to every available person they can produce to get things in working order again.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Bloss feel happy over the advent of a new boy at their home.

Street Commissioner N. L. Beebe froze five fingers of his right hand Monday while at work cleaning off the cross walks and side walks after the unusual snow storm.

An empty beer keg blown on the tracks of the Erie derailed two cars of the way freight at the Andover station this morning. The wrecker from Hornellsville came up and adjusted things. (Ed. Note: No such things happen nowadays. Who has seen a beer keg at the Andover Station in years?)

Henry J. Phillips returned Friday morning from Philadelphia and expects to remain three or four weeks before resuming work for the Geo. Wilkinson Co.

Employees in the train service of the Erie railroad received an increase of ten per cent. in their pay February 1st. This restores the cut made in 1886. Engineers receive $4.00 per day; firemen $2.33; conductors $3.00; flagmen $2.10 and brakemen $2.00.

Attorney W. C. Cannon of Buffalo was a guest of his family from Saturday until Monday.

Jesse Snyder and F. S. Clarke were in Alfred Saturday to attend the funeral of W. C. Burdick.

Will Childs of Hornellsville was a guest at J. J. Warfield's Saturday night and Sunday.

The first shipment of glass from the new factory at Shinglehouse, Pa., was made Monday of last week. It consisted of 600 boxes.

Miss Grace Coon of Alfred was the guest of her friend, Miss Roxy Hann from Saturday until Tuesday.

Miss Helen Baker was home from Hornellsville Business College Sunday, returning to her school duties Tuesday.

Mrs. Mary J. Wilson of Canoga-harie arrived in town Monday night and is now stopping at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Richardson.

FAITH

By Frances Anne Kemble

Better trust all and be deceived, And weep that trust and that deceiving, Than doubt one heart that, if believed, Had blessed one's life with true believing.

Oh, in this mocking world, too fast The doubting fiend o'ertakes our youth; Better be cheated to the last Than lose the blessed hope of truth.
