 Despite the stormy weather and muddy, almost impassable roads, Wednesday and Thursday evenings of last week, Prest Opera House was well filled with expectant people Wednesday night and jammed full of enthusiastic listeners Thursday night to hear the rendition of the beautiful opera Princess Bonnie, by Andover talent. There was about 80 present from Wellsville and a number from Alfred, Hornellsville, Belmont and Angelica. The splendid work of the soloists, together with the large chorus of 40 voices combined with the excellent orchestra of eight pieces, made it a truly strong program. The cast was: Bonnie, the Princess Bonobellavita, Miss Eleanor Pearson; Kitty Clover, Mrs. Maud Prest; Auntie, Miss Mary Cannon; Donna Pomposo, Miss Ethel Boyd; Shrimps, John E. Cannon; Captain Tarpaulin, Arthur Burrows; Admiral Pomposo, A. C. Gillette; Count Falsetti, Clark Richardson; Salvador, Edgar Porter; Ray Sterling, Charles Pickett; Chaplain Surf, Charles Robinson.
