New Air Picture, "Sky Devils" at Local Theatre

The first outstanding air picture to come out of Hollywood since "Hell's Angels" will be shown at the Auditorium theatre Friday and Sat- urday, Aug. 5-6. Howard Hughes, who produced "Hell's Angels," is responsible for the production, a comedy spectacle called "Sky Devils." The new air thriller has all the spectacular quality of "Hell's An- gels," and is a laugh fest as well. Fifty-five fighting planes were used in the making of "Sky Devils," and all of them are shown in action simultaneously on the screen. As in "Hell's Angels," the flying scenes in "Sky Devils" are authen- tic in every detail, and no faked or processed shots went into the production. "Sky Devils" is based on an ex- citing and humorous tale of three flying Yankees overseas. The parts are played by Spencer Tracy, Wil- liam Boyd and George Cooper. The picture, which was directed by Edward Sutherland, has been ac- claimed by advance reviewers the comedy sensation of the year and has enjoyed record runs in New York and other metropolitan centers where it has already been played.

Turning Back the Pages Of Andover History TAKEN FROM THE FILES OF THE ANDOVER NEWS

Forty Years Ago AUGUST 10, 1892 Hamilton C. Norris, Editor

A number of Andover people are attending Cuba Temperance Camp this week. H. D. Smith has sold his draying business to I. L. Palmer and Mr. Palmer has entered into partnership with Heman Scott. Miss Mary Smith left this morning for Ohio, where she will visit relatives and return with her brother, F. L. Smith, who is expected home soon. Arthur C. Sidman is here and his full company is expected the last of this week or the first of next. Upon arrival the company will begin re- hearsing the play, "Square Has- kins." The company will play one night in Andover. Mrs. E. S. Bradley and Mrs. W. W. Miller left yesterday morning for a trip to Wisconsin. Last Wednesday the Andover baseball team went to Friendship and were beaten to the tune of 19 to 3. T. N. Boyd has a Durham bull a little over one and a half years old, which weighs 1,560 pounds. The animal was led thru our streets Monday and attracted considerable attention. The Andover ball club went to Belmont last Friday and won a game from the team at that place by a score of 12 to 13. It was a well-played game and the closeness of the score made it exciting. Oil operators from Bradford and Bolivar have been in Andover during the past week, looking over the territory in this vicinity. E. Harris of Scio was also here. It is possible that some of these gentlemen may decide to put down some wells in this vicinity soon. At the Republican county conven- tion at Cuba Wednesday, the follow- ing nominations were made: For Member of Assembly, Hon. M. M. Congdon of Clarksville; for District Attorney, Charles H. Brown of Bel- mont.

Thirty Years Ago AUGUST 6, 1902 Musher & Backus, Publishers

The Erie railroad carried about 700 people out of this village to Portage Falls on an excursion under the auspices of the United Churches of Andover last Thursday. The management must have had an ex- cellent "pull" with the weatherman as the day was an ideal one. About the only real picnic day seen here this summer. Some of the farmers want Rev. Harrington to appoint a picnic for each day the coming week so they will get weather to finish their haying. The picnic was a big success. Andover school district No. 1 held the largest school meeting in its his- tory last night. It was at this meet- ing that a new school building for Andover was virtually decided. The old Board of Education had seem- ingly woven a chord around the hearts of the people, as they showed they had full confidence in their judgment. Both Dr. Geo. E. Burdick and Miss Mary Church were both returned to the board by big majorities. James A. O'Leary and Miss Jose- phine Coakley were united in mar- riage this (Wednesday) morning at the Blessed Sacrament church by the Rev. E. J. Rengel. A burglar entered the store of Crandall & Williams last Thursday night at about 11:45. He was dis- covered by C. J. Vars and Sam Joyce and ran away into the dark- ness, but not before Clifford dis- charged a load of shot at him. Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Jones returned last week from a visit with his parents, at Canaseraga. Their chil- dren, who had been there some time, returned with them. C. A. Diffin of Austin, Pa., was visiting his brother, Wm. H. Diffin and family a few days last week. Frank Reiss and bride (nee Miss Helen Hardy) left for Philadelphia Saturday night, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Burrows pass- ed a few days guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Wiles of Fillmore this week. Mrs. Maude Prest and Mrs. Gene- vieve Bronner passed a few days at Chautauqua Lake this week. Here's a good one from the "In- dependence Items": We are very sorry to learn that Devillo Liver- more is losing his mind. Monday his daughter, Bertha, came to the factory with him, and stopped to play with some of the little girls there, and her father did not miss her until he met one of his neigh- bors and they asked where she was. He had gone nearly a mile toward home.
