It shows on Your Face. You don't have to tell how you live each day, You don't have to say if you work or you play, A tried, true barometer serves in the place— However you live, it will show on your face. The false, the deceit that you bear in your heart Will not stay inside where it first got the start; For sinew and blood are thin veils of lace— What you wear in your heart, you wear on your face. If you've gambled and won in the great game of life, If you feel you have conquered the sorrow and strife; If you've played the game fair and you stand on first base, You don't have to say so, it shows on your face. If your life is unselfish, if for others you live, For not what you get but how much you give, If you live close to God in his infinite grace— You don't have to tell it, it shows on your face.
