Appeal Widespread

The appeal of Lt. Gov. Lehman is so which group, section or element is atgood works and deeds of the "Colonel" are known to thousands.

The term "Silent Dynamite" has · been applied to him as indicative of the quiet but purposeful and effective manner in which he has conducted his personal and public business. This same driving energy he carries into Rally Day last Sunday. The pastor his charitable and welfare work in preached an appropriate sermon.

But, as a matter of fact, his record as an officer in the World War is a commendable one. Years above the draft age he volunteered his services gladly and for that reason he has a generous backing among the ex-service men and women of this state. Oneida County claims M. William Bray, candidate for the office now occupied by Lt. Gov. Lehman. One of the younger school of Democratic leaders. Mr. Bray is highly respected through. out the State for his abilities as an organizer, a lawyer and a public-spirited progressive citizen. During his term as Democratic State Chairman, immediately preceding the accession of Mr. Farley to that position, he demon. strated his capacity for leadership to a marked degree and aided greatly in the knitting together of the state or. ganization into a smoothly functioning machine.
