Consequently they are, by mil-lions, going to vote the Dem-ocratic ticket this fall and by so doing they realize that they will perform two great services. First, they will rid their own party of the money-changing Wall Street, of whom their presidents for the past 12 years have been but willing ser-vants. They will redeem their party.

Second, they will render everlasting service to their count-ry in assisting in whipping out of control of the government the pow-er of the Money Trust—the evil thing that is so largely responsible for the suffering of the people at this time

And in doing this, this great bo-dy of Republicans will render a ser-vice that would be pleasing to Lin-co and Roosevelt and be remembered through history by the lovers of mankind.
