

Epitome of the News from all Over Allegany County

Wellsville

Two Mentioned For Deputy Job

Raymond Dare and George Lampman, both of Wellsville, are being prominently mentioned here as candidates for the appointment as deputy sheriff succeeding the late Ross Roberts whose death occurred recently.

Alma Resident Fined $10

After pleading guilty to a charge of leaving the scene of an accident here Friday night, Floyd Lunn, 40, of Alma, was fined $10 by Justice of the Peace P. L. O'Connor in Wellsville.

Need Storage Place For Relief Clothing

Efforts are being made to secure a clothing headquarters in some vacant store here, according to Miss Marion Sixby, local welfare agent, who is busy at present in carrying out a campaign to prepare clothes for the needy.

Up to 90 shirts and numerous other garments have been sewn from materials recently received by the local relief organization, and it is the wish of those carrying on the work to display results of the clothing program.

If a store is secured, it will be open every afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock, during which time workers will be employed at reconditioning and sewing garments taken in by the relief organization.

License Suspended

Harold A. McKee of 23 1/2 Broad street is named as having his license suspended by the motor vehicle bureau of the department of taxation and finance, according to a list of eight revocations and 24 suspensions in the Buffalo district for the two weeks ending November 12. McKee's license was suspended because he was found operating an unregistered automobile.

Madeline Weinman Wed in Gowanda

Miss Madeline Weinman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Weinman, of South Main street, was united in marriage with Cecil Colvin of Gowanda, Saturday morning, by the Rev. Father Rochford of St. Joseph's church.

Nunda Easy Picking

Wellsville high gridders toyed with Nunda here Saturday in a warm-up game, preparatory to the coming Hornell battle Thursday, and took the visitors 34-6 in a contest which saw every man on the squad, including the "pony" backfield, composed of Duke, Rockwell, Major and Pickens, take part.

Cuba

(From the Cuba Patriot)

The cheese market at Cuba today was 11 1/2c; Plymouth, Wis., Nov. 11 10c; Gouverneur, N. Y., Nov. 12th, 10c.

Mr. and Mrs. M. J. O'Malley entertained the employees of the O'Malley hardware store at a 6:30 o'clock dinner party at the St. James Hotel, Wednesday evening.

Miss Athaline Pettit left for Fort Meyers, Fla., Oct. 31, in company with friends from Franklinville. She is a guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. B. Neely. Mrs. Neely will be remembered as Miss Ella Pettit, formerly of this village. By special invitation Mrs. Pettit called on the mayor's wife, formerly of Brooklyn.

Miss Bridget Callahan, night operator at the central telephone office in Cuba, will retire Dec. 1 on a pension granted by the New York Telephone Company, in recognition of an exceptional record of 21 years service. She is now enjoying a three-weeks' vacation with full pay, having finished her duties last Sunday night.

One of the most successful reciprocity meetings in the long history of the Current Topic Club was that on Tuesday, when ten members of the Sorosis Club of Bolivar were guests of the society, at the home of Mrs. Sidney A. Hixson, where a delicious luncheon was served. The tables were very pretty and the house was decorated with yellow chrysanthemums.

While an airplane circled and performed thrilling evolutions overhead bringing guests to honor his 94th birthday, the Rev. Charles Addison Woodworth received a host of friends who gathered at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Judge and Mrs. Walter N. Renwick, Sunday afternoon. The airplane came from Dansville to bring former parishioners of Mr. Woodworth, whom an engagement had prevented coming earlier by motor. They were Jay Picard and son, Lynn, the latter a World War aviator, and they joined Mrs. Picard and son, Glenn, who had come in a car.

Spanish moss is really a member of the pineapple family of flowering plants.

Alfred

(From the Alfred Sun)

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Smith entertained about 26 friends from Hornell at a picnic supper and card party, Saturday evening.

Miss Johanna Pieters of Buffalo spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pieters.

A. E. Champlin returned Saturday after spending two or three days in New York on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Place spent the week-end at Scottsville, guests of their daughter, Mrs. Jerome Davis, and family.

Mrs. Etta Rose and son, Claude, of Jackson Center, Ohio, visited her brother, L. E. Polan and family over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Lyon of Olean were guests for the week-end of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Fenner.

Elayne Gardiner met with a painful injury Tuesday, when she fell from a velocipede, cutting her lip and nose badly. She spent the night at the Bethesda hospital, but is now improving at her home.

Mrs. Luella Straight, Mrs. E. F. Hildebrand and Mrs. DeForest Truman were in Rochester Tuesday, attending a meeting of the Child Welfare and Rehabilitation Committees of the 7th and 8th Districts of the American Legion Auxiliary. Mrs. Jessie MacHugh, past State President, was one of the speakers.

Dr. and Mrs. Paul Saunders, Mrs. W. F. Burdick and Mrs. W. H. Bassett motored to Shinglehouse Tuesday night where they visited the Shinglehouse Chapter, Order Eastern Star.

Prof. and Mrs. A. E. Whitford entertained about 25 friends in honor of Dr. and Mrs. P. L. Coon on Saturday evening. Those present had either taught at or attended school in Milton. Besides the guests of honor, the following from out-of-town were present: Mrs. E. B. Rose of Jackson Center, Ohio; Prof. and Mrs. J. Fred Whitford of Bolivar and Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Ormsby of Almond.

Assistant Grand Lecturer Waldo A. Titsworth, Elwood Kenyon, W. H. Bassett and I. A. Courtois attended the Annual District Convention of the Allegany Masonic District, which was held in Canaseraga on Monday, Nov. 14. Dr. W. W. Coon, James Evans and E. F. Hildebrand attended the afternoon session.

ALFRED STATION

Mrs. Blanche Clair and family have moved from the hotel to rooms in the Phoebe Green house.

Mrs. Betsy Clark and Mrs. Ann Appier were recent dinner guests of Mrs. Mary Burdick.

Clark O'Dell of McHenry Valley, recently visited his sister, Mrs. Betsy Clark.

Mrs. Elma Burdick is working for Mrs. Nathan Tucker at Alfred. Mrs. Tucker is improving from her recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Palmer were guests for dinner Wednesday night at the home of Lyle Temple at Wellsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Burdick of Phoenix, Ariz., and Mr. and Mrs. Rosco Collins of Belfast, were guests Saturday at Edson Burdick's.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Wilcox of Hornell were supper guests Sunday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. K. Ormsby. Adelle Ormsby, who had been with her grandparents, returned home with them.

Mrs. Ernest Brague and Lyle Tucker were calling at Bert Tucker's on the Vandemark, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Benaway and son Lynford, and Mrs. Ella Doan returned Sunday from a couple of weeks spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Beebe at Sugoinville, Tenn. They report a very pleasant trip and found Mr. and Mrs. Beebe well.

Friendship

(From the Friendship Register)

Norma DeRemer has bought a 50-acre farm near Friendship and she and her wife will move there and take possession.

Fourteen persons tried Civil Service examinations at Cuba recently to qualify as auxiliary mail carriers in Friendship.

Several members of the D. O. U. V. spent last Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Marion Johnson. Light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dougherty spent Tuesday of this week at Hazelhurst, the guests of Mrs. Dougherty's sister, Mrs. D. O. Black.

Mrs. J. T. Costigan was called to Toronto last Friday morning by the death of her sister, Mrs. William H. Bennett.

Miss Florence Hatch of New York City was a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Rice on Tuesday of last week, and called on other friends in town.

Kenneth Cronk, who recently suffered injuries to his right eye when struck by shot from an unknown hunter's gun, is able to perform his usual duties at the high school again.

Mrs. U. B. Russell, Mrs. Lorenzo Utter and daughter, Mary Julia, are at Coudersport this week, attending the 100th anniversary of the organization of the Presbyterian church. Miss Ruth Baker of Andover and Miss Ruby Jordan were overnight guests on Tuesday of last week at the home of Miss Jordan's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jordan.

John McCarthy is confined to his home with an injured foot, which he received when the horse he was riding fell.

State Trooper Herbert W. Bloomgren of the Bolivar patrol, is nursing scratches and bruises received last Monday evening when he was struck by a car. Trooper Bloomgren and Trooper Edward Knatt were watching traffic on the Haskell road. Bloomgren stepped into the road to flag a car with one headlight when he was struck by a car following, driven by Mrs. Elizabeth Trenkle of Portville. He was taken to the Mountain Clinic where his injuries were dressed. Later he was able to return to duty. No blame was laid on Mrs. Trenkle.

Bolivar

(From the Bolivar Breeze)

Daily average production of crude oil in the U. S. in week ended Nov. 12 totaled 2,127,103 barrels, an increase of 29,739 barrels over the preceding week.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Herrick after a several weeks stay at their home in Olean are returning to Los Angeles, Calif., where they will spend the winter.

The Bolivar Dry Cleaners, Howard Shaner proprietor, have moved their shop from the Dillie building, west side of Main street, to the Munich block at 342 Main street.

On Saturday a program of landscaping was completed at Hilltop Camp on the Messer Oil Company property, town of Wirt, where about 1,000 pine and hemlock trees and two carloads of shrubbery were set out. Fifteen men were employed at the job, it requiring about ten weeks to complete it, under the supervision of Henry Stocken or Coudersport, Pa. At present three men are at work setting out bulbs at Hilltop.

For week ending Nov. 12 the production of the Bradford field was a daily average of 25,856 barrels and in the Allegany field 7,080 barrels. This compares with 25,806 barrels and 6,616 barrels produced in those fields in the previous week.

A new iron railing has been placed along both sides of the cement sidewalk and steps in front of St. Mary's church on Wellsville street.

Joseph Shaner left Monday for Penn State College, State College, Pa., after spending the week-end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul F. Shaner.

Elberta Jane, seven year old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Ingalls of Kennerdell, Pa., former residents of Bolivar, won first prize in penmanship at the Vanengo Farm Show held at Franklin, Pa., Oct. 19.

The village streets have been put in good condition for the coming winter by Street Commissioner Samuel J. Ryan. It required several days to haul away the dead leaves and other accumulation on the streets.

Principal J. F. Whitford and family were guests at a get-together of old Milton College students and professors held in Alfred Saturday night. More than 30 were present, including a dozen former Glee Club members who sang the old college songs and serenades.

Arthur Beckwith of Obi dropped dead at his home Monday morning. He had been in his usual health and had gone to the barn with a neighbor who was conversing with him when he fell to the floor and died before he could be gotten to the house.

Window cleaning is the most hazardous job in New York, it was revealed in a survey.

There are 4,000 drug stores in New York and but seven of them sell nothing but drugs.

25¢ for 6 Months
 National Sportsman has for 22 years been a leader in the outdoor field. Its pages today are more interesting and valuable than ever. You will find each copy crammed full of hunting, fishing, camping and trapping stories and pictures, valuable information about game, rifles, fishing tackle, game law changes, best places to fish and hunt, etc. To introduce National Sportsman to you we will send it to you for six months for only 25¢. Clip the advertisement and mail to: National Sportsman, Transit Bldg., Boston, Mass.

Name _____
 Street _____
 City _____ State _____

25¢ for 6 Months
 introductory offer

GREENWOOD

(Mrs. Reva Thompson, Reporter)

Attend House of Delegates

Mrs. L. F. Thompson and Dwight Young, members of the Greenwood school faculty, left Sunday for Schenectady. They will attend the state conference of the House of Delegates on Monday and Tuesday. In their absence, Miss Grace Young of this place and Mr. James Morris of Hornell are acting as substitutes.

Attend Meeting

Members of the Board of Education of Greenwood attended the meeting of the County Boards of Education at Bath, Thursday evening. The speakers expressed themselves opposed to the proposed reduction in state aid to schools.

Casford Players

On Friday evening, the play, "Old Crusty," will be presented by the Casford players at the Masonic Hall. This will be a three-act comedy headed by Fern L. Casford. It will conclude the Lyceum Course of this season.

Campfire Group Entertained

Thursday after school 15 members of the Iwa Campfire hiked to the home of Eloise Chaffee. After the regular business meeting they were entertained at dinner by Mrs. Chaffee. The girls are packing a Thanksgiving basket for a needy family.

Dairymen's League Plant to be Closed

At a meeting of the Dairymen's League Association of Greenwood at the Masonic Hall, Wednesday night, a representative of the company announced that the local plant would close December 1st. An agent will be sent to lay out routes for trucks to collect the milk and deliver it to the Whitesville plant.

The Epworth League held a Thanksgiving party at the I. O. O. F. Hall Thursday night. The Troupsburg League was invited.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Plattenburg of the Lyceum course were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Fish.

The Misses Helen and Goldie Mattoon of Howard and Miss Harriett Stewart of Jasper called on Mrs. J. H. Goodno, Saturday.

Miss Newland of Penn Yan and Miss Edna Jaynes of Hornell attended the Methodist church Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Trowbridge and daughter, Mirium, of Elmira, were visiting in town Saturday. Mrs. Arice Young, who has spent the summer at her home here returned with them to spend the winter with her daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Sisson of Wellsville called on Mary Webster Sunday.

J. K. Miller, Miss Margaret Miller, Mrs. Ray Scribner and Grace Young were in Jasper Saturday. The ladies attended a Home Bureau meeting at the Methodist church on the use of canned fruits. Miss Barber of the home office was in charge, assisted by Mrs. Lois Mathewson of Bath.

Miss Mary Thompson of Canistota called on Mrs. Mary Young, Friday. Miss Loretta Casey, Dwight Young and Walter Redmond attended the farewell dinner for Father Silke at St. Mary's Hall in Rexville Thursday evening. The orchestra, directed by Orville Mathews, furnished ### music-during-the-evening.

Among those who attended the Holstein sale in Hornell last Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Ordo Williamson, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Warriner, Mrs. Aubal and Frank Warriner. Mr. Williamson received a high price for two entries.

Miss Blanche Smith of Canistota called on Mrs. Mary Webster Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stewart and son, Jack, of Howard, were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Goodno.

Ralph Wilcox went to Buffalo, Sunday, after his wife, who has been taking treatments at the General hospital.

Mrs. Minnie Knight is visiting her cousin, Mrs. Rogers in Wellsville.

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK
 by CARL H. GETZ

So many business men in New York think they haven't time to go out for lunch at noontime, that a business has grown up to deliver lunches by messenger boy.

Tobacco shops in the city report that more and more women are taking to pipe smoking.

Some renters of large apartments here who have experienced cuts in income, have hit upon the idea of giving "depression parties" and charging guests $1. "Punch" and sandwiches are served.

A New York wig maker says any town of 10,000 is good for eight toupees.

To save money the Bronx Zoo here proposed to serve whale meat to the animals instead of beef. The animals said nothing doing. They refused to eat the stuff.

Paddy, famous trained flea who performed before thousands on West Forty-second street, is dead and the street mourns.

Certain New York hotels are allowing unemployed "white collared" men to occupy rooms for six months while they look for work. They will be allowed three years in which to pay what they owe the hotels.

Take your photograph to a certain shop in New York and they'll enlarge it, mount it on wood and make a jigsaw puzzle out of it.

There is a man in New York who makes a living selling sawdust to be used as bar-room dust in homes with speakeasy rooms in the cellar.

New York jewelry stores are offering a jumping hour watch. There is no crystal to smash. Only the number of the hour and minute show—no hands, no dial. When one hour rounds into the next the number jumps, like a taxi meter.

Decorated finger nails is the latest craze among women in New York. Tiny clubs, diamonds, hearts, spades, such as appear on playing cards are being worn in black and red on nails. The idea comes from overseas.

Bearded seals of the arctic can turn a complete somersault when diving.

There are about 31,000,000 students attending schools in the United States.

FINE PRINTING... NO JOB TOO SMALL

The Andover News

Big Value Club
 THIS PAPER AND
The Pathfinder
 Both a Whole Year—Every Week for 52 Weeks—104 Big Issues—at a Bargain Price Never Before Equaled!

Grab this chance to secure your favorite home paper—with all the local news—together with that wonderful national weekly, right from Washington, D. C., The Pathfinder. The Pathfinder is the most widely quoted paper in the world—and you will see why when you have it in your home, as more than a million others do.

Call at our office, see samples of The Pathfinder and order this club, or remit the amount by mail. News, information and entertainment for an entire year. WHAT A BARGAIN!

$2.30

Fine Quality PRINTING
 at
 Exceptionally Moderate Prices

No job too large or too small to receive our best attention.

You will always find our Printing of the very best quality and our prices exceptionally moderate.

Get our estimates before having your printing done elsewhere. You will Save Money!

The News Printing House

LETTERHEADS
 ENVELOPES
 BILL HEADS
 STATEMENTS
 BOOKLETS
 CIRCULARS
 BLOTTERS
 BROADSIDES
 CATALOGS
 POSTERS
 POST CARDS

CHAS. G. STEBBINS INSURANCE
 Andover, N. Y.
 Phone 117X