Mrs. Emma Church has the sincere thanks of the News force for a beautiful Rex Begonia, which she kindly presented to the office. It is the most beautiful of the species we have ever known. It can be seen in the News office front window.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church met with Mrs. Ralph Burgett for their regular monthly meeting on Tuesday afternoon. The ladies were busy with sewing and after a business meeting a 5:30 supper was served to a large delegation.

After several days discussion in county court, the jury voted to set aside the will of the late Elizabeth Coyle of Scio. The action was the outcome of the attempt of several nieces and nephews of the deceased who claim she was not capable of disposing of her property which was estimated at $9,000.

The remains of Charles Bailey of Detroit, Mich., who died Nov. 30th in Silver City, N. M., were brought to Wellsville for funeral and burial Sunday, Dec. 4th. Deceased was 33 years of age, and a nephew of Dennis McCarthy of Wellsville, who with a sister in Detroit survive. Mr. Bailey was a member of the American Legion.

Undertaker F. C. Mulholland was called to the farm of John Dean, Monday, to care for the body of the six-week-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cassidy, who were visiting at that place. The remains were taken to Batavia, the home of the parents, on Tuesday. The little fellow evidently passed away in the night, following a slight cold.

All members of the O. E. S. and their families are urged to be present Monday evening. A tureen supper will be served at 6:30 and each one is requested to bring a tureen and sandwiches for their family also a ten-cent present to put on the Christmas tree after chapter. Officers will be elected at this time and all members are requested to be on hand.

Two hundred volunteers from Allentown and vicinity aided the fire departments from Bolivar and Wellsville in fighting one of the worst forest and grass fires of the season last Sunday. Three oil leases dotted with wells and power houses, one well on the Star Oil Co. lease was burned, others were damaged and a quantity of timber lost. Fortunately no one was injured in combating the flames, altho several had their hair singed.

Houghton Home Coming To Be Held Dec. 16-18

Plans are now complete for the Second Annual Home-Coming at Houghton College on December 16-18, next, on which occasion the college will be host to all old students and alumni of the institution who can arrange to attend. The occasion will afford to the "old-timers" an opportunity not only to renew old acquaintances but also to observe the evidences of recent growth and progress about the campus. The first home-coming was held last December and was enthusiastically approved by some 200 old students and alumni who attended. A larger and even more enthusiastic group than that of last year is expected to be in attendance. The main features of the program appear below and will be supplemented in a special bulletin to be mailed to each old student:

Friday Evening, Dec. 16
Christmas Oratorio, "The Messiah," Handel, 8:15 p. m.

Saturday, Dec. 17
Visitation of Classes, 8 to 12 a. m.
Alumni Chapel, 9:45 a. m.
Basketball, Alumni: Purple vs. Gold, 2 to 4:30 p. m.
Banquet, 5 p. m.
Orchestra Concert, 8:15 p. m.

Sunday, Dec. 18
The day's services will be at the usual hours but will be specially arranged for the occasion. Rev. J. S. Willett will preach morning and evening.
