

★ Christmas Specials ★
Dec. 19-24

- JELLO—All Flavors— 5c
Golden Crowns—1/2 Bbl. Sack
BREAD FLOUR 35c
RAISINS—Seeded or Seedless—
—Desert Brand— 5c
Armour's Pure Star
LARD 2 Lb. Pkgs. 13c
Baby Budded
WALNUTS—California— 2 Lbs. 25c
CHOCOLATES—Oxheart Asst.—
5 Lb. Christmas Box 89c
CHOCOLATES—Brach's Asst.—
3 Lb. Christmas Box 49c
BRAZIL NUTS—Lg. Washed 2 Lbs. 25c
PUMPKIN—Van Camps— 2 Cans 15c
OLIVES—Stuffed Manzanilla 14 Ozs. 25c
DATES } Hallowell—Cellophane Pkgs.— Lb. Pkg. 15c
2 Lb. Pkgs. 25c

- FRI AND SAT. PRODUCE FRI AND SAT.
Celery Hearts, fresh, crisp, 8 lg. bunches . . . 15c
Grapes, Calif, Empress 25c
Lg. clusters, 3 lbs.
Green Onions, South- 10c
ern, 3 lg. bunches
Cantiflower, fancy snow white
California 19c
Lg. heads
Iceberg Lettuce, hard and crisp, 3 lg. heads 25c
Sweet Potatoes, Jersey Red Soil, 5 lbs. . . 25c
Coreless Carrots 4 Lbs. 10c
Eatmore Cranberries, 2 Lbs. 27c
California Navel Oranges and Lee County Florida Oranges—never better!

- Sat. Only MEAT Sat. Only—
We will have Fresh Home-Dressed Chickens and Land O' Lakes Turkeys for Xmas—23c lb.
FRESH HAMS, Whole or Half Lb. 12 1/2c
CHOICE CHUCK ROAST OF BEEF Lb. 14c
Boston Butts 11c
Lb. Side Pork 11c
Link Sausage 12c
Lb. Plate Beef, choice 8c

THE MARKET BASKET STORES
Every article we sell must be entirely satisfactory or your money refunded

MAIL CLOSING TIME

East
Train No. 2	10:00 a. m.
Train No. 26	1:45 p. m.
Train No. 8	5:45 p. m.
West
Train No. 9	10:25 a. m.
Train No. 1	5:00 p. m.

JOHN COMMON, P.M.

Local Happenings

A Red Cross chapter unit has been organized at Fillmore.
Miss Reta Nottingham is among those out of school with gripe.
The Bloss grocery is having a brisk sale at reduced prices this week.
Andover merchants have a fine line of gifts for your buying. Call on them.
Miss Irene Dougherty is assisting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Mullen.
The Andover News will make a welcome Christmas gift to that absent friend.
Mrs. Bertha Pingrey is among those ill with gripe cold in the village this week.
Andover streets are brightened by many electric lights, trees and Christmas decorations.
Advertising protects the purchaser. Look over the ads in the News before doing your shopping.
An epidemic of influenza is reported prevalent thruout the southern and middle western states.
Miss Mary Monica Lynch has been ill with quinsy at St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell, the past week.
John Sloan of Vosburg, recently secured 125 pounds of fine honey from two bee trees which he located.
The farm home of Arthur Richardson at Hallsport, was damaged to the amount of $100 by fire Friday afternoon.
Miss Norma Steadman, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Steadman, is recovering from bronchial pneumonia.
Mrs. Ellen Ward, 73 of Fillmore, slipped and fell while shopping in a store at Hornell Saturday, dislocating her shoulder.
Remember that absent friend with a subscription to the Andover News for Christmas. A gift for the whole family for a year.
Eben Haynes of Rushford cut his foot seriously with an axe while working in the woods last week. The arteries were severed.
The W. B. A. met with Mrs. Carrie Slade Monday afternoon. Officers were elected and installed and refreshments were served.
Nelson McMichael of Almond was badly injured when a load of wood upon which he was riding overturned, throwing him to the ground.
Frank W. Wall, former cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Wellsville, is held under $10,000 bail, charged with embezzling bank funds.
Twin daughters were born last week to Mr. and Mrs. Yale Jacobs of Angelica. The little ladies have been named Joan Esther and Jean Mary.
Anyone wishing to join the Red Cross may do so by leaving their annual dues of one dollar at the Andover State Bank or Baker Bros. hardware store.
Mrs. Ona Goodrich, wife of Assemblyman Goodrich of Richburg, fell on the sidewalk in that village last week, fracturing her right arm above the wrist.
Don't worry over that belated Christmas gift to be purchased. Make it a magazine subscription. Call at the News and see what a little money will buy.
Neighbors and friends gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Potter, who have recently moved on the Greenwood road, Friday evening to welcome them to our township.
Frank O'Brien, 15-year-old lad of Knights Creek, fell headlong thru a barn floor, striking on his head on the concrete basement floor, a distance of eleven feet. His injuries, while serious, are not thought to be fatal.
Both the American Legion and Firemen's Association of the State of New York have published warnings to the public against persons soliciting funds upon the representation of its being in the interest of these organizations.
Miss Inez Youmans entertained her Busy Bee Class and their mothers and five invited guests at her home Friday evening. A special Christmas program was carried out and refreshments served making a very pleasant occasion.
A cottage owned by Jasper W. Collier of Wellsville and located above the Sinclair refinery on the Genesee river was burglarized of articles including bedding, china, silver and a $x12 rug, to the value of over $300 this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Rose of Cuba observed their 50th wedding anniversary Dec. 19th. The day of their marriage there was three feet of snow covering the ground at Union Hill, the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Marie Cole.
Nattie Eastman of Portville has been awarded the American Farmers' Degree, by the National Association of Young Farmers' Clubs, the highest honor awarded by this association, only two from New York State being given each year.

Join Our Christmas Club

A YEAR TO SAVE
A DAY TO GIVE

Buying Gifts the hard way—the debtor's way—the inconvenient way—is not conducive to happiness at Christmas time. Prepare for your known expenditures in advance. Save regularly—each week using one of our Christmas Club plans—start now while the clubs are forming—free yourself from financial worries next Christmas.

Burrows National Bank
Andover, New York

BAKERS' STORE NEWS

Published by Baker Bros. Hardware, Andover, N. Y.

A Merry Christmas
To Every One Of You

Wreaths and Lights

For decorative Christmas lighting our stocks are still so complete that late buyers will be quite able to work out their plans with little variation.

String lights—Wreaths—Extra Lamps.

One Dollar Cookers

If you were waiting, the dollar Waterless Cookers, this will advise you that we have a supply which we believe adequate for the holiday demand.

Christmas Candy

Your money will go farther if you buy it at Baker Bros. and the variety of our stock will give you a broad selection.

Our latest addition is a chocolate-covered Pep-Mint Pattie, selling at 21 cents a pound. You will like it. Peanut Brittle, extra fine, 10c a pound; Molasses Kisses 9c, 3 pounds for 25c; Honey Chocolate, 10c lb.; Cream Fudge, plain or with nuts, 15 cents a pound; Mammoth Gum Drops two pounds for a quarter; Shelled Peanuts, 10c; Assorted Chocolate Bars, 1c each.

Your Christmas Dinner

To be right should include Beech-nut Coffee, now selling at 32c a pound. Butter Cream Crackers at 12 cents and Beechnut Wafers at 10 cents a package.

Weather Reports

Will be the main topic of discussion for the next three months; the man without a good thermometer is just out of the picture; he has nothing constructive to add to the conversation.

We have some very attractive temperature recorders; as a gift they are top notch, nothing more pleasing and the cost is so little. Look them over.

Open Evenings

Every one until Christmas. Closed all day Monday, Dec. 26th.

Oven Glass

The kind that has ventilating ribs on the bottom, a patented feature found only on Glasbake Cooking Ware.

This glass is whiter, clearer, more highly finished and less liable to accidental breakage, while every piece that cracks from oven use will be replaced free of charge.

As a utility gift at moderate cost, few items possess more charm. A few of the new low prices:

- Custard Cups, 5c each.
- Percolator Tops, 5c each.
- Nine-inch Pie Plates, 40c each.
- Jelly Cake Plates, 50c each.
- Two quart round Casseroles, $1.15
- Two quart Oval Casseroles, $1.49
- Large Oval Beef Steak Roasters, $1.49

The new Glasbake is beaded and engraved; very attractive, while the price is no higher than plain finish of other makes.

Ironing

Most homes are confronted with this task for at least one major and several minor operations each week to perform this job easily and efficiently the best tool is not too good. Hot Point Electric Irons have always been and still are quality products. They deliver top notch service on all occasions and now present the unusual paradox of highest value at lowest prices.

Hot Point Super Automatic, now offered at $4.19 and Hot Point Hi-Speed Automatic at $4.98, are prices that should command attention.

For your own use or as a Christmas Gift, they stand out and their purchase reveals a quality of sound judgment that is above criticism.

BAKER BROS., Andover N. Y.

New steel ceilings are being placed in the Andover library. C. E. Hann and son are doing the work.

A quarter of beef and a large quantity of chunk meat were stolen December 10th, from the building of Curtis Brown, four miles from Belmont. Mr. Brown is a butcher.

A number of hides and valuable tools were also taken by the thieves. Eight head of cattle, four work horses, two tons of hay, a quantity of grain, wagons, sleighs and farm implements were destroyed in the burning of a large barn owned by O. C. Seamons at Kossuth, Dec. 15.

The loss is estimated at over $4,000. Hampton, the fine home of Senator and Mrs. James W. Wadsworth near Mt. Morris, was destroyed by fire December 10th, incurring a loss estimated at $70,000. Diamonds valued at $10,000 kept in a secret wall safe over the fire place in one of the rooms were unharmed.

The Juvenile Grangers are entertaining the subordinate Grange at a Christmas party next Wednesday, December 28th, with the help of some of the subordinate Grange they will put on a pageant, "Love Lights the Tree." Each one is to bring a ten-cent present for the tree.

The Sprague property in Addison, N. Y., has been sold to B. F. Short of Rexville, a very desirable property, comprising over one acre of land, feed mill, coal chutes, house and gas tanks on switch and Route 17. Terms were cash. Brokers, Calhoun Agency, Andover and G. A. Payne, Addison.

Whose hand forged the $40,000.00 Wendel Will? It was written in a family Bible, which also contained a bogus marriage certificate, but—the Bible was printed two generations after the supposed marriage took place. One of the many interesting features—illustrated—in the American Weekly, with Sunday's New York American.

The Three Links Club met with Mrs. Harold Hardy of Bechambean avenue, Friday afternoon, for their Christmas party. The parlor and dining room were beautifully decorated in keeping with the Yuletide season. Mrs. Hardy was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Dan Witter, Mrs. E. E. Shatt and Mrs. E. H. Highy.

— TWO MORE BIG DAYS —

More Quality Merchandise has been put on the counters. With only two more days left, let's make good use of the SALE and fill up those supply cupboards with good things to eat.

GROCERIES — MEATS — GREEN VEGETABLES
Drop in to Bloss's Friday and Saturday and we will save you some money.

A Merry Christmas To All

Phone 235 The Bloss Grocery We Deliver
OUR MOTTO—A Satisfied Customer

Gilts Worth While

- Exceptional showing of Cameras at—$1.00 to $5.00
- Gentlemen's Toilet Sets from — — — 35c to $1.50
- Ladies' Toilet Sets from — — — $2.50 to $6.00
- Fountain Pens from — — — 25c to $6.00
- Pen and Pencil Sets from — — — 75c to $4.00
- Compacts from — — — 50c to $5.00
- Complete line of High Grade Perfume, Powder, etc.

GREETING CARDS

Our line of the Season's Greeting Cards is the most complete in years. Hundreds of patterns to choose from 1 Cent Up

Christmas Decorations Christmas Seal

J. D. CHEESMAN CO.
A MERRY CHRISTMAS TO ALL