Whitesville

(Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh, Reporter)

Dec. 20.—Merry Christmas to all. M. M. Cramer is ill of heart trouble.

School closed for the Christmas holidays last Friday.

Miss Josephine Cox of New York City came Friday to spend the holidays with her sister and family, Rev. and Mrs. H. J. Marquis.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Densmore of Independence visited at the home of his son, Frank Densmore, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Wilson were Wellsville visitors, Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee G. Millsbaugh and daughters, Jean and Bethel of Andover, were guests of his mother, Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh, Sunday evening and attended services at the M. E. church.

Rev. H. J. Marquis, W. E. Wager and G. H. McKee were in Belmont on business, Monday morning.

Mrs. H. J. Marquis, Miss Josephine Cox and Mrs. Ella Millsbaugh were shopping in Wellsville, Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. George Costello, who have been visiting relatives here for some time, have returned to their home in Washington, D. C.

Linford Scger has been ill the past two weeks with a swelling on his head above his ear, but is improving.

About 30 members of the Current Event Club attended the Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. John Wood last Friday afternoon.

The Philaethea Class of the M. E. church received nearly $90 from their sale and supper recently.

The teachers of our high school have gone to their various homes for the holiday vacation and the Whitesville students attending college in different places in the state are gathering home this week for the same reason.

Virginia, the 16-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Densmore died at her home on East Main street Monday morning about 11 o'clock. For five years she has been a helpless invalid as the result of infantile paralysis. About two weeks ago she had an attack of pneumonia, followed by heart failure from which she died.

Thru her long illness she has been a patient, happy hearted child, always cheerful and a smile for everyone and was beloved by all her neighbors and many friends. Last Christmas Kenneth Shay, with the help of friends, presented her with a fine radio, which made her very happy the past year.

Funeral services will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the Rev. H. J. Marquis officiating, with burial in Fulmer Valley.

Her parents, brother, Carl and sister, Adeline and other relatives have the sympathy of many friends.

Cheese is a cheap, wholesome food.

Dates, prunes and figs stuffed with marshmallow and rolled in granulated sugar make delicious and wholesome sweets for children.

Prunes and figs should be soaked before they are stuffed.

Apples and oranges, well polished, make colorful Christmas tree ornaments which are also useful and healthful. Green or red string may be run thru the end of the fruit with a large darning needle and tied in a loop to hang on the tree.

Children enjoy Christmas most when they have a hand in its preparation.

When rye was first found in Europe, it was regarded as a weed.

IN LITTLE OLD NEW YORK

by CARL H. GETZ

One in every 36 families in Greater New York paid an income tax to the Federal Government last year.

There are enough registered motor cars in New York to provide one for every family and still have some left over.

New York women are using colored inks to harmonize with their stationery.

New York is full of men and women who make their living by writing. Their average income is $2,400 a year, it has been estimated.

New York City spends more money for books than any other city in the world.

The other day, a flock of little aaks, birds that breed in Iceland and Greenland fell exhausted in the streets in the metropolitan area. They had been blown in from the sea by the severe wind storm.

A toy shop in New York is offering a pocket roulette game to be used on trains or on motor trips.

New York consumes nearly a thousand million gallons of water daily.

Gramercy Park is the only private park in the city. It is surrounded by a high iron fence, and only those who own property on the streets adjoining have keys to the big gates which lead into the green area.

It is said that there isn't a single speakeasy in the city which is unknown to the police.

You can't pitch a tent in New York without a permit from the board of health.

Nearly 800 men and women here make a living by playing some kind of a musical instrument in the streets.

You can't play a hand organ on the streets of New York after 6 p. m.

More men and women are holding down jobs here as clerks than anything else.
