Wm. McDonough Dead

The News regrets to announce the death of Comrade William McDonough, Thursday morning, from the effects of a paralytic shock suffered last Saturday.

"Uncle Billy," as he was affectionately known in our community, was universally respected and beloved.

A suitable obituary will appear in the News next week.

Mrs. Folwell Ill

Mrs. Gerald Folwell of Elm street was taken to Jones Memorial hospital, Wellsville, Saturday and operated for appendicitis. Her condition has been critical.

Mr. and Mrs. Folwell have the sympathy of a large circle of Andover friends who hope for her a complete recovery.

American Legion Play Santa Claus

Andover kiddies and their parents are invited to Legion Park this Friday evening, where beneath the brilliantly lighted Christmas tree they will welcome Santa Claus in person. He will have a gift for every child in line under 12 years of age.

The band and Glee Clubs are scheduled to furnish music for the entertainment of young and old.

The American Legion, as hosts of the occasion are determined that no child in Andover shall go without a gift this Christmas, so be at the park ready to fall in line at 7:30.

Glee Clubs Sing Carols

One of the finest events of the holidays was the singing on Tuesday evening of Christmas carols by a company of 63 of Andover's fine vocalists, who marched thru the streets of the village singing and stopping at each house where a candle was burning in the window.

They also visited Legion Park where under the Legion Christmas tree with its many colored electric lights, they sang several numbers. It is a beautiful custom and the News is pleased to congratulate our young people not only for the very fine music but the fine public spirit shown which stimulated a spirit of good will and Christmas joy thruout the village.

Edward Seaman, W. R. C., Christmas and Birthday Party

The W. R. C. held their December birthday and Christmas party at Legion Hall, Tuesday evening. A 6 o'clock dinner was enjoyed at which the birthday cake was cut for one birthday guest, Mrs. Emma Church.

A short Christmas program consisting of readings, piano solo by Mary Mesler, song by Emily Greene and recitation by Marjorie Bergman. An exchange of gifts, candy and popcorn was distributed from a very prettily trimmed tree.

Rebekahs Observe Christmas

I. O. O. F. Hall was filled with members and guests Wednesday evening to listen to the program presented under direction of the committees in charge. Recitations, musical numbers and tableaux were given. The young people and little ones having a prominent part. A beautiful tree and the appearance of "Santa" with a heavy sack from which he distributed generous bags of popcorn and candy added greatly to the spirit of the evening.

After the gifts had been distributed the children and young people were invited to the dining room for luncheon.

Remove to Rochester

A letter from W. A. Reed, formerly of Canisteo, tells us to send their Andover News to their new address, 154 Plymouth avenue south, Rochester, N. Y.

Mr. Reed had served with the Canisteo Silk Co. as foreman in the winding department for 25 years continuously and prior to that had been for some years a resident of this village. The News wishes them success in their new location.

The way a pruning cut is made determines to some extent, how the wound heals. Cut branches flush with the limb or trunk so that no stump is left; the stump invites decay.
