Double the electricity costs Mrs. B. only a few cents more a day

When Mrs. B. was first married, the only electrical conveniences she had were lights, a flat iron and toaster. Her electric bills averaged a couple of dollars a month. One by one, in the past few years, she has acquired more household helps-first an electric washerthen a radio, percolator, vacuum cleaner, kitchen mixer and refrigerator. Yet a check-up of recent electric bills reveals that she's paying only a few cents a day more for all this extra relief from Cheaper electricity has brought these conveniences within reach of many families. Your electricity is your biggest bargain. The more you use, the bigger bargain it is!
