

INDICTED BY GRAND JURY

Prindle... and... indicted for... Third...

VICE PRESIDENT OF MEMBER BANK

Howard A. Inskip Elected Vice President in Merger of Kenmore State and Central Banks.

NEED ASKS FOR EMERGENCY LOANS

Investigation to be Made of Drought Feed Shortage in Western New York Representative.

CHIEF POLICE ASKS RETIREMENT

Chief of Police Clarence Bailey Unanimously Asks Retirement After 30 Years of Service - 51 as Chief.

Woodruff Cheese Features In Store Display

The Addison Advertiser last week featured a picture of the interior of the new Chart Store, in that village, which is claimed by the Advertiser as the most modern and up-to-date in this section of the state.

FOLWELL FREED OF FRAUD CLAIM

Verdict of "No Cause For Action" in Folwell vs. State Bank of Belmont Case.

Proposed Reductions in Electric Rates by Niagara Power Don't Effect And-over Contract.

The proposed new program of simplified cheap electric rates of the "yardstick" type, which was announced last week by the companies affiliated with the Niagara Hudson system, will not effect the electric consumers of the village of And-over system.

Young Women's Club Met With Mrs. Thorne

The Young Women's Friendly Class of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Edith Thorne Friday evening.

Well Known County Woman Dies

Miss Anna Hatch, 78, lifelong resident of Belmont, widely known throughout Allegany county as an author and writer on early and contemporary Indian life, for her work in women's clubs and also as music instructor over a long period of years, died January 17th at Buffalo and was buried Sunday following services at Belmont.

Former Angelica Man Shot in Hold-up

Michael Cuniff was killed in a holdup in a New York City restaurant last week by a gangster's bullet. He was born in Galway, Ireland and came to America when a young lad, the family locating at Angelica. Later he went to New York where he was associated with the Metropolitan Insurance company. The holdup was at 102nd Street and Amsterdam Avenue. The patrons of the restaurant were robbed and Mr. Cuniff shot. He was a brother of Mrs. Walter Coats of Angelica.

Bankers Meet

The Allegany County Bankers' Association held a meeting Thursday, Jan. 24th at Angelica. Dr. J. Nelson Norwood, president of Alfred University, addressed the body on the topic, "Your Job and My Job."

Andover Village Tax Sale

Notice to be sold March 14, 1935 at 10:00 A. M.

Dairyman's League Meeting

The annual meeting of the Dairyman's League was held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 17 at Firemen's Hall.

Garthwaite and Dynamite Put Out Gas Well Fire

A skillfully exploded 15-pound charge of dynamite in the hands of Fred Garthwaite of Wellsville snuffed out a roaring gas well fire which had raged for 54 hours in the Cunningham well in the township of Willing, some ten miles south of Wellsville village.

GRANGE NEWS

In spite of the steady drop in the mercury, a goodly number of Alfred Grangers journeyed to Andover Wednesday evening to confer the third and fourth degrees on Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaw, Mrs. Sadie Graves, Mrs. Leila Livermore, Miss Doris Allen. Mrs. Mae Bennells was reinstated.

The Test of a Man

There's little satisfaction to be gained from doing things That hold no difficulties; it's the tough old task that brings Keen sense of worth and power to the man who wins the fight;

mont Man Held on Assault Charge

Charles Kohut, 46, of Whitney siding, near Belmont, is in Belmont jail awaiting Grand Jury trial a charge of assault made by his daughters, Anns, 16 and Sofia, who claim their father dragged them around the house by their hair, beat them and twisted their arms. He also beat their three younger sons.

Garthwaite and Dynamite Put Out Gas Well Fire

The following officers were elected: Archie Kemp, trustee for three years, to succeed himself; Henry Baker, trustee for three years in place of George Beebe, resigned; Bertha Hardy, organist; Frances Rogers, assistant organist.

Editor Bristol's Mother Dies

The News extends its Editor E. Chandler Bristol and his family our sympathy in the loss of his mother, Mrs. Frances Ross Bristol, who passed from life February 1st at Sidney, N. Y., at the advanced age of 90 years.

Evangelistic Meetings At Wellsville

The B. B. Bosworth Evangelistic party are holding services at the Christian and Mission Alliance church in Wellsville this week.

Dance Date Changed

The date of the Catholic boys' St. Valentine's party has been changed from Wednesday night, Feb. 13th, as announced last week to Tuesday night, Feb. 12th.

Prindle... and... indicted for... Third...

Prindle... and... indicted for... Third...

Howard A. Inskip Elected Vice President in Merger of Kenmore State and Central Banks.

Andover people will be pleased to learn of the election of a former Andover man and official of the Andover State Bank, Howard A. Inskip, as vice president of the new merger bank at Kenmore.

NEED ASKS FOR EMERGENCY LOANS

Investigation to be Made of Drought Feed Shortage in Western New York Representative.

CHIEF POLICE ASKS RETIREMENT

Chief of Police Clarence Bailey Unanimously Asks Retirement After 30 Years of Service - 51 as Chief.

Woodruff Cheese Features In Store Display

The Addison Advertiser last week featured a picture of the interior of the new Chart Store, in that village, which is claimed by the Advertiser as the most modern and up-to-date in this section of the state.

FOLWELL FREED OF FRAUD CLAIM

Verdict of "No Cause For Action" in Folwell vs. State Bank of Belmont Case.

Proposed Reductions in Electric Rates by Niagara Power Don't Effect And-over Contract.

The proposed new program of simplified cheap electric rates of the "yardstick" type, which was announced last week by the companies affiliated with the Niagara Hudson system, will not effect the electric consumers of the village of And-over system.

Young Women's Club Met With Mrs. Thorne

The Young Women's Friendly Class of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Edith Thorne Friday evening.

Well Known County Woman Dies

Miss Anna Hatch, 78, lifelong resident of Belmont, widely known throughout Allegany county as an author and writer on early and contemporary Indian life, for her work in women's clubs and also as music instructor over a long period of years, died January 17th at Buffalo and was buried Sunday following services at Belmont.

Former Angelica Man Shot in Hold-up

Michael Cuniff was killed in a holdup in a New York City restaurant last week by a gangster's bullet. He was born in Galway, Ireland and came to America when a young lad, the family locating at Angelica. Later he went to New York where he was associated with the Metropolitan Insurance company. The holdup was at 102nd Street and Amsterdam Avenue. The patrons of the restaurant were robbed and Mr. Cuniff shot. He was a brother of Mrs. Walter Coats of Angelica.

Bankers Meet

The Allegany County Bankers' Association held a meeting Thursday, Jan. 24th at Angelica. Dr. J. Nelson Norwood, president of Alfred University, addressed the body on the topic, "Your Job and My Job."

Andover Village Tax Sale

Notice to be sold March 14, 1935 at 10:00 A. M.

Dairyman's League Meeting

The annual meeting of the Dairyman's League was held Thursday afternoon, Jan. 17 at Firemen's Hall.

Garthwaite and Dynamite Put Out Gas Well Fire

A skillfully exploded 15-pound charge of dynamite in the hands of Fred Garthwaite of Wellsville snuffed out a roaring gas well fire which had raged for 54 hours in the Cunningham well in the township of Willing, some ten miles south of Wellsville village.

GRANGE NEWS

In spite of the steady drop in the mercury, a goodly number of Alfred Grangers journeyed to Andover Wednesday evening to confer the third and fourth degrees on Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Shaw, Mrs. Sadie Graves, Mrs. Leila Livermore, Miss Doris Allen. Mrs. Mae Bennells was reinstated.

The Test of a Man

There's little satisfaction to be gained from doing things That hold no difficulties; it's the tough old task that brings Keen sense of worth and power to the man who wins the fight;

Prindle... and... indicted for... Third...

Prindle... and... indicted for... Third...

Howard A. Inskip Elected Vice President in Merger of Kenmore State and Central Banks.

Andover people will be pleased to learn of the election of a former Andover man and official of the Andover State Bank, Howard A. Inskip, as vice president of the new merger bank at Kenmore.

NEED ASKS FOR EMERGENCY LOANS

Investigation to be Made of Drought Feed Shortage in Western New York Representative.

CHIEF POLICE ASKS RETIREMENT

Chief of Police Clarence Bailey Unanimously Asks Retirement After 30 Years of Service - 51 as Chief.

Woodruff Cheese Features In Store Display

The Addison Advertiser last week featured a picture of the interior of the new Chart Store, in that village, which is claimed by the Advertiser as the most modern and up-to-date in this section of the state.

FOLWELL FREED OF FRAUD CLAIM

Verdict of "No Cause For Action" in Folwell vs. State Bank of Belmont Case.

Proposed Reductions in Electric Rates by Niagara Power Don't Effect And-over Contract.

The proposed new program of simplified cheap electric rates of the "yardstick" type, which was announced last week by the companies affiliated with the Niagara Hudson system, will not effect the electric consumers of the village of And-over system.

Young Women's Club Met With Mrs. Thorne

The Young Women's Friendly Class of the M. E. church met at the home of Mrs. Edith Thorne Friday evening.

Well Known County Woman Dies

Miss Anna Hatch, 78, lifelong resident of Belmont, widely known throughout Allegany county as an author and writer on early and contemporary Indian life, for her work in women's clubs and also as music instructor over a long period of years, died January 17th at Buffalo and was buried Sunday following services at Belmont.

Former Angelica Man Shot in Hold-up

Michael Cuniff was killed in a holdup in a New York City restaurant last week by a gangster's bullet. He was born in Galway, Ireland and came to America when a young lad, the family locating at Angelica. Later he went to New York where he was associated with the Metropolitan Insurance company. The holdup was at 102nd Street and Amsterdam Avenue. The patrons of the restaurant were robbed and Mr. Cuniff shot. He was a brother of Mrs. Walter Coats of Angelica.

Bankers Meet

The Allegany County Bankers' Association held a meeting Thursday, Jan. 24th at Angelica. Dr. J. Nelson Norwood, president of Alfred University, addressed the body on the topic, "Your Job and My Job."