STUDENT'S RELIEF AFTER EXAMINATIONS!

What a relief it is that exams are over! During exam week, there was much wondering done among the students. They were all assembled in the hall, wondering if their paper had been marked and what they got in the test. The teachers were bothered somewhat with the question "Did I pass?"

Since the tests are over, we are very much relieved as well as pleased. Most of the exam marks were very good. As a result of the tests, there are a few pupils moved to the class above.

I wish to express my sympathy to those who really tried but did not pass their tests. And for those who did not try, I hope they will see the advantage of studying and do so.

ANDOVER VS. CUBA

Friday evening, Feb. 1, the Andover basketball boys are to match their skill against the team from Cuba.

The game at Cuba was a very close one with Andover in the lead most of the time, but a few seconds before the end of the game fate played into the hands of Cuba and gave them the game by one point. Now Andover is to meet Cuba on its own court and so has a wonderful chance to show Cuba that it can really play basketball.

All students and basketball fans are expected to attend this exciting game Friday night.

DID I HURRY? I DID!

Confusion! Confusion! That is all there was in our house Wednesday morning. The clocks had gone wrong. Everyone had got out on the wrong side of the bed, with a pout on their face. The milk hadn't come. Breakfast wasn't ready. And worst of all, I didn't get up in time for school. As I had got my permanent a long time ago, I had to curl my hair, wash and get dressed. At last I was ready to start.

When I got up to Main street, I fell down on the curb. I had to go back and change my stockings as I had torn a hole in them. Next I was called "Clumsy," "Dumb," and everything.

At last I got to school. It was three minutes to nine and I then found I had forgotten my belt. Well, after this I will be sure to get to school early.

FRIENDSHIP DEFEATS ANDOVER IN HARD FOUGHT GAME

Friendship High School basketball team defeated the Andover High School team at Friendship, Friday, Jan. 25th, in a hard fought game by the score of 19-18.

Nearby started the scoring for Friendship right after the tip-off with a foul shot. Andover went ahead a minute later when Cannon sank a field goal. Andover increased the lead when McGill got the ball away from the Friendship guards and dribbled in for a basket. Whitwood then sank a basket for Friendship. McGill followed this up with a foul shot. A field goal and foul shot by Cannon made the score at the quarter 8-3 in favor of Andover.

Nearby started the scoring in the second quarter for Friendship with a field goal, but Andover came back with a field goal by McAndrew. A field goal by Cannon for Andover and a foul by Norton for Friendship made the score at the half 12-6 in favor of Andover.

Nearby again started the scoring for Friendship with a field goal right after the second half started and Tuttle followed it up with another field goal for Friendship. Alderson made a field goal for Andover in this quarter. Tuttle and Nearby each made a foul shot for Friendship in this quarter, while Ray Briggs made a foul shot for Andover to make the score at the end of the third quarter 15-12 in favor of Andover.

Whitwood started the scoring for Friendship in the third quarter with a field goal and Nearby followed it with another field goal and a foul shot. R. Norton sank a field goal for Friendship and McGill took the ball from the tipoff and sank a difficult shot for Andover. McGill got a foul shot just as the game ended and made it but it wasn't quite enough and Andover lost the game by the score of 19-18.

Andover outplayed Friendship the first three quarters of the game but couldn't stand off Friendship's attack in the final quarter.

The loss of this game put Andover in second place in the Class B league with three wins and two losses, while Friendship is in the lead with four wins and one loss.

McGill played the outstanding game for Andover while Nearby played the outstanding game for Friendship. Nearby of Friendship was the high scorer for the evening with nine points. Cannon of Andover was second high with seven points.

Andover's next league game is with Cuba Friday, Feb. 1st at the high school.

A VIEW OF THE STUDY HALL

As I sit here in the study hall, I see many events taking place.

I can see Don Hardy and Orville Earley amusing each other. And just listen to our gum-chewers. It sounds as tho the boilers have burst. Dot Cronk is reading good books. Dot Nobles is writing many many letters. Among this pile of letters we can see that "Canisto" is going to read.

Of course, we shall always find our most diligent students studying. What is it Jo Baker and Enola West are doing? Oh, yes; telling about the swell time they had at the show Sunday evening.

And now I hear the gentle voice of the study hall teacher telling one of our "Frosh" to report at 4 tonight.

As for me, this will be all, as our study hall teacher is coming towards the seat where I am writing this view of our study hall in "dear ole' A. H. S."

COULD WE EVER MISTAKE THESE?

Mary McAndrews—Kerchew. Clinton Brutsman's—Typing (by errors).

Mary Etta's way of laughing. Philip Lynch's cartoons. Eddie Brewster's—by Jingsu.

Rita Dean's shrill scream (altho we must compliment her for not using it more often).

Howard McAndrew's signs. John Cannon's swivel turn about body (especially in English IV.)

Marion Lever's silence. Edwin Alderson's positivity linked with Bruce McGill's contradictions.

Laurence Howland's height. Marilla Janson's perfect typing papers. Deke Clarke's chronic cough. Alysse Pope's hair.

THE SPOTLIGHT!

Howard talks! Friend Spotlight is back with more food for thought. It is believed that the corner seat in the school bus must have had some attraction for Mary M. Friday night.

Ack Mary! We wonder if the Lynch-Pope team is still going strong? And do you know, I've heard that the McAndrew-Crandall affair has broken and now it's McAndrew-Cook. Nice going, Red!

Were you disappointed, Ruth S., when you failed to find Bernard at the game? We don't blame you.

Oh, yes. I am expecting to see you all at the Cuba game Friday. It's going to be a victory for Andover. You'd better come. (Just a note to Charlie L. Will you be there to cheer for Andover? Is it a date? Good. We'll be expecting you.)

Advice to a little Eighth Grade girl: Watch out for R. B.; she's dangerous at times.

I wonder if Mary's feet really were cold last Friday night? Well, anyway, she got the prize seat in the bus.

Maxine, you had better watch Howard, he is stepping right out these days.

Well of all things, Rita Burns took it upon herself to referee the girls' game at Friendship. Nice game, Rita.

Beatrice, Eddie K. works in the restaurant now and the girls who habit that place are entrancing. A. H. S. hates to see another budding romance, so do something "Bee."

Does R. S. want to go to Warsaw? And how! What's the attraction, Ruth?

They tell me that Joe Mc., "the high school playboy," enjoyed his new found freedom last Saturday night.

Something serious—the A. H. S. Clark Gable is ill. The Spotlight joins in wishing him a speedy recovery.

What has happened to Tish? Can't you give us something to write about Tish?

I wonder whether it was Maxine or Marjory that Howard Mc. was winking at Wednesday morning. If it was Marjorie you had better watch out for Jim C. Red.

Anna Dean, Andover's gift to the men, has another man on the string. Between gasps he said that his name was Ray Graham.

I hear a number of our beautiful maidens attended a birthday party Saturday night in Wellsville. How about it, girls, was a large time had by all?

I wonder what Don Lynch missed January 18?

Why is it that two girls who live on South Main street are getting so much attention from two men who live on the East side of town? Wonder who could tell me?

Bruce is anxious to make a visit to E. State Street. Be careful of Wellsville, Bruce, because you know that even Sophomores can fall for pretty girls.

So our Blonde Venus (Clyde) has fallen at last! Belmont is an awfully long way away Clyde for a little boy like you.

What's this about the Friendship referee winking at Helen Dean? Oh, don't deny it, Helen. I have all the inside dope.

Oh, Charlotte, is it Paul instead of Eddie now?

Bea Kruger still doesn't know whether it's Eddie or Jimmy.

I see our old friend Max Baker is back at school. We are glad to see you, Max. We are also glad to see Mary Walden back again.

Yours 'til the Spotlight spots you.—Ye Ole' SPOTLIGHT.

THIRD GRADERS WRITE STORIES

These stories were written by Third Grade children after they had studied the picture "Deer in the Forest, Twilight," by Rosa Bonheur.

Deer in the Forest, Twilight
Rosa Bonheur liked to paint pictures, especially animals. One picture she painted was about deer. In this picture there were two bucks lying down, one was standing up watching that there was no danger around. It was a thin part of the woods. It was late in the afternoon. It was a very pretty picture.—Anne McDonough.

This picture is the Deer in the Forest, Twilight, painted by Rosa Bonheur. This picture was painted to show the deer in the forest. The picture shows three deer, one of them is standing up, watching for danger; the other two are resting. Rosa Bonheur lived in Bordeaux for a while and then went to Paris. Her father wanted her to be a dressmaker, but soon he found out that it would be impossible to have her be a dressmaker because she wanted to be an artist because her father was.—Charles Hall.

SCHOOL ACHIEVES 87% REGENTS RECORD

Out of 65 Regents examination papers written by pupils of Andover High School last week, 75 papers were given a passing mark, according to a statement issued by Principal Glenn E. Bretch. This represents a record of 87% passing, which is the highest record attained by the local high school in any year since 1925. Records were not available previous to that date.

Many of the papers are subject to official review at Albany and rejection of papers there will slightly lower the percent of passing, but Mr. Bretch expressed confidence that very few of the papers would be returned.

Records on file at the school indicate the following per cents of passing papers for the past six years:

January 1932—59%; June, 1932—71%; January, 1933—63%; June, 1933—75%; January, 1934—61%; June, 1934—72%; January, 1935—87%.

Mr. Bretch said he was well pleased with the results of the January examinations, especially in view of the fact that practically none was excluded from the examinations and that in many cases review classes had been held for only three or four weeks previous to the examinations.

AROUND A. H. S.

The chemistry class is starting a study of Oxides of Nitrogen. They learned that among these nitrous oxide, commonly known as "laughing gas," is used as an anesthetic.

Two of the Eighth Grade pupils, Franklin Witter and Clayton Burger, have entered high school. This leaves 34 members in the Eighth Grade.

The Sixth Grade has again perfect attendance after the return of those who have been absent because of whooping cough.

The first three grades have been having achievement tests.

The Fourth Grade has just finished its study of the Eskimos and are next going to Arabia. They are planning to finish their health booklets this week and next week will begin nature study. In the arithmetic contest the "Yellow Wings" defeated the "Gold Wings."

HUMOR

Alysse Pope: "D-D-Don, I baked such a n-n-nice c-c-cake for you today and the c-c-cat ate it."

D. Lynch: "Don't cry, dear; I'll buy you a new cat tomorrow."

M. Crandall: "I left my purse hanging on the studio hat-rack and when I returned next day it was still there."

H. Clarke: "What, the purse?" M. Crandall: "No, the hat-rack."

C. Dolan (to instructor who has just tried out her voice): "Do you think I shall be able to do anything with my voice?"

Instructor: "Well, it might come in handy in case of fire."

Don Brundage: "Jean, there's something been trembling on my lip for a month."

Jean Millsbaugh: "I noticed it. Why don't you shave it off?"

Ruth Slocum (to salesman in music store): "Have you 'Kissed Me By the Moonlight?'"

Salesman (blushing furiously): "No, Ma'am, it must have been the other fellow. I've only been here a week."
