Baker's Hardware News

1935 Reduction
Aladdin Lamps reduced! No. 12 Aladdin Nickel Lamps now $6.45 complete, hanging and bracket Lamps, same base price.
This is a special and only applies to our stock on hand, which is limited.
Make your home an economical gift of the finest machine for making its own light the world has ever produced.
Ventilation
Fine when under control, windows may be opened and closed at will, but what does this avail if the glass is broken and gone?
We furnish Libbey Owens flat-drawn Window Glass; its resistance is twice that of most glass made by old methods. It's clear, free from waves and hard spots, still at no extra cost.
We carry a large range of sizes cut to fit your openings and set glass in doors, windows, pictures or cabinets at most reasonable prices.
Winter Lubrication
Your engine needs oil at the instant of starting, perhaps more than any other time. Be sure your oil flows at low temperature.
Use Tindex!
Hitching On
It is time to be hauling things about the place. Chains are made for that. You can buy a long, strong chain fully made up with two hooks and swivel for $2.50. We know it's cheap and this price cannot last very long.

Three Places
That's all, just dust at breast, back and brisket—Gray Lawn Louse Chase follow-up for nits and the louse job is completed.
Your dollar back, plus ten cents if it fails, and you are the judge. Get a chart that shows where to apply, not just sure about that bristek business, but it is a word we ought to know even if we have used it in the wrong place. Anyway, we want you to be sure and get rid of your lice with Louse Chase.
Daylight
By gas light, with the new American Lantern; safe, substantial and sure. Tip it over, let a cow kick it across the stable—still no fire.
Prices from $4.50 up.
Dark Mornings
What a temptation to take another snooze and let the job go hang. Morning drowse, almost as insidious as a pipe of opium.
What you need to jar you loose is a sharp-speaking Alarm Clock—one that rouses up its voice and jangles. You'd be surprised what a bunch of morning pep you may own for less than one dollar, while for $1.39 you may have the correct time—an alarm that means business and another pointer that shows you how cold it is.
One of these Clocks not only gets you out of bed but tells you how fast to hurry but also the heft of clothing you will need for the day's work.
We also have the American, Ben Hur and Big Ben all moderately priced.
