YOU SING IT

M. McAndrew.

ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

Subscription Rates

One year ______

Seeking Pleasures

THAT most people seek is pleasure—not work. And II in seeking, they generally derive more fun than in its actual realization. Pleasures differ just as all human traits do. man with a wide expanse of brow can live happily his life on literature, music and art, but the ordinary human wants a little fun now and then. If men had to walk in the hot sun all day pursuing the side of the street. elusive golf ball, the industrial commission would look;

into their case. of money trying to shin up a mountain peak several THIS is an age of short cuts to everything. No one A man will spend valuable time and a large sum thousand feet high because he thinks it is a pleasure. | seems to have time for the "meat" of anything. But if the elevator broke and he had to walk several flights of stairs, he would raise a terrible fuss. Pleasure is anything you don't have to do. Baseball is the greatest sport in the world until you get public speakers making it short and "snappy." good enough to draw a salary for playing, and then it!

any taxi driver will tell you his job is one of the worst without work. Robbing a bank seems to be the most You can tell him so -if you've mind shortly.

in the world. Some men find pleasure in a quiet game of checkers and others in reading the newest book on science. and highway commissions are straightoning highways shrewd old eyes. Other men cannot enjoy themselves unless they have to make greater speed possible. money on a game of chance and others think it is sport! to watch two big huskies heat each other's faces into ter health has been lost by hurning the candle at both hamburg steak. Some men get their fun trying to swim the English channel and others by battling an innocent looking cloth covered ball back and forth over! Men's tastes in pleasure have largely determined hard work are just as much requirements of crown the progress of the world War was once a leading. amusement and watching Christian martyrs devoured, by wild bearts was regarded as a noble pastime. We are a hit more particular now about our, amusements, but high salaried movie actors etill amuse! us with stories that never happened and probably never will, and when a fun maker turns a gasoline tank into a 60 horsepower car and goes like a juggerneut! thru town at a mile a minute, no one has the heart to lynch him because it is his pleasure When we can get our pleasure driving rascals out not jokes they are healthy realities instead.

a man has to take his own advice before passing it on h rights discovers to his sorrow that they are his last binds us one to another.

has a balanced account. When engaged in an argument, it is always well!

one side of the controversy.

Banish the Reckless Driver

'U who have long and continuous strings of accidents, against their driving records, will be ruled off the thighways, if bills such as recently introduced in the Oregon legislature by State Senator Bynon are passed. The bill was originated by the American Automoone state cannot obtain a license to drive in another Istate which has the same law. States which tried the law pronounce it extremely beneficial.

Authoritative surveys demonstrate that the habit-, ually careless driver, like the habitual criminal, never; (reforms. If he is reckless, incompetent or congenitally) unable to drive properly, the chances are that he will never change. No matter how many accidents he may never change. No matter how many accidents he may —the price of her family honor—of Roddy's. She was one of those to go up stairs but she actually fall. continue to cause more accidents and violate more trafdy, who stole, for a woman, that to the last ditch for love fic laws. Thousands of cases are on record where one amount from the bank in which he "They haven't got any family voices. Now the words took shape driver has been responsible for a score or more of ac- works. Nancy, desperately in love troubles, Mr. Haddon," she said hot- and became sentences. It was Hel cidents within a relatively short period of time. Such with young Page Roemer, neverthe- ly. "They're very fond of Nancy ena's voice, her full, soft, drawling drivers menace the life, health and property of us all less agrees to a secret elopement and very proud of her; she's love- voice.

and most of them are harder on the system than work. a telephone pole they will argue it was on the wrong

The hair is cut short, clothing is cut short and . our time is cut short. We want our sermons short and we insist on our Driving an automobile is pleasure and some spend and cabbage exists only as a comic page myth.

favored of short cuts in this class. Motorists are constantly demanding short cuts out of the room, glad to escape those to come to my office—when he gets my engagemnet and—" she laughed

But the world's work is not going to be done with mind?" and he went, in spite of moment, "it was only just put in since his mother's death." cut" mania will have to learn that patience, " ne and

"erape" have been the source of endless jokes ship, you may be assured that the millennium has ar fence. act which is seldom found in the formal call. way home from church.

out an honest-to-goodness cackle, you have been in- mean the house and grounds, in- not even seen her and the girl had his nose to the ground. Did this because men need it more.

The Royal Road To Romance —— by A. B. Chapin

THE STORY SO FAR

NINTH INSTALLMENT Nancy Gordon trades herself Roddy's arrest. Dr. Morgan is loved don told me so herself." young married woman, but he adores good-humored smile. "I wish I had now; I'm glad of it for I was afraid Nancy and hopes to win her after a friend like you," he said. In Washington they are

-and afraid of him. Now go on with the story. "Something terrible must have her with a grim smile. "My dear, mumbled something, an indisting happened," cried Angie, with a flash. there are a mighty lot of Judases sentence or two, evidently bewilder. "I—I know it." The major nodded, looking past her out of the window. in, Angie; I'm going to finish my don without rising. "Going right you remember him, Mrs. Gordon"

Angle, flushed and angry, hurried turned. "Oh, I shall send for him marry Kingdon. I-well, I broke to the bank today."

"Where's the major? At break-| "By Jove! You're quick at a marry now. I really wish he would be fast? I'll go right in -if you don't bargain," Haddon exclaimed after a it's so lonely over there for him

"Hello! Still at breakfast?" he to starve you," he laughed. "I can door. Iwait- Angie didn't vant to let me in here anyway."

The pedestrian who insists on maintaining his an endless chain that circles the home community and of her, but it existed. Haddon was blankly at the sunshine in the old was asking about him yesterday.

"I came in to ask you a question, mansions—" she whispered tremu- of Major Lomax." Lomax," he said irrelevently. "You lously, unaware that she spoke aloud. Nancy started, trembling with apcluding the river lot next yours?" been silenced by her first glimpse woman know? Major Lomax pushed his chair of Mrs. Gordon's face. back, felt in his pocket for his old "Mama, what is it?" she cried, out all she wanted to, or she was pipe and began to fill it carefully. "tell me—even if I have done some tired of it; she was actually going. "Near as I can figure—about six thing—something dreadful. I'm not Nancy heard their movements in the want me to touch it. I don't know she said weakly. what to say abou it yet."

'rooted there—and so is he, for that less!" she groaned.

He's a good man: and she's a good oman. She'll take it hard."

"In Washington?" Angie started. [-" she hesitated and then added the door. "Why, I didn't know she'd been more cheerfully: "He's been kind, "Mist' Page Roemer, Miss Nancy," ling her pretty flush and her round.

1 Nancy listened, straining the other room. Don't let her come in here!" "Family troubles drain a man's Mrs. Gordon, reluctant and em. nocket sometimes," he remarked barrassed, allowed herself ... Nancy thrust her thru th Angie fired up, her brown eyes portieres, drew them behind her and marriage for fifteen thousand dollars glowing with almost the wine tint went back to her lounge. She meant with Dr. Richard Morgan, and with ly, I've known her all my life—and "He's taking care of King; yes the money he loans her prevents Roddy is doing well. Mrs. Gor-know my husband clings to a dos. tor!" she laughed softly. "He and by Helena Haddon, a sophisticated Haddon listened with his lazy, Richard Morgan are great friends

Angie blushed crimson. "I'd feel such queer creatures. As a her married. Nancy is Richard's bride very mean not to stand up for my Richard was so much friends. Anyone would—I should me he offered to fight King for try. ing to marry me." Major Lomax looked around at She paused and Mrs. Gordon in the world," he remarked dryly. ed. Nancy sat up straight now and Haddon assented, buttoning up listened, altho she knew that Helena his loose spring overcoat, coughing wanted her to listen. fordon's tone showed confusion "He really insisted that I should softly again, regretfully, "dear Mrs. Haddon would not wait in the li-i "You needn't-I've bought it my-Gordon, Richard felt it so much that > Mrs. Gordon evidently did not rise more and then Helena's voice tose "I concede the honors of war!" I was sorry that Kingdon didn't offered it. It's quite a lovely ald . lplace. You must hate to gi c " a good advantage and thus gain the have. Ask him.) fruits of an education.

MARIAN NOBLES

Jean Millspaugh

MILK DISTRIBUTION was discontinued about two weeks look: "I went huntin'?" (Short and er over the week-end. ago has been re-established in the sweet. He couldn't have had much

Friday-3:30, Girls' Glee Club.

And smiled at a pretty dame.

A girl that we all like a lot;

guess it's the truth that tells.

The Hi Herald ANDOVER, N. Y., MARCH 1, 1935.

> Bernice Williams. f singing and dancing.

graceful dancers, Anna Dean, Alyse drew, Alyse Pope. Pope, Rita Burns, Veronica O'Har- Juniors-- Dorothy Nobles, June gan, Jessamine Briggs, Dorothy No-Babcock, Jessamine Briggs, Donald bles, Rita Dean, Mary McAndrew, Edwards. Charlotte Cook and Edna Joyce. Charlotte Cook, Jean Millspaugh ine Crandall, Jean Millspaugh, Farn- will play the Alfred girls at And- Phil. Lynch: "John, do you want and Carolyn Dolan sang "I Believe ham Pope, Lester Regan, Alan Tut-over this Friday, March 1. as a pre- me to tell you a joke about some

This is the general The fact that there Lollypop." They were accompanied Freshmen—Charles Burgett, Hel H. S. teachers. The fact that there Lollypop." They were accompanied Freshmen—Charles Burgett, Hel too much competition is very true. by Doris Honegger as Shirley Tem- en Dean Gerald Easton Edna Fair. The Andover girls have won most This is the general cry of our A. in Miracles," and "On the Good Ship tle. H. S. teachers. Dean, Gerald Easton, Edna Fair- of their games this year, altho they much compension was furnished by Ruth banks, Donald Hardy, George Joyce, dropped one to Alfred at Alfred bought some sugar and butter and a that most of us have often ple. Music was furnished by Ruth banks, Donald Hardy, George Joyce, dropped one to Alfred at Alfred bought some sugar and butter and bear and butter and (in mild terms) close Slocum, Dan Farwell and Robert Marion Swartz. been told to when we have found Spicer. Richard Appier acted as Eighth Grade—*Barbara Bassett, Altho both teams are pretty evenly ourselves the direct of state of was attempting to give us a piece of Following the program refresh- Louis Fulkerson, Leo Nobles, Donald the Andover girls have always done took attempting to give us a piece of Following the program refresh- Louis Fulkerson, Leo Nobles, Donald the Andover girls have always done took attempting to give us a piece of Following the program refresh- Louis Fulkerson, Leo Nobles, Donald the Andover girls have always done knowledge which would help us in ments were served. knowledge which the should Mrs. Richard Harder won the Seventh Grade—Pearl Goodridge, son to suspect a winning score.

Teacher is reveal them to us. It and Miss Annette Clifford won the appeared on the eleven excused lists. is a very difficult task for a teacher door prize. ____A-H-S-__ one else is talking. We know ourselves that when we "have the floor"

By the Rambling Reporter

All thru life, we probably shall did you do on February 22nd? learn not how to offer competition Ollie?) hut how to refrain from offering it.

and make a place for ourselves.

Answer-This athletic, brown-month of February.

Question, J. M.—C. B., what did in West Almond.

orchestra re- both boys and girls of A. H. S. This person is full of fun and is good DO YOU KNOW THAT-in Instured. She is often seen wearing! la brown coat. Mobilize your thoughts and guess who this person is. Answer next week. Answer to last week's Guess Whol-

____A-A-S-__

And the honey bees hum By the light of the moon. Every little plant grows just so By the light of the moon. I know they will come soon,

By the light of the moon.

'I can't wait for spring at all, But I guess I'll wait my doon.

lered to her father's and was laid ANDOVER vs. WELLSVILLE Andover Friday, Mar.

plenty of reserves, she will find And- given by them. to is now, but some day when men . because of their determination Margaret Powers sang "Rain" and Seniors—Oliver Kruger, Charles win. This will be the last home grow wiser, it shall no longer be.
"I Saw Stars," accompanied by the Lynch, James Lynch, Mary McAngame of the season. There will be GORDON M. RIDENOUR,

> _ ----A-H-S-----ANDOVER GIRLS vs. ALFRED The Andover girls basketball team Andover plans to take Alfred here, set it on the track."

THE SPOTLIGHT!!

they have no right to drive automobiles.

Our meals are cut short in time. Synthetic foods, "There's King Haddon coming in a little as he dit it. substitutes for the real thing, abound, and corn beef here," he exclaimed. "Go let him | Major Lomax glanced up at Had- -who wouldn't? But my father-Everybody is looking for a short cut to wealth breakfast Haddon or no Haddon! over to see Gordon?" he asked!

Short cuts to health are sought in sanitariums af brarv.

dichinent as they ever were.

co can't repeal the laws of nature and ' ' 's a can't pass any more either. -----

But what "f clothespin friendships? They are the bank."

There is a feeling of neighborly intimacy in the need protection!" Gossip? Of course, but no more than you find ed, and leaned on a chair, looking feeling a little faint and giddy. She mother's face. on the streets, in the home, at parties, or even on the at him. She liked Kingdon Haddon did not know there was anyone in "Roddy's always done well. He's Keep up the clothesline friendship. Make them could not have explained her fear sank weakly into a chair, staring "I'm so glad to hear it. Kingdon

There are none better or more lasting to be had. Laugh and the world laughs with you—except know about such things. How much Nancy rose suddenly from the prehension. She remembered Rodnothing and his community owes him everything never that per cent of the world which thinks that if you let is Gordon's place worth now? I corner opposite. Her mother had dy's description of old Beaver with said, as his eye fell on the old man's telephone before you come in," he a murmur. There were a few ords The major started up, half rising | Haddon reddened and then laugh-lagain, keyed to carry far, as her from the table, but Haddon stopped ed. "Sit down, Lomax, I don't want he said ironically, making for the buy your house when Mr. Garlon

Mrs. Gordon opened the old worn so suddenly, Mrs. Gordon! "I said I wouldn't see you until gate timidly, and approached the "Major Lomax wants i to stay this hour anyway? I haven't robbed step. She was trying to realize that Mrs. Gordon, her voice hierling the place, which she had called home "I do hate to leave it." Kingdon Haddon laughed. "Come ever since Roddy was a baby, was "I should think you would! 'to Millions of women have made life-long friends in Angie," he said, as the girl tried no longer hers. She had just been your son, Mrs. Gordon. What or once, swarring the law breakers and indicting awith millions of women have made the lothesline or across the back to pass quickly thru the room to down to the bank to sign the papers you hear from him?" She let her the suffering in the shape of good fellow-thru talking over the clothesline or across the back the kitchen. "I haven't come to talk making over the house to Major voice rest a moment and then, slow-secrets and your uncle's crusty-I Lomax, and her hand had trembled ly drawling, "is he doing well?" so that she had to apologize for her Nancy knew, without seeing, the Angie stopped, smiling and flush-signature. She went into the house, crimson flush that went up over h but she was afraid of his wife; she the library; she went straight in and doing splendidly now."

"'In my Father's house are many pany, I think, a Mr. Beaver, a cousin Then, either the visitor had found τ seven thousand. The house needs an outsider. I—you and papa don't hall. Mrs. Gordon came back, pantrepairs. Why?" he added. "What's tell me anything. What is it? Ma-ling. ma, you're wretched! Is it about "Oh, Nancy, do you think she she knows anything?" Mrs. Gordon looked at her blank- Nancy shook her head doubtfully. Family troubles, I reckon. The bank ly, absorbed in her own thoughts. "How can she? Unless-" There holds the mortgage. Helena doesn't "Your father's just sold the house," was Beaver, but Nancy would not believe that. It was too much. "I "Oh!" Nancy gave a sharp little think she only wanted you to talk

Major Lomax rose and began to cry of pain, rising to her feet. "I about Richard." "Where's Gordon going to take this, Mama. I did it all to prevent didn't know that he—that they had " he asked sharply, "she's this—and it's been useless—use ever been engaged," she said blank. |Nancy, I know that!" Mrs. Gordon nodded her head sad-"It wasn't any use, Nancy. You! it's old-fashioned," suggested Had-know how your father is. He's paid lips. "Perhaps he isn't now," she said

Mrs. Gordon raised her eyes re- secret in the family—and I—" she "Shucks," the major sank down luctantly to her daughter's haggard laughed wildly—"I threw myself at into his chair again, strumming on face. "Yes, dear. He—your father his head, Mama." But Nancy did not blush, she turned suddenly white to the lips and caught at Mrs. Gordon's hand conand straight, her white face set. "Who bought the house?"

There's Page Roemer coming gave four thousand cash," her moth the gate—oh, Mama, what shall er went on mechanically, "and there do? dear, he urged papa not to sell the she said softly, showing the whites furniture. He said it wouldn't bring of her eyes. "I said mebbe yo' h enough to make it worth while, and in an' agin mebbe yo' wan't, but he's —he wants us to keep the house— waitin', says he's gwinter wait remember that there are a prize for contract bridge, Miss Mary Betty Greene, Carol Walton, Aline few things we might learn from our Snyder the prize for auction bridge; Reisman, Harold Rice.

Perhaps he doesn't like s

we want everyone listening to us, Question, J. M .-- Oliver K., what high school. sports, business, work and play. This ior planned on chopping down the however, is quite a different propo- historical cherry tree and casting it is sition While in school, we must into Dyke Creek. (Did you do it, Japanese scenes.

Whereas, in business and in later Question, J. M.—P. C., how did life. we must learn how to compete you celebrate Washington's hirth-I'. S. students? Let's re Pierce Arrow down Fifth Avenue.

Question, J. M.—A. P., may I ask India. tion, the 22nd of Feb.?

of work. Thus, the people with Question, J. M.—J. C., could you ner was given to them. Their pertage was the people with education receive the employment. Inform me as to what you did on centage was 5.0. High school education is the most Friday, the 22nd? important and highest education Answer—This very mischievous, that many of us will receive and bothersome, athletic, friendly Senior enabled Andover High School to ceived by the Rambling Reporter. prize for the best posters drawn in continue the distribution of milk, Perhaps another such report will be the sixth, seventh and eighth grades. for the month of February and to find important people of A. H. S., each grade.

IS RE-ESTABLISHED freshman farmer boy blows away the substituted for her.

was sitting in the library felt a slight bit weary,

All at once I heard a giggle, From the study hall it came; Orville turned 'round with a wiggle When all the Mayflowers bloom, She wasn't fat and she wasn't tall; How old she was, I cannot tell. The dame was none other than Char- I can't wait for the daisies to grow,

By gosh, he ought to be stopped. I can't wait for the birds to sing But wait "Can you roll your eyes" You got to be mannerly, too, Sir, I can't wait for the pretty green money.

a dance after the game.

Sophomores---*Hilda Clarke, Max-

good work and there is every rea- come in?" teacher if we would only give her Mrs. Mary Burns for five hundred +—Those pupils whose names have ____A-H-S-___

AROUND A. H. S. The Third Grade won the atten-poet down at the Auditorium Mon- I'm escaping." dance contest for the month of Feb- day night with "Slim." Better ruary in the lower grades. The watch out "Joe." Did you go to the card party Tues- for racing."

have competition of all sorts—in morous, brilliant (?), ambitious Sen- started on Oriental collection which "You quest to he in nictures Dor- were" a displayed in the back of their is. Troom. In drawing they are drawing class the other day when they told her that she had the measles, that The Second Grade has a new pu-she only made 99 in the test. nil, Charles Jones from Elm Valley. Four members of the Freshman contest. The names of the sides are Georgie are planning on going for Answer—This medium-sized, dark- White Lodge and Snow House. They a ride in a cutter. They had better reres in teachers, as far as speaking "out haired, well-liked-by-all Senior and have started collecting stamps in go soon or they will have to go in connection with the postoffice pro- a buggy. ject. They have collected stamps It was just too had for the eats from France, England, Germany and when the basketball team returned from Fillmore Tuesday night. The girls play Alfred Friday night The Third and Ninth Grades won __They say they can hardly wait the attendance banners for the ' Have you noticed that the well-1 importance of this word, but later should have waited until Saturday with the Eighth Grade in the upper Lynch by the way. grade group, but as the Freshmen The boys team plays Wellsville months. A complication of diagrams M of work. Thus, the people with Question, J. M.—J. C., could you ner was given to them. Their ner- Friday night. Here's hoping we heat was the cause of death.

> you do on Washington's birthday? Miss McLaughlin is back in school quite a ways from home, girls. Answer—This red-headed, studious after being ill. Monday Mrs. Kupp What happened when the lights lating. Burial was made in the Ren went out in the gym Monday at netts Creek cemetery. The distribution of milk which fog and explains thus, with a sour Mrs. Alvord entertained her moth-basketball practice? Dearie Dear! The Seniors have postponed their dance indefinitely. POSTER CONTEST The fact that the county appro- This concludes an actual report of A free ticket to the show "Youth Friday night. priated money for the milk project the questions asked and answers re- Comes Tripping" was given as a So long until next week.

enough money has been appropriated printed next week. So, if you wish There were three prizes given in PARABLES OF PETER THE PEDAGOGUE proved. Mrs. Travis, who has been in Geneva. watch for the Rambling Reporter's | Eighth grade, first prize, Leo Nobles; second, Mary T. Burns; third, "The Teacher with a Wide-Mouthed in Rochester has also returned. Clyde Briggs and Delores Farwell > parchment, less what was laid aside during the evening. store for her in a far city, as same week of each month when she enjoyed dancing at the Senior promi-By Francis R. Mead On the average thruout the world had given the parchment in exchange Thursday evening. The room it takes seven acres of land to feed for the coin of the realm, divers persons to her, importuning One-third of the area of the con-

potential forest land, according to thine income and in return shall next senior party will be held the home in Elmira. thou receive a ticket admitting thee evening of March 7th. he chief of the Forest Service. The present $10,000 bill is the to our annual harvest bazaar," colargest denomination of paper cur- joled one. e rency ever issued by the U.S., ac- 5.—Bestow upon me four bits and cording to the office of the U.S. thou shalt hear the finest music thou ta. the tomorrow eve," begged another. The official proceedings of 6.—"Sign this paper and give me ing.

Judges who sit as members of a third. Because the world does seem to ring Dutch floring. According to the ex- fourth. change rate as of Jan. 1, 1935, this 8 .- "Give to our organization that Following the business meeting a Drake of Jasper. would be about $6,000 in American we may purchase gum drops for lit- social hour was enjoyed by the Mrs. J. K. Miller has received the tle orphan Eskimos," implored a company. The shortest railway in the world. fifth.

-And behold, it was learned "My Wild Irish Rose" --- Anna Dean So-o-o, you are another wild '( Don't you think you'll go, Mary? "Freckled Face" _ . Philip Lynch 17 .-- As it was in the beginning, "The Daring Young Man on the Fly-Pole vaulting again, eh? Horseheads Union School Bet you wish you were on this ship, don't you, Lorene? "I Believe in Miracles" Bea. Kruger So, you believe in miracles? "Tiny Little Finger Tips" Dot Cronk ' What small hands you have, Dot? son and D. Clarke. Nice going, Deke!

'. C.: "But where does the train The Moon Was Yellow," Don Lynch So, you happened to see it, did you? P. L.: "Why, at the station, "Somebody Stole My Gal" D. Appier Who was it who stole her, Dick? F. Parker: "I'm sorry you asked Hi! Ho! Everybody! Station S. me to marry you. It pains me to "Show Me the Way to Go Home" Oh-was I flabbergasted, excuse D. Lynch (cheerfully): "Oh, don't Don't you know the way home, Bill? spelling, when I saw our freshman worry. Perhaps you know best what "I've Found a Million Dollar Baby

(sdv.) should think you would have had.

in a Five and Ten Cent Store" Jo Baker. Policeman: "You are under arrest! Must be you're the million dollar day night? If not, you missed one | C. Brutsman: "Oh, but you're mis-] The Sixth Grade is studying China grand time. Shirley Temple, better taken, I wasn't racing. But say, I "The Object of My Affection" M. Neval.

"When You're Not Around I'm Lone-Isome" ____ Maxine Crandall t het when "Red" isn't around, your Don't let them get a strangle hold. Fight , They are tied in their spelling Class-Fotiney, Charles, Helen and in one. Powerful but harmless. Pleasant to "Little Man, You've Had a Busy take. No narcotica. Your own druggist is D

GREENWOOD

(Mrs. H. C. McCaffery, Reporter) Dell C Taylor Passes Away | nesday. At noon a tureen dinner meaning of this word? We, at the present time, may not know the importance of this word, but later should have waited until Saturday with the Eighth Grade in the upper time.

Georgie J. have been "that way" this community. August 8, 1888 he married Ardell Streeter, who sur-O, ho! So Marion L. and Dot N. vives, together with two brothers, Mrs. B. E. Burger was taken to

Mr. and Mrs. Milon Richmond went on a party Saturday night. Fay of this place and Arthur of the Bethesda hospital, Hornell Frireceive a wonderful education in what good luck Johnny really did spent the week-end with her parents Who broke Helen Dean's eggs Sat- Canisteo. Several nieces and neph- day evening and underwent a major whigh school, so let's use the time to what good luck Johnny really did of Weterland Miss Kelley spent the week-end So Charlotte and B. Kruger re- Funeral services were held at the operation was pronounced a success ceived a letter from Ohio. That's home Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'- and Mrs. Burger is slowly recoverclock, the Rev. Shirley Travis offic-ing. Dwight Young spent the week-end with friends in Valley Stream, L. I.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Scott and Rev. Shirley Travis, who has been two sons of West Greenwood, Mr. Don't forget, folks, there's a confined in the infirmary of the and Mrs. George Rollins and family dance after the basketball game this Rochester Colgate Divinity School of this place and Mrs. Rhoda Demfor the past ten days, returned to ing of Allentown spent Sunday with his home here Friday afternoon. Rev. their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Allie Travis has been suffering with a Scott of Rexville. throat infection which followed an Miss Loretta Casey spent the attack of grippe. He is much im- week-end at the home of her parents spending the week with her husband Mrs. Howard Graves of Wellsville spent Saturday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brundage. Canisteo.

This person is a blonde, of medium height, has blue eyes and is a Wednesday—3:30, orchestra rehearsal.
Wednesday—3:30, girls glee club.
Wednesday—3:30, girls glee club.

Wednesday—3:20

Seventh: First prize, Betty Green;
taught Esther of the House of Davis,
dium height, has blue eyes and is a Sophomore. She is quite studious Sophomore. She is well liked by third, Vera Milligan.

Seventh: First prize, Betty Green;
taught Esther of the House of Davis,
the were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Buck, Friday week of every month, save two, did
she receive her wages; one hundred and is often seen studying French third, Vera Milligan.

Addison Burger, who has heen
the condition of the supper club
supper laught Esther of the House of Davis,
the week of every month, save two, did
she receive her wages; one hundred and twenty simoleons set down on the light home.

Addison Burger, who has heen
the condition of the supper club
supper laught Esther of the House of Davis,
the condition of the supper club
supper laught Esther of the House of Davis, were entertained at the home of the supper laught
spending several weeks at the home
of his daughter in Wellsville,
week of every month, save two, did
she receive her wages; one hundred
and twenty simoleons set down on
the condition of the supper club
spending several weeks at the home
of his daughter in Wellsville,
week of every month, save two, did
she receive her wages; one hundred and twenty simoleons set do Thomas Young has returned from

Mrs. Wm. Harkenrider of Rexville, is now at the home of his daughter. decorated with the class colors and Miss Grace Young. music was furnished by the Babcock Miss Ethel Anderson has returned Theatre orchestra of Wellsville. The from passing the week-end at her Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ersley were business visitors in Canisteo Monday. The following out of town rela-McGavern Class Entertained hast ever heard at the entertainment ern Class, their families and invited noon: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Taylor, guests at their home Thursday even- Orris Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. P. Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Mead Ste-English or French; those being the twenty-five bucks or thou shalt have A tureen supper was served at phens anid Mrs. Bernice Losey of During these days of hazy gloom; official languages provided by state no protection against the big bad 7 o'clock which was followed by a Canisteo; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Taywolf when thou art old," threatened brief business meeting with the pres- lor of Webster; Mr. and Mrs. Lynn ident. Mrs. Percy Sampson, presid- Taylor 7.—"Buy this book, it tells how ing. Plans are being made for the North Tonawanda; the Misses Anreceive an annual salary of 15,000 to be happy the rich," pleaded a class to serve a chicken dinner at the nette, Ruth and Agnes Taylor I. O. O. F. Hall some time in March. Andover and Mr. and Mrs. Prentice > announcement of the birth of a son, William Orson Miller, to Mr. and little money was left News Advertisers are