Nancy caught his arm in both her

"We've got to have Dr. Morgan,

Henry, and you've got to get him!"

The boy stared at her helplessly.

OUR KEYNOTE:

"If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

Subscription Rates

The Upward Spiral

widely separated States from the Atlantic to the Pacific . ment emphasizes the steady upward swirl of the busi-tion where he might be of help to fellow men.

dale News-Press, "generally showed improvement in tion from all who knew him. 1934. This was a circumstance almost visibly evident while industrial employment was bettered by 12 per Court of Massachusetts. He was nominated Greensboro Record that the rapid recovery of banks in the Tar Heel State "constitutes one of the most cheering and amazing chapters in the story of the State's, economic and financial progress since the depression." since the banking holiday, the Record quotes the pre- 11 17,000 acres of land in the Ozark mountains will be almost at the high peak which was shown be intended to breed cattle as a pastime. fora 1929."

The Wichita (Kans.) Eagle takes the motor car as; reflected the state of the popular purse the Eagle be-linto iron and steel. lieves that the current increased output of cars is indicative of growing public confidence in the upward trend of the times. "The new cars everywhere sight," says the Eagle, "mirror something stronger than first thought to be of little value and supposedly wise) a mere hope of better days to come "

"Every day now makes sadder the prophets of gloom," declares the Journal, Hamilton, Ohio, adding: "There is little doubt remaining that business is moving upward and forward. The first 342 industrial corpora tions to report for 1934 show an increase in earnings of 29 per cent. Busy retail business and auto production surpassing all expectations, testify to consistent)

On the outlook for hopeful signs the Kalamazoo (Mich.) Gazette finds encouragement in the report of the United States Chamber of Commerce that the total manufacturing payroll in this country is now larger by TTOULD you like to have your boy turn out to be a some 1,300,000 workers than it was two years ago and W real one hundred per cent man physically as well concludes: "For some reason or other—Government, as mentally? private, or a combination of both—production seems to be clearly gaining. That alone should be recognized and keep him there until he breaks away of his own forestall certain adverse cooking as a highly encouraging symptom." As indicated above, the country as a whole is unquestionably on the upgrade, and better times are sure smell, but they do not develop the muscle or add to ficulty is with the variety. Potatoes to come, maybe not by July 1st as former Vice Presi-ithe breadth of mind. dent Dawes predicts, but nevertheless coming.

er or not anything ever comes from "Joe's" suggested jump and wrestle and leap fences. course, it is a good idea, and ideas are what Andover! needs right now. If you have one up your sleeve that orous, and not of the pink tea variety. you think has merit, let's have it. The more Andover them will bear fruit.

Conviction and Punishment

TITHILE punishment ought always to be severe enough to be fully proportioned to the offense, it is quite THE children's bureau of the department of commerce as important—perhaps more so—that it be promptly! I finds, as a result of a survey taken, that of all vocaimposed, and suffered. There should be no chance of tions and avocations in which young boys are engaged evading it, or of postponing the penalty for any length for their economical benefit, carrying newspapers and of time. The shorter the interval between conviction magazines is the least dangerous from a moral standand the serving of the sentence, the better. Often point and among the most profitable in all other ways. there is long delay in taking and perfecting an appeal In eight large cities in which the survey was conducted —there have been cases in which the appeal never was it was found that the newsboy fares best. perfected, in which there was no purpose to perfect it.

During all this time the convicted man is free. appeals, during which time the convicted man is at prohibited. But the bureau approves of the employlarge. Years may intervene between the conviction ment of boys in the delivering and selling of newsand sentence, and the carrying of the sentence into papers. effect. If the case is reversed and a new trial ordered. Contrary to the opinion of some well-meaning perwitnesses may have disappeared or died, the result being sons, the government experts found that carrying administered. Here is one of the greatest weaknesses courts. In their school work carriers make better than of our system as it is now worked. It is not surprising average progress. that criminals should feel-and bank on the feeling- The average newsboy, the survey reveals, tackles that there is at least a chance that they may never have the job because it appeals to him and because it pays to serve their sentence. In a word, the law has lost him well. He is a hustler who works because he likes something of its deterring power. Men who have no it and who, in working, generally keeps out of mischief. fear of God before their eyes ought surely to have a His work, while light, fits him for a better career after wholesome fear of the law.

Courts and lawyers could do much to eliminate earned their first dollar selling newspapers. this weakness, a weakness which is an actual menace On the face of the record it seems a boy is safer

Oliver Wendell Holmes

11 liant men in the death of Oliver Wendell Holmes. The great jurist established the most outstanding record will go down in history as a model of unselfish devotion New York State colleges of agriculprinciple and purpose.

In the decisions in which he participated as a jurist, he query from the colleges. Do not I have sent some bulletins that deal If they start out and follow him invariably based his logic on the spirit of the law inask more than one question in one with feeding and feeding rations,

On some cold wintry day, stead of technicalities and strict meaning of the word. letter or on one post card. Ask as and also a list of mixtures suitable And if they do not change their mind. He continually advanced human rights which won him many questions as you like, but to use with different qualities of hay. I'll eat a bale of hay.

this reputation as a pioneer liberalist. His opinions were always terse and to the point cation. and admired by other members of the court even tho a fish chowder that will make a hominy or corn, 400 pounds of oats, And the snow gets mighty deen they disagreed with him in principal.

The admirable court career of Justice Holmes was the week?" editorials gleaned from newspapers published in not the only reason why he was so greatly liked and revered. He was, first of all, a great humanist. coasts and including such inland commonwealths as gardless of his exalted position, he was always ap- The fish may be fresh or canned, feeds. If you cannot get a 28 per Perhaps he has a string of wells Kansas, Michigan and Ohio. In all of these states com- proachable on matters of law and in any other situa-| ready wit was legend with his friends and his gracious, "Business in Southern California," says the Glen-and kindly manner was a source of unlimited admira-

He was just finishing his course of higher educato observers in both large and small cities." This pa-tion at Harvard when the Civil War began. He enlistper goes on to say that the most decided advance was ed at once and participated in some of the fiercest batin the agricultural area where bank debits reflected the tles of the war. He was wounded three times. After increased amount received for crops and expended by the war, he completed his course and began his career the growers. Automobile sales went up 14 per cent as a lawyer. In 1882 he was appointed to the Supreme United States Supreme Court in 1902 by President carrots, in the water for about 15 From North Carolina comes assurance thru the Roosevelt and served until his resignation in 1932.

Mines of Information

Pointing out that improvement has come a long way NOT a great many years ago a wealthy man hought smooth and blended, and then stirl diction of the State bank commissioner that "by the der to have a quiet place to retire upon leaving the and vegetables. Stir it all and let ATLANTIC, for seventy-five end of this year the resources of North Carolina banks active life of the city. He bought the land cheap and it cook slowly for another ten min-

In making a survey of the property, engineers discovered vast deposits of iron ore. Now the property the first barometer to record permanently clearing is more valuable than a gold mine, and twelve million cobbler, and you will have a hearty skies. Declaring that automobile output thru 1921-29 dollars was invested in a plant for converting the are well balanced meal.

Advertising is a vast mine of information that should be consulted by every buyer before making in purchase. Like the Ozark mountain land, it was at . business men looked upon advertising as valueless. But advertising has won its spurs long ago. No successful business enterprise can get on without it and no thrifty person can buy to best advantage with out using advertising as a ready reference. Following the guilance of advertisements is sure at the beginning of the season. The lead to "pay dist.". They are inexhaustible mines 1934 grop, in addition, seems to be l that give you not a of the latest and best things made, more hollow in the center than with a mord as to what they cost and what they will do

Making Young Men

Then don't shut him up in a hot house of roses very little information on how to Roses are a delight to the eye and the sense of

Get a ball and bat, a pair of boxing gloves and a are less likely to slough and to turn Locally we are in accord with last week's "Joe" in punching bag. Give him a couple of Indian clubs and black after they are cooked than that it is time something was done in Andover. Wheth- teach him to swing them. Encourage him to run and those produced under favorable soil

Teach him to fear God, to be loving, respectful largely to ways to cook and to store is agitated, the greater the possibilities that some of and obedient to his parents and mindful of the rights potatoes, and the effect of using of other people, and you will develop an adult who will different amounts of potash. These be "some man."

The Newsboy's Job

Conditions surrounding such trades as bootblacking, peddling and junk collecting by children were such! Again there is sometimes long delay in deciding as to cause the bureau to declare that they should be to make another conviction extremely difficult, if not newspapers builds character. Among the newsboys was found a low percentage of truancy and juvenile delin-At any rate justice is not speedily and promptly quency. Newsboys are seldom found in the juvenile he completes his education. Many successful men have to the peace, order and safety of society. The system carrying newspapers than idling away his after-school . But those who operate it cannot hours and his summer vacation. Many parents long lago made this discovery.

WHY

The Andover News has arranged that with the office of information of the > Clam or Fish Chowder S. Y. N., asks: "Can you suggest wheat as follows: 200 pounds of His path is always drifted full

Re-one that will be liked by anyone who on the market may be used to raise and either of fish that swim, or c 2 cups of diced potatoes 1 cup of chopped carrots hay and silage."

MONTHLY

the wisdom, the companionship

years, America's most quoted

Send $1. (mentioning this ad)

The Atlantic Monthly,

8 Arlington St., Boston

14 pound of salt pork 2 tablespoons of flour

(until it is crisp, and remove the crisp) from the fat in which ▲ NAKE the most of your readchopped onion is browned; add to [ing hours. Enjoy the wit this the flour, until the mixture is I the charm that have made the utes and serve it over crackers or and most cherished magazine.

lings, brown betty, or canned peach

Black Potatoes Lockwood, writes rotatoes I have grown during the past two years have a tendency to cook to pieces when they are beiled; waterless cooking partly checks this

"Also, the potatoes turn black! shortly after they are cocked, not only as they become older but also usual. I have been told the variety

"The potatoes are white-skinned and mealy and have an excellent flavor. Will any known treatment prevent this discoloration?" Professor E. V. Hardenburg of' the department of vegetable crops replies: "Unfortunately, we have qualities in potatoes. "We do not believe that the difproperly matured in good potato soil conditions but harvested when im mature. These difficulties, also, vary Let his hours of recreation be healthful and vig with the season. "Our studies have been confined!

Guernsey Rations

"Along with timothy, mixed hay, His wells are scattered on the hills and silage, a good simple mixture Where the ground is rough and may be made using oats and buck-satisfactory dinner for one day in 400 of buckwheat, and 1,000 pounds No matter what the weather is of 28 per cent ready-mixed feed. The answer: "Yes, indeed, and "High-protein ready-mixed feeds And hear the bark of his engine grains instead. This goes well with He starts his engine—hooks them or . Things seem to be O. K., But suddenly a pull line breaks And there's the deuce to pay He thinks that it demands: He has frozen both his hands.

A lead line next he finds froze up. . And nothing going thru-He builds a fire, thaws it out, Which takes an hour or two. And so it goes day after day. And I do not care a rap What some folks say to the contrary Winter pumping is no snap.

And when at last he passes on From over-work and care, .. Pete will meet him at the hear Of the long and Golden Stair And I suppose you want to go Where you'll never see a well Step right this way, my pro-

The place for you is H

The inn dining-room was long and the child and the woman's sob of tor?"

married woman, angul driven them in, too. He's been She moved swiftly across the room when he was a-dyin'."

Helena's husband, sees the down to his racing stables. I reckon the ceremony, Nancy returns to her fools I wonder there's Page, who diges her to divorce her husband. Mr. Gordon, to release his husband. Mr. Gordon, to release his husband daughter from what he considers her daughter from what he considers her have a low release his husband. When the considers her was at the threshold. "I was a supposed by the house of the ho parents' home, and continues to see Their alcourage to gether."

of the marriage, and tries to make Page?" "I know what to do. Trust me, You must rest."

cy's home and makes love to her. Nancy, let me—set you free!" "You can be—you shall be!" he said in a choked voice. "Nancy, 1, Now go on with the story. ladore you-I won't give you up,) I swear it, he shan't have you." won't let me get it." she said faint-t "he won't give me up." et of a clear sky, the bolt fell. "You can make him give you up."

will she had married him se-1 and the refused to confess sion. She shivered, shaking her head. "I can't see how--he's libe granite.] He walked the floor at night, a. I can't make him vield Estitue deep into the palme of Out of these vigils

. he emerged haggard but de-The girl lifted her head and look i He would take her away from "Come to me." said Page thickly, , now by main force. passionately, "I leve you you love] read Hate contended for his Come to me. Mancy, we can go) away from it all tograther. Helli

Tarry ther hate. She stored at him innocently be To from 'ter fother's denunciations. distribility from her mother's re-"What do you mean Page?" He bent nearer, his face flushed, meachint even un heered even . eves glowing, b and determined and unscrupul-us, wincing she went out again, and she was sure, of her now.

met Page. She was always lying in "Come to me, I said," he panted. vait for her in his hours of leisure. "Come now-today-let us go away Not even Angie Fuller, who had together. The world's a big place. taken a sudden unaccountable dis- He can't follow us. We love each could prevent those en-lother. We have a right to our love One day, when the two | he has robbed us. It's like lifewere down in the river mead-love is life-we'll be together-and w. Page had joined them. The two Morgan','--he laughed wildly--"Morwere so intent on each other that gan will get a divorce then!" the girl left them, a little hurt and Nancy understood. With a gasp she wrenched her hand out of his |

shook her head and went into the even see that Helena Haddon had house, aware that her own heart was risen from her table and was coming sinking. She had no word of any toward them. She looked only at kind from Roddy. "Oh!" she gasped, "what have 1 Nancy and Page walked steadily out on the old river road. There was done—that you should think me like a pungent fragrance in the very air. this?" Nancy drew a long breath. "How | He rose too, staggered by her | peaceful it is out here! What a look. "Nancy, I swear I adore you beautiful world, Page!" not answer. Hate, that "Hush!" she cried fiercely, "hush; was working in his heart against |-- never say such things to me again. Richard, was suddenly swept aside I-" she clung to the back of her by love. She looked so beautiful to- chair. Then she turned, put out her hand gropingly, and went toward They had walked a long way now the long window where the rain was and suddenly she realized it. She heating in. Page sprang after her, but she "Where are we going, Page?" "We're going to the end of the don't speak to me," she gasped. "Go and talk to that woman, Mrs. Had-She laughed faintly, startled look- don, ing at him now, her eyes wide with her away. I must be alone a min-I—I don't want even to look, Aghast, Page stood still. He was I aware, too, that Helena was coming her-he had to cover Nancy's reme, or will you turn back to him?" woman think?

She stood still, and, instead of Nancy stood only a moment on olushing, she turned white and her the piazza, then she slipped the bolt on an unused window-door in the 't talk of it now-I was happy dropped softly to the ground below. Let me be happy for a little. The rush of the rain was welcome. the contamination of Page's thought, They walked on silently. Nancy of her. She did not care where she trying not to think. She drew went. She turned, and was swept of the fresh sweet wind along the new road beyond the inn, had risen suddenly. As sud-farther and farther from town.

' the sun had gone out and a did not matter. purple-black cloud was rolling up on . Her clothing was so drenched that It had an effect at once glor- it weighted her down, and the rain lous and terrifying, for it was torn continued in torrents. With jagged flashes of lightning and At last her mental anguish began

ANDOVER NEWS, ANDOVER, N. Y., FRIDAY, MAR. 22, 1935 was a glimpse of bare interior, a git well, sit up, honey, yo' ain't real on the child's pillow. "Tony, I'm going to get you a doc-shaking hands and poured out her spark of fire dying in the old stove, sick now-yo' ma's prayin'---prayin' tor," she said, lifting his little hand story.

white Richard-she must get Richard. At walk noways-it's awful muddythe cup very gateway of life. Sudden, and Nancy shook him. "Henry, you've It was only water and without thought of her self she knew got to go. You'll save a life, won't

"He can't swal-ard. She knew where she was now, d. She began to heed the wail of low!" she cried. "Where's the doc- almost five miles out of town. Thru with zeal, "we need a racer. Pole-The woman was crying softly, could see the fields opposite, the you ride him?"

Nancy Gordon trades nersell in of small tables. As yet there were but few summer visitors. Only a nothing to make the contract to make barren, with here and there a group Please th' Lord, zin't I hed nuff? drawing her sleeve across her eyes. shoulder of a hill, and some low Henry's gfin widened estatically.

Of small tables As yet there were Please th' Lord, zin't I hed nuff? drawing her sleeve across her eyes. shoulder of a hill, and some low Henry's gfin widened estatically. for fifteen thousand donars—to save few people were in the room, driven sobbing aloud, and evidently turned all—yo-all gits doctors easy, but I Haddon's farm. It was a long way to the barns,

"You'll take something, Nancy, back to the child. "Thar, thar, hon- and got no money." Nancy straightened up but there must be some one there. —I reckon de boss 'd skin me alive, ey, yo' drink et, yo' ain't goin' ter "Money?" Nancy straightened up but there must be some one there. —I reckon de boss 'd skin me alive, Page Roemer, and Richard is loved —there's Haddon over there. His wife, too. The storm must have have Nancy's mind came hack sharply "I sharply Nancy's mind came back sharply, uster come, he took care of my man down. She was almost half way life, Henry. You know Dr. Richard there when a figure came out of the Morgan? He must come if you can young Helena's husband, sees the laddon, Helena's husband, sees the laddon husband, sees th

Their alcove isolated them. Page and the woman had set a candle in have a doctor—" Dying. Yes. Death Thru the storm she heard a rich skeered ob noffin, he'll come but It was Henry, old Johnny Floyd's Nancy!" cot in the corner. The flare of it to have a doctor," she said sharply. ith him some with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He bad did not and the bad did not are the bin some with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He bad did not are the bin some with a coal. Nancy knew him well. He bad did not are the bin some with a coal. Nancy knew him well. He bad did not are the bin some with a coal. Nancy knew him well. He bad did not are the bad did no to his friend, Major Lomax, who with him now—right off—before it rents it to the original owner. Helicited is too late."

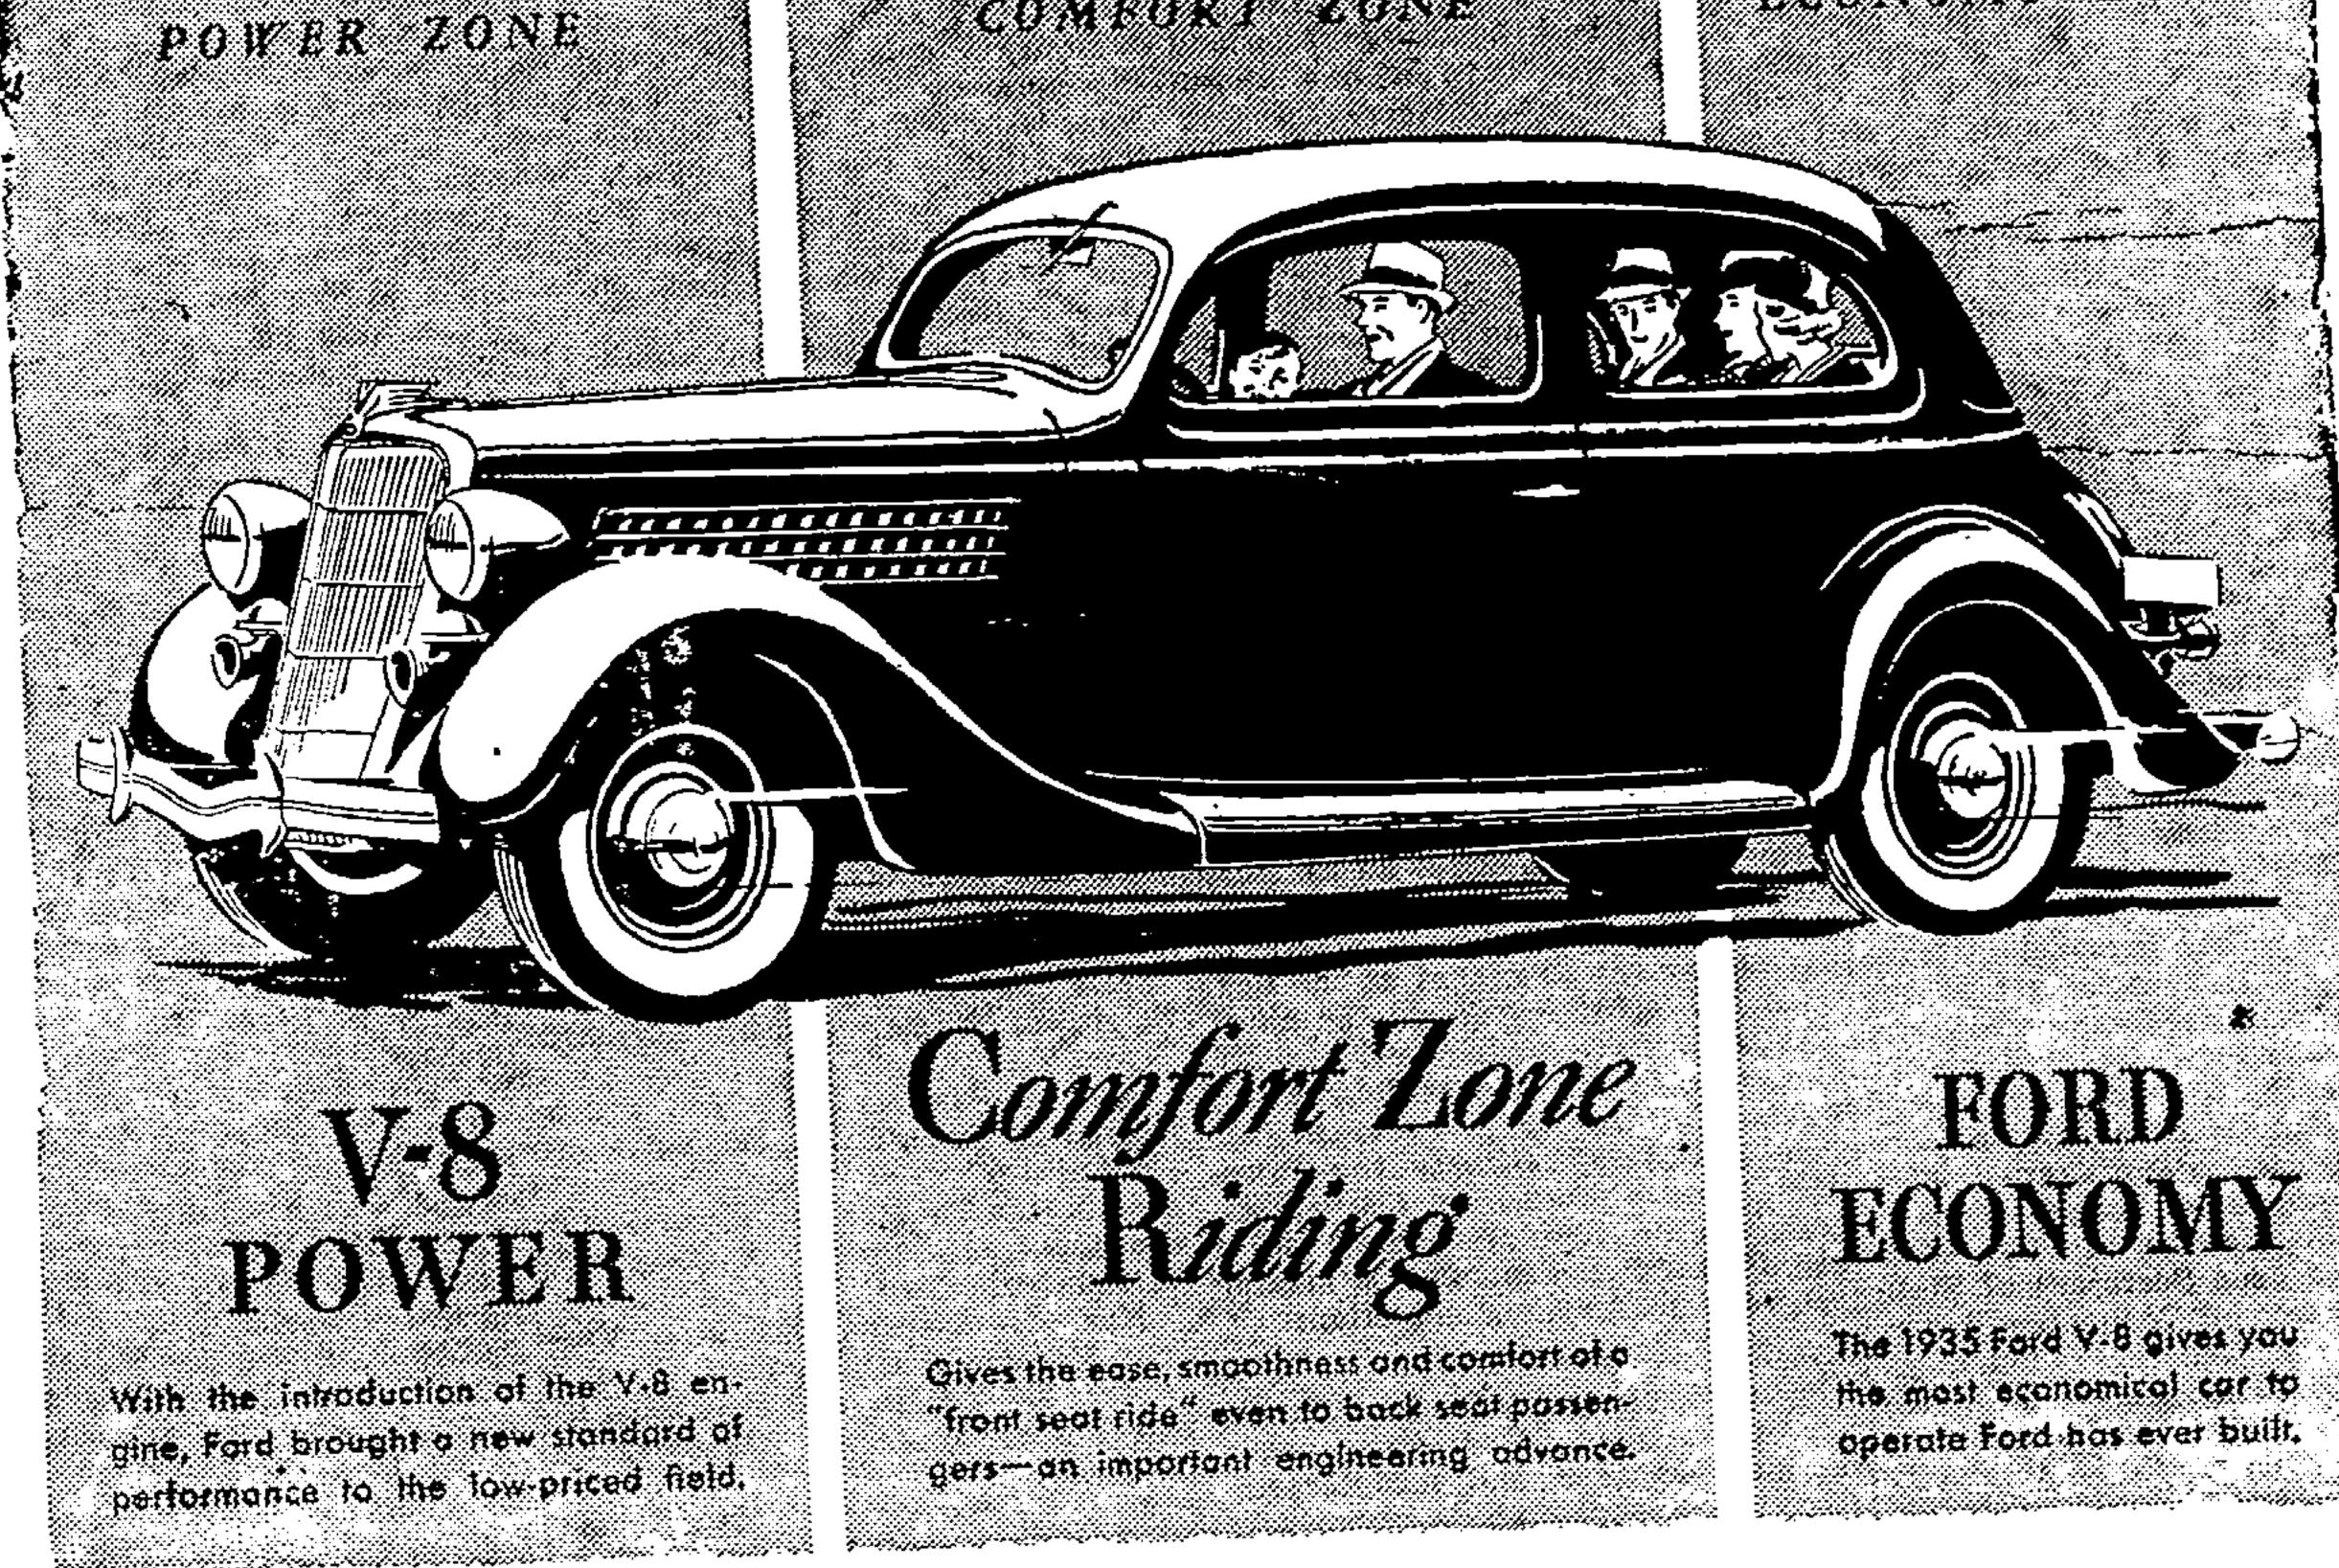

The woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman, on ner the woman, on ner the woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood, numbed with as coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood with the tively. "Give me that key!" she woman stood with the coal was coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she will be the coal was coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she will be the coal was coal. Nancy knew him well. He tively. "Give me that key!" she will be the coal was coal. Nancy knew him w

"Too late? What do you mean, she said softly, "you're tired out— me—I ain't got no one—Tony, hon-The mother's head sagged for- honey, honey!" her voice rose in a Then he looked up, saw her, drench-"He won't, I'll make it right with "Free?" she sighed. "Oh, Page, ward. "Tired? Me? I ain't slep' crescendo of terror, she fell on her ed. clinging to a fence. Vancy is frantic—sne loves rage out refuses to go back on her bargain to be!"

| Vancy is frantic—sne loves rage out refuses to go back on her bargain to be!"

| Vancy is frantic—sne loves rage out refuses to go back on her bargain to be!"

| Vancy is frantic—sne loves rage out refuses to go back on her bargain to be!" (Please Turn to Page Seven) ECONOMY ZONE

Www take less:

CORD has always aimed to make the automobile-buy- Consider safety: There's safety glass all around—on all I ing dollar go as far as possible.

and, in addition, riding comfort, body roominess, new center of gravity that gives increased safety and stabeauty and new safety features that will satisfy the require- bility on curves! ments of almost everyone.

Consider some of the major improvements in the Ford V-8 for 1935. Take Comfort: From this standpoint alone, realize that it is truly a new automobile value. Riding that gives "front seat comfort" even to rear seat passengers. Deep cushioned, high-backed, wider seats.
Big, air-balloon tires. Easier steering and a newly-dered clutch that responds to the touch of your foot. signed clutch that responds to the touch of your foot.

AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT. Standard accessory group including bumpers and spare tire extra. Easy terms through Universal models-at no additional cost. A new, welded all-steel This year, the 1935 Ford V-8 gives you traditional body. New, more powerful brakes, with an unusually Ford low prices, traditional Ford operating economy— high ratio of braking surface to car weight. And a lower Why be satisfied to receive less than this for your money?

Examine this new 1935 Ford V-8. Ride in it. You'll on the Air — ford symphony orchestra, Sunday Evenings — fred Waring, Thursday Evenings — columbia network

The New 1935 FORD V-8's Are Now on Display at THE CORNER GARAGE. GUY S. WOOD, Local Ford Dealer