What would you do in case of a war? Would you go? It has been shown recently thru the medium of "straw votes" that the majority of people would go to war only in case the United States was invaded by some other country.

THE SPOTLIGHT!

Well, here is your dear old friend again. What is it I hear about these famous Boswell sisters of the A. H. S.?

You would never guess whom I encountered on entering the high school Monday morning. Who did I see but Eloise Mings just returned to school after an illness.

What's this I hear about your Sophomore blonde coming down in church? It's bad when you go to church to get them.

The Spotlight hasn't seen that famous gray car parked on Main street. What's wrong with it girls? Our Independence girls are going to be great artists or wonder workers somebody. I say, practice well now so you will have a good start.

Doesn't John C. ever get tired of writing notes in the fourth period study hall? I wonder if Phil L. will ever be able to recognize his own voice?

Our mistake last week—there are only two engagement rings in the Senior Class. Who were you out with last Sunday night, Milton? It wasn't Virgie was it? I heard you had a nice time anyhow.

I hear Eddie K. is broken hearted since Ben K. has the measles. Poor Eddie!

What's this I hear about Florence P. going to Spruce Pines in North Carolina? Foo! Don, he will miss you, Florence, don't you think it's quite a distance from here?

With my spotlight "spotting" on three of our gallant young men, ladies—I see they had with them three gallant well-dressed young girls.

My, don't tell me that Ned is losing out with our "W. H. G. F. M." Watch out Rita (11) she has an awful temper.

Tell me, who was F. Parker out with Tuesday night? Was it late or early when you got home?

Enola West had a spell for traveling last Saturday, so, with a girl friend, it didn't take long to go to Wellsville and Hornell. But how did you get there, Enola?

It's a good thing Harry wasn't in town Saturday night, isn't it, Dot? What's this I hear about Bruce not being anxious to be in the opera?

Now that everyone has the skating fever there will be much skating nights. I already got the low-down on several of our Freshmen last Saturday night. Nice going, you Freshmen.

Oh, yes, Mary McAndrew makes quite a basketball "hero" for the Seniors doesn't she? Just ask Mary Graeman!

HUMOR

Red McAndrew: "Why do you use such a long cigar holder?" Phil Lynch: "Because the doctor told me to keep away from tobacco."

Bea Kruger: "When I was going home thru a dark street I saw a man setting fire to his property." C. Cook: "Mercy, did you call the police?"

B. Kruger: "Certainly not. It's no crime for a man to light his cigar."

Don Joyce: "When I acted in England they presented me with a house." E. Cable: "You don't say." Don J.: "Oh, yes; a brick at a time."

Joe McAndrew (engaging a room) "Why, at the place I boarded the landlady cried when I left." Landlady: "Did she? Well, I don't intend to do any crying when you leave, so I want my board in advance."

K. Vars: "I put my dad in a funny position today." Victor Yannie: "How was that?" K. V.: "I got up and offered my place to a lady who was standing up in a bus."

V. Y.: "Well, what was funny about that?" K. V.: "I was sitting in my dad's lap."
