IUST as the railroads turned to the new stream lined, high speed trains to afford travelers the utmost in service so must a bank recognize its responsibility to its depositors and patrons by making available a financial service which meets all of the requirements of the day.

This institution offers its customers every phase of banking service that is consistent with sound business dealing. It solicits your patronage and invites you to avail yourself of a modern banking service which includes deposits, saving accounts, checking accounts, safety deposits, industrial and commercial banking.

Life has crowded many blessin's Into years that we have known Since the day my boyhood sweetheart

Said she'd be my very own! Yes, we've had a heap o' sunshine, Seasoned just a bit with tears— But the best of all our blessin's Were those swiftly passin' years When our children still were with us An' the house was filled with noise— Ringin' with the jokes an' laughter Of those happy girls an' boys.

Days like that are swift in goin'; Soon our children went away, Leavin' home an' hearts more lonely Than the lips can ever say. But we get a lot o' comfort From the feelin' that they know, Out there in the world o' business Where they're givin' blow for blow, That we're workin' and we're savin' So, whatever may befall.

This old home is still their refuge An' we'll hear 'em when they call!
