MUDDY LAWNS

These spring days of April bring showers that produce much mud and the mud makes the ground soft. The green grass starts to spring up and makes our environment look natural again.

"How nice that lawn looks. Isn't the grass nice?" Many people have made this remark. Perhaps you have thought of it yourself and wondered why all lawns couldn't look nice.

Many lawns are spoiled and trampled in the spring by school children seeking a shortcut to school. Perhaps this is a shorter and quicker way, but it is also very harmful to the new grass and the soft ground.

How much easier it is to walk on a sidewalk other than a muddy path. Do you realize we have one of these paths on our own school ground?

Perhaps we have not thought of this, but wouldn't our school like to have a nice lawn too?

Let us stay on the sidewalk and make the path disappear.

ATTENDANCE CONTEST WINNERS ANNOUNCED

The attendance contest for March ended with the sixth grade winning the banner for the first six grades by the attendance quotient of 5.6. The Freshmen won the banner for the month of February kept up a good attendance and are proud to keep the banner in their room. The attendance quotient for the Freshmen room was 6.06.

The Freshmen wish to keep the banner in their room so they are working hard for a good attendance for April.

FRESHMEN SENIORS WIN BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

Friday, March 29, marked the final games of the interclass basketball tournament, which was won by the Freshmen boys and the Senior girls, each champion winning five games and losing none. The eighth grade boys' and girls' teams won second place. One hundred boys and girls took part in these games, some of which were hard-fought.

Several players were noticeable because of their high scoring. Among these were Mary Teresa Burns, Veronica O'Hagan, Alyse Pope, Clyde Briggs, George Joyce, Franklin Witter and James Cannon.

STUDENTS WITNESS "DAVID COPPERFIELD"

Many of the Andover pupils enjoyed a pleasant afternoon in Alfred Friday, March 29th. They were excused by their principal Mr. Bretsch, to attend the movie "David Copperfield." Some of the attendants will use their knowledge of the show for their next book report.

Everyone seemed to enjoy the movie, although many came home with tear-stained faces. The following pupils were excused:

All of these pupils wish to thank Mr. Bretsch and the drivers, Decatur Clark, Lawrence Padden, Chas. Lynch, Sr., and Mr. Ormsby for the opportunity to see this worthwhile picture.

AROUND A. H. S.

On Friday, April 5th, the first six grades will sponsor an entire musical assembly at 1:15 p. m. The program will be in charge of the music instructor, Miss Russ.

In the second grade, Row 2 won the Health Contest for March. The following second graders had the most 100 papers for March: Wilma Goodrich and Craig Snyder 28; Clara Hann and Richard Steadman, 24; Charles Jones, 23 and Mareta Perry 20.

The following Fourth Graders had above 90 per cent in arithmetic: June Glover, Doris Mead, Reta Nottingham, Harold Perry and Carl Wentworth. Marion Cronk, Francis Gavin, Barbara Jones, George Karcanes, Reta Nottingham and Eloise Wilson had 100 in spelling.

The Fifth Grade is having a geography contest. Wanda Dolan's kite is the highest. Her kite has flown 1,200 feet while Victor Oakes' kite has only flown 955 feet.

The following people had an average of 90 or above in geography last week: Marjorie Bergman, John Dean, Wanda Dolan, Audrey Glover, John Howland, Patricia Lynch, Jean Rogers, Stanley Ruger, Paul Ryan, Marion Steadman, Wendell Vars.

Last week the Eighth Grade made some very interesting travel posters which are on the walls of their room for all to see.

The Commercial Arithmetic and the Geography classes have each been divided into two sides. Each side is marked on the number of mistakes made at recitation in class. Cleon Jase's side is ahead in commercial arithmetic and Jean Millough's side is ahead in geography.

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS

The baseball season is on its way with balls, gloves and bats being dug out. The first practice saw 25 boys on the field. Some of these were boys who had some experience last year. These were C. Pease, E. Alderson, H. McAndrew, D. Clarke, R. Appier, B. McGill, D. Joyce, L. Fulkerson and E. Kemp. Among the new candidates are L. Regan, F. Witter, R. Briggs, M. Sweet and D. Lynch.

These boys last mentioned are expected to develop and play good ball. Practice will be held after school nights that are dry and reasonably warm.

SCOUTS DEFEAT LEGION

The Andover Boy Scouts won an easy victory over the local American Legion in basketball Thursday night by a margin of 19 points.

The Scouts started the scoring with a field goal. The reason for the easy victory was the Legionnaires' lack of practice and the weight of their years. The townspeople missed a good show by their lack of interest.

The clownish attempts of each team to get possession of the ball gave many good laughs. The teams were unevenly matched in size and system. The smaller Scouts dodged in and out around the big Legionnaires and gave them a run for their money. The game ended with a score of 10-29 in favor of the Boy Scouts.

REPRESENTATIVE OF MECHANICS INSTITUTE VISITS SCHOOL

Mr. Swain, a representative of Rochester Mechanics Institute, gave a short talk to the Seniors of Andover High School Friday morning.

He listed briefly the courses that are taught at this school and the occupation for which they especially fitted a person.

Those interested in any of these courses were invited to come into the office, where Mr. Swain went into further detail about Rochester Mechanics Institute and answered any question asked in regard to that school. Four Seniors accepted this invitation.

THE SPOTLIGHT ! !

Well, here is your old friend the Spotlight revealing all secrets—have my eyes all ready to be focused on the basketball party.

I hear some of our big basketball heroes intend to be at the party with a few of their friends from Wellsville. Boys, you better beware of Wellsville girls.

Alyse must be letting down her friend in Alfred, as I hear she is taking Jack R. to the basketball party. Seventh heaven, isn't it Jackie?

I see Rita Dean and Howard Mc. are on the outs. Too bad, Rita, he just made a little mistake.

Ken. V. has at last found himself a girl so West will no longer have to refuse dates. You want to watch out for the eighth graders, Westie!

What's this I hear about Rita B. Friday night? Does the coupe ride smoothly, Rita?

Well I heard Ethel W. had a date Sunday night with one of the Hornell boys. When is he coming up again, Ethel?

What has happened between Anna and Mary? They aren't such close friends nowadays. Seems as if one Dean prefers another.

I want to warn you that anything that happens Friday will be seen and heard by your old friend.

—THE SPOTLIGHT.

BASKETBALL PARTY TO BE HELD

A basketball party will be held this Friday evening, April 5th, in the high school auditorium. This party is being held in honor of the basketball players.

An orchestra is being provided for dancing and other entertainment includes card playing and games.

Lunch will be served the latter part of the program. Each member of the boys' and girls' basketball squad is privileged to attend and bring a guest.

GUESS WHO?

This person I am about to describe is in the Freshman home-room. She is liked by the students of Andover High. She is a blonde and of medium height. She is usually seen with one or more friends.

Come, now and put on your thinking cap, you can guess by this person is.

Answer next week.

Answer to last week Dorothy Nobles.

ANDOVER PUPILS TO COMPETE

Two members of the eighth grade, Dorothy Fosner and Gerald Dolan will represent Andover High School in the Buffalo Evening News spelling bee to be held in Friendship on April 5th at 7:30 p. m.

Dorothy and Gerald won the high honors after competing in spelling contests held in the seventh and eighth grades.

The school joins in wishing the two members success in the contest.

HUMOR

Mr. McGee: "Use the word commercial in a sentence."
James Cannon: "When I call my dog she'll either com-mer-cial stay, according to how she feels."

Mary G.: "So he tried to win you by an invitation to ride in that old flivver of his?"
Helen D.: "Yes, but I refused to be shaken."

Don L.: "Did I tell you about the awful fright I had at the party last night?"
Red M.: "Careful, old man. No man has the right to talk about his girl like that."

Charles B.: "Sir, I have courted your daughter for two years."
Mr. Karcanes: "Well, what do you want?"
Charles: "I want to marry her."
Mr. Karcanes: "Oh, is that all? I thought you wanted a pension or something."
Mr. Geer: "Want a job, eh? Ever tell lies?"
Don H.: "Why, er—I can learn, sir."

VARSIITY vs. ALL-STARS

Last Friday night the girls varsity team of next year played a picked team from the inter-class group, defeating the All-Stars with a score of 14 to 5. The varsity showed up very well in passwork, a promise of what next year's team will be.

Swartz was high scorer of the varsity with ten points and G. Dean of the All-Stars with five points. The line-up was as follows:
