ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

our most cherished possessions.

young but it has been accepted with such enthusiastic money that keeps factories going, provides jobs in our the person who paid them?" favor that it is now one of our important national cities, and maintains pay rolls. home and American ideals.

at the present time. We used to hear it said that this a share in the affairs of destiny as to be quite negli-

The fact is that our indebtedness to womankind is too large for measurement by any conventional yardstick or scales. We have but to remember that if woman had not consented to go down into the valley of a curicultance the shadow of death, if necessary, to produce offspring. there would have been no human history at all.

A man's attitude toward womanhood is revealed by his treatment of his mother. When he ceases to and he is a failure in his own eyes and the eyes of motter has shared with the American father the burl. den of maintaining the American home. Her burden, indeed, has often been greater than ! his. For if the American father has worked hard as all other mothers, here known the truth of the nor that fell us

"Men work from mem till set of sun. But women's work is never done." It is scarcely necessary to admonish any man or billions in monetary gold reserves, this would mean a woman or any child of the age of understanding to be silver stock of at least two and one-half billions, sure to make a special effort to honor Mother on Sun-more silver than there is known to be available in the day. May 12th-her day. She knows you love her but world. she will appreciate some special effort on your part, Day suffice for the entire year. It is merely a day for rapidly. And since nearly half of the people of the the redemption period has expired, national recognition and not a day of atonement for world are on a silver currency basis, the effect of the the purchaser of the tax sale certifineglect during the other 364 days of the year. Make rise, already noticeable, is to increase their purchasing cate is entitled to record a tax deed your mother glad that she has you every day of the power in trade with the gold-standard and managed- of the property. Tax deeds, howyear.

Ignorance of the law is no excuse, the courts rule. the rest of the world. Of course, anyone should be able to remember the two million or more laws which we are supposed to obey. perts say, has been the competition of low-currency a person entitled to a tax deed may

Kipling

Kipling's poems and stories. It is, therefore, of espe-way to regain our foreign markets. cial interest in this country to note that among the "honors" which King George will confer on his loyal and distinguished subjects on the occasion of the 25th often times it is the druggist who knows the deep anniversary of his coronation, it is expected in England secret. that he will confer a knighthood, if not a higher honor upon the great poet of the British Empire.

Kipling has been called the "forgotten man" of English letters. In spite of his literary stature, head THE earth looks flat enough. That's why so many and shoulders above all his contemporaries, others have thousand years passed before our ancestors even been honored while he has been passed by. Twice has suspected that the globe was round. Their eyes dethe coveted post of Poet Laureat been given to vastly ceived them. inferior poets, altho no one so well as Kipling has ex- All of which proves that appearances are some-

If there is another amateur elocutionist who has unworthy goods cannot succeed. not recited Kipling's "If," he would be hard to find. Wise merchants and manufacturers seek the good "The Road to Mandalay" sung by dozens of ambitious merchandise thru the columns of the best papers. delighted two generations of children, and the charac- ronage. Therefore, it is to their advantage to cater to ters in his stories of India are household words.

Most Americans have forgotten that Kipling marcitizen. His first child was born there; but an unfor- will pay you. tunate family quarrel precipitated by his wife's brother over a piece of property so disgusted Kipling that he went back to England to live, after four years here. disappears, could probably tell us where the other half We don't suppose King George will paw much attention to our recommendations, but we hope that he does do something to show appreciation of this great poet in his old age.

A noted medical authority says that kissing aids diphtheria, all of which leads us to believe that diph theria has an advantage that will be hard to overcome.

Very few of the world's great problems are solved by the men who remember their algebra.

When writing a letter in hopes that there will be no reply, just give it to your husband to mail,

A Fair Break for All

THRUOUT the country, groups of consumers are ris-' ing in protest against high prices, notably those charged for milk, meat and other agricultural products.

MAY 10, 1935. prices. Giving the farmer fair prices doesn't mean will receive a direct reply to your the that the consumer is going to be stung. In the case of ouery from the colleges. Do not ask made this same appeal, and explain-demic year of 1935-36 most commodities, the final selling price is many times more than one question in one letted to applicants that their help and to professor in extension the price paid at the farm. The rest of the cost repreter or on one postcard. Ask as co-operation is indispensable to my to professor in extension and the price paid at the farm. sents profits and charges occurring along the distribu- many questions as you like but constant effort to eliminate any such He also continues as state leaded

Many authorities believe that distributors and cation. other middlemen get too much of the selling cost products-while the farmer gets too little. The purpose of the co-ops is to equalize this—to see that every- "Could anyone buy a small place by, S WE come again to the observance of Mother's one gets a fair deal and that none make an excessive paying the taxes if the county had R. "|ey-and the consumer will get stable, quality products |... r most cherished possessions.

The custom of setting aside a special day—the est of the entire nation which in normal times. is be obtained? To whom would the as strictly confidential and the au- sisaant professor in poultry: The custom or setting aside a special day—the est of the entire nation, which in normal times, is taxes be paid? After the taxes have thor thereof fully protected. second Sunday in may which take on may 12th this largely dependent on farm purchasing power for the been paid, does the place belong to "There is absolutely no need for structor in home year—to honor mothers nationally, is comparatively maner that been factories raises as a sunday in maner that been factories raises as paid, there is absolutely no need for structor in home of the been paid, does the place belong to "There is absolutely no need for structor in home of the been paid, does the place belong to the place belo

The Andover News has never endeavored to furth-the department of agricultural eco-lin the State of New York. All ap- home economics to assistant neck tions that the break between consumer prices and pro-sale for properties on which county Every applicant who will personally liam I. Myers, leave extended when womanhood did not have such a high estate as ducer prices on products produced right under our).

ably with the milk bills payed by the consumers and held. mps and pens of persons who were not overwise, the feed growers' bank accounts. The same can be said cause of unpaid taxes may be bought licenses expires May 31st. Better gans, leave granted for the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the first section would have been that woman had had so slight to the in regard to most any producer-consumer situation-by an individual; if not, it is bid in get your renewal early to avoid the mester of the academic year 1935. All hail to the colops if they have the colution of the by the county. The amount to be last minute confusion.

reverence his mother, he loses all his inspiration in life, as WE understand the silver question -which may be d claiming a great deal, since nobody seems to under stand it very well there is a great deal more to the If within the period specified by law I There is not much danger of Americans ever he effort to put the price of the white metal up to $1.29 the owner redeems the property, the their history. They are aware that from the time of us it seems like a move, and a very important one, in certificate, plus interest. A period the earlies! American settlements, thru all the stress the effort to bring about an equalization of world cur of one year follows the tax sale in and storm down to the present how, the American rency values; and that, we are told by all the econo which the owner may redeem the min's, is something that must occur before internation al trade can be restored to anything like its old basis. The filver nurchase act under which the Treasury i - lately twic beested the price it will may for silver. 1757 cents an sunce at last reports, requires this for redemption. After this adverlovernment to buy enough cilver to bring the metall'a tising, more time is still available reserve behind our currency up to a point where it is for the owner to redeem his properlone ffuarter eilver and three quarters gold, figuring sil- ty. This period varies from about ver at $1.29 an ounce. As we have more than eight six months to two years or longer.

The natural result of this, and its purpose, is to immensely. But don't let your activity on Mother's raise the world price of silver, which is moving upward vertised for redemption, and after currency nations, and at the same time to take away gard because they are sometimes set the monetary advantage they have had in exports to aside by the courts several years af-

One of the reasons for the world depression, ex- article 7a of the tax law, however, nations in the world markets. Higher silver is expect- foreclose the tax lien and obtain a ed to stop that, or at least check unfair competition. Maybe this is all too complicated for us. but we THERE is hardly an American who has not, at some have to believe the experts who look forward to the from $200 to $300 and may sometime or other, come under the spell of Rudyard ultimate equalization of all currencies as the surest times cost considerably more.

A good looking girl may know she is pretty, but

Appearances May Deceive

pressed the very spirit of Britain in his verse. The reatimes misleading. Don't buy goods on the strength son for this neglect is believed to be that one of his of looks alone. Merchandise with a well-known name early poems, in which he referred to Queen Victoria as has the call. Only the maker of a good product can "The Widow of Windsor," gave offense to her majesty. afford to advertise his name. Attempts to popularize

The deep religious inspiration of his "Recessional" has papers to tell the stories of their wares. The publishmade it almost a standard part of the repertoire of most era seek the reputable advertising for their readers' church choirs. And nobody can have missed hearing guidance. Well-informed buyers seek news of good) baritones, over the radio or from the concert platform. This proves the value of advertising. Neither ad-Kipling's "Jungle Books" and "Just-So" stories have vertisers nor publishers can prosper without your pat-

you. They do it, too. It is distinctly to your advantage to be guided by ried an American wife in 1891 and built himself a the messages they lay before you—the advertisements.' house in Vermont, intending to become an American Read the advertisements in this paper regularly—it

> The scientist who said that nothing ever wholly of our salary has gone.

In Hawaii they put wreaths around the hero's neck and over here we save the wreaths for the tombstones.

With the detour season here, we will have to begin believing in signs, regardless of whether we want t When you swing a hoe, it is sweating—but when ou swing a gold club, it is generally perspiration. A modern food expert is one who can look at # calf and tell how many chicken sandwiches it will make.

Commissioner Harnett Asks Help of Motorists WHAT and WHY?

and town taxes remain unpaid. The report to me every violation or at- June 30, 1936, to enable him to conlist of delinquent taxes is published tempted violation of this nature will tinue his work with the Farm Cra | weekly for six weeks in two news-| perform a genuine public service." | rapers just before the tax sale is paid is the amount of the taxes, plus; tpenalties, advertising, and interest. In effect, a tax-lien rather than ownat the tax sale. However, unless the at the tax sale may ultimately ac. Bring your gas card to be Oct. 1, 1935; and L. H. Woodward, quire a tax deed to the property. Gets Certificate

"A person who buys property at la tax sale receives a tax sale certificate, indicating the amount At the end of the year, the coun-treasurer advertises the property to cate. Details of methods to be fol-Howed may be had from the county)

ter the recording of the deed. Under title as good as that obtained in any foreclosure proceedings. Such proceedings, however, are said to cost

STATE AGRICULTURAL COL. LEGE LISTS STAFF CHANGES

ing each individual case, Charles A plicant for a license who meets with Williamson from extension e suggestion or demand that money tor in farm management . Bureau of Motor Vehicles, should ry and assistant animal husbander where may a delinquent tax sale list All such information will be treated structor in poultry to extension

coming contaminated by a philosophy of pessimism, or an ounce, its old parity value with gold, than merely purchaser of the tax sale certificate and the continuation of the sale certificate and the continuation of the sale certificate and the sal

Enjoy address by Dr. Donald Wyman, Department of Ornamental Horticulture of Cornell University.

FUEL CO., Ltd.

"Proper Arrangement ତ୍ର Evergreens and Shrubs: A "Planting and After Core"

AT 3 P. M. lat our sales room

Dansville, N. Y.

North Main Street

thing that kept them manicured and slept. SYNOPSIS-Three weeks after an-

"I dunno exactly." Petry looked on rock. Going away from her!

Of a clini, a great the desert town chair opposite him, with luminous ing "Anne! Anne!" but she did not apprehension. "What's the matter?" ears. The click of a horse's hoofs happened, she didn't dare do as clear as a bugle call.

wondered what Barry

three turned to a steeper trail her alone, and there was a thrill in it.

that she and Parry had traveled on

For over an hour she rode slowly.

Thinking eyes as she climbed a heilder of red sandstone

The sun rays were slanting from

, telling herself that she wasn'

at a safer distance.

their first vide together.

a natural seat

meant to make the same circle nuane would say if he knew.

immediately submit a report of all in the experiment station Anne was restless. She was alone increasingly uneasy. "You see, house to the creek and she shouldn't go off for a ride and impetus of her own rush and the bye."

feurs' licenses are now being made to enable him to continue his work "Property advertised for sale be-by the various offices. Your present with the FCA; Professor R. G. Wie 36; F. M. Blodgett, second semester of the academic year 1935-36; Professor F. P. Bussell, second semes B. Morris, leave of six months leave of seven months beginning receipted. EMPIRE GAS & leave of seven menths

ANDOVER NEWS, ANDOVER, N. Y., FRIDAÝ, MAY 10, 1935

the same of a cliff, a girl calling herself Anne of a cliff, a girl calling herself town on the wind call-fragmentary love-making.

The same a moment the fading sunset and then she stirred restlessly, toss-by shouldn't she? One didn't gets anything she wants. Miss Anne of a little Cushing, this is Ling Foo, the best Riverside Club.

He saw a shadowy figure in the voice drifted down on the wind call-fragmentary love-making. at him. He was always thinking of distance came a faint crack of you right after breakfast. Now I at the compliment, said "How do" of the state-wide contest in dra-Anne. And he had known her only sound, and from somewhere nearer shall have to get back. I'll put Com-

Barry's chair went back with a There were, after all, to be more was off with Comet to the corral. "I'll be with you," he said poignant moments in Barry Duane's a new hriefly, and was close on Petry's life, but none that could so shrink They did not skirt the desert that Late in the morning they were nerfect." standing at the mouth of the pass, other girls did - well, to marry, for which he had whickered a shrill wel- ure, racing in headlong haste down They exchanged a quick glance. His heart seemed to stand still as Ton two sides by hills. "It looks like a little Junipero.

Seer heard of it."

"No. I baven't."

"I'll tell you after we get up the Perch There's nothing more to Tunusual for Bairy. They turned,

His voice rounded bard. That was

The jumped up suddenly and gave There were only a dozen horses in Captain's long legs pounded over the down there, you might find an occasional surveyor's stake, or even the boad out of the door and Il there is of the town of Dun.

She looked up at him with wide

Barry presently. His throat harsh and dry. "It couldn't have soon!" , see down there it's just as dead as) buck, sea'cly ever. See that?" He asleer, and I woke up and beard youl

"I know But you" He had both arms around her For a moment she les there. Barry was already in the corral. i. He was saddling Cantain, his firm in close and still. Then with a little quiver she raised her head, and her l working with swift precision hands slid away from their drown t Ling came pattering at the per | "I ought to be scolded instead of I the west. Little by little the warmth and light were fading from her face emptory call. She jumped up abruptly. "Light up every room in the house comforted." She straightened the lady at Trail's End is lost." and laughed shakily. "If you hadn't The illuminated house might be a "If I hadn't, life wouldn't mean answering whinny came to futile gesture but if she had stray- much to me now." r call. There was no sign of the ed anywhere near the Perch she might see that blaze of friendly dark eyes, heavy with fatigue, and Anne stood very still for a mo- light and take comfort.

her head moved in a faint negation. "Take a gun," he said to Petry. He felt her slipping away from him, A scurry of hoofs and he was off. thing They branched into different trails, "I'd better signal Petry that the swaying of bushes on a lower peering, shouting, calling her name. lost is found." Two shots cracked and echoed.

take her thru Pulpit ing back to Trail's End, and I am worse, he might easily pass her by. on first." She could have wept with vexa- but it was impossible to wait calmly

More slowly this time. Anne for the light. He bent down and swept her up) game, and Comet was feeling coltish thing in the world to him was Anne in front of him, swinging her across He let her come quite Cushing, and that the thought of so that she lay like a child in his hear and then wheeled and cantered harm coming to her was unbearable. arms. She looked up to protest, L He raised his voice in a call. already they had started. Once he "Anne! Anne!" She steer was no sign of the pinto. The echoes flung it back at him that she did not look up again. Bar-The stopped and called again. There mockingly. "Anne! Anne! Anne!" ry loved her, and she couldn't—she Hope had slipped from Anne with couldn't . . She lay passively against business, and she must get back she had walked and climbed and cheek pressing his shoulder and a the trail and make her long way stumbled since she had faced that dull ache in her heart. The next morning was an awakblank wall of rock she had no lening to strange aches and unsus-, And then night had come. Her pected bruises. Martha ordered her clothing was torn by thorny braches to stay in bed. land she fairly reeled with fatigue.

wall of cliff, and ahead the realization pressed home. There another chance?" both sides stretched an end- was no telephone at Trail's End. No teration of trees and under- car. Martha could do nothing, un and rocks in bewildering less she could catch and saddle one an imp, but I do love him." of the old horses and find her way was no trail. She was lost, to Eagle's Perch. ' A chill wind set the tree tops! y lounged comfortably in a whispering. Anne shivered and be-

He had been out in spot in which to spend the night. The man open out in spot in which to spend the night.

On her left, half-way up the new look in his eyes.

Larrebec in the lar himself to supper at Trail's those shaggy branches.

girl was gallantly tackling for rest. or a girl like Anne Cushing overcame her. The runtling sounds Barry watched her as she stroked.

Usually girls as most of the night lost their menace, and Usually girls as pretty of the night lost their menace, and

One might even feel around for L thinking of a shabby comparatively soft spot and lie down and looked back uncertainly, firmly. "Perhaps Comet will go leading an unabashed Comet. "Do you think you can forgive) had been. Back of her was | She caught her breath sharply as the little devil enough to give him he started off in the first place. He's their and wondered why Petry gan looking around for a sheltered the night before where he had been left, merely givjust watch when we start out again I won't get out of the saddle for a) Presently Anne caught a saphire

"Welcome to Eagle's Perch." Bar- Cuba 4-H Farmerettes. swung off quickly and held up all-round cook west of the Atlantic. When Is Spring-Baker Valley

You understand, don't head and padded softly away, and presentation of these plays.

He gathered her hands into both | She looked around the big living He gave her fingers a quick more up and coming county seat. projects.

"That's a large order. He laugh-desert sand and sparse vegetation. way, and he picked up the Spanish overnite camp will be made and They went out, wandering over nne exclaimed. "A wicked little lake and up the slope again, answer-"That's the Pinos Valley, but it's gong. Barry chuckled.

remains of a shack or two. That's Aleddy'!" (CONTINUED NEXT WEEK) EVERGREENS, SHRUBS,

> PERENNIALS For fresh dug, acclimated nurses stock visit BELMONT GREENHOUSES

> > and NURSERIES

4-H Club Activities

Dramatic Festival at Belmont Members of six Allegany county Aunt Aggies Foreign Exchange, at the time of the annual 4-H Club

Homemaking Programs for 1935-36 Planned at Belmont

Of course they ain't any reason why fallen pine needles, forgetful of the thanks enough for anybody—Good-the things in it had never been to plan the annual county program "How could I help liking it? It's plans will probably be made for the members of the Senior Girls Club. with tumbled ridges, and beyond ed. "My uncle was a collector of will meet that evening with Miss the ridges another blank stretch of Indian rugs and things in a small Delaney. Plans for their annual dates set. President of the club,

> Charles Hackett, Guest Artist on Ford Program

Isamel Karn of Cuba, will preside.

Charles Hackett, whose reputation las one of the world's great operatic and concert tenors probably exceeds that of any other American, will be guest artist with the Ford symphony I orchestra and chorus, under Victor Kolar, in the Ford Sunday evening hour of Sunday, May 12. The program is heard from 9 to 10, Eastern daylight saving time, over a coast-tocoast network of the Columbia Readcasting System. ____

Advertising pays. Try it.

WITH OR WITHOUT DELUXE EQUIPMENT EVERY FORD CAR HAS: 85 horsepower V-8 engine

-the same, economical,

- the same, new, Comfortengineered Chassis

- 6.00 x 16"air-balloon tires and Safety Glass all 'round at no extra cost IMPORTANT FORD FEATURES COMMON TO ALL BODY-TYPES e 85 h. p., V-8 engine, with aluminum cyl- e Welded steel-spoke wheels with 4" rim.

• 123-inch springbase for riding sase on a • Big, positive brakes with more braking surface for car weight than any car under $1095. 112-inch chassis for handling ease. 4 double-acting hydraulic shock absorbers. Torque-tube Drive. e Front seat 501/3" wide . . . Ample luggage

 6.00 x 16" air-balloon tires. Safety Glass all 'round.

ORD builds only one size of automobile, tires—are standard equipment on all Ford cars. with the same V-8 engine on the same 112- Therefore, in choosing your 1935 car, check inch chassis. The springbase of all Ford cars is the list of features shown above. All of them are 123 inches and all passengers ride center poised— on every Ford car built, and without them no between the springs in the "Comfort Zone." automobile can be considered a true 1935 value.

space in all models at no extra cost.

Safety Glass all 'round and 6.00x16" air-balloon

The only difference between a Ford V-8 and AUTHORIZED FORD DEALERS neering. And even here, two important items—

Safety Glass all 'round and 6.00x16" air-balloon

AND UP, F. O. B. DETROIT—Standard including benchmark three entre. But three shrenge Universal Credit Co., Anthorized Ford Finance Plan.

THE NEW 1935

Are Now on Display at GUY S. WOOD, Local Ford Dealer