A sensation was caused in the office of Register and Recorder Tompson at Clarion, Pa., recently when a county couple called and purchased a marriage license, offering in payment a relief order.

Andover fishermen have not had the best of luck in bringing home the usual number of fish this season. An old timer has this to offer: "Wait till the apple blossoms are out, and then they will bite worms and flies."

Dr. D. Roger Haggerty of Arkport was elected president of the Hornell Medical and Surgical Society at its annual meeting last week. Dr. O. K. Stewart was elected vice president and Dr. H. S. Braisted, secretary-treasurer.

In the recent distribution of state fair funds on a basis of premiums paid by various fair organizations in the state, Allegany county fair received $4,858.59, and the Steuben county or Bath fair received $5,600. The total amount refunded by the state to fairs was $250,000.

Andover Lodge, No. 786, I. O. O. F., conferred the third degree on a class of candidates from Whitesville and Allentown, at their regular meeting Tuesday evening. The degree, which was conferred in Andover's usual fine style, was enjoyed by a number of visiting brothers.

Mrs. E. A. Mullen was chairman and Mrs. George Vickers, Mrs. Carl Childs, Mrs. Orville Kupp and Mrs. Clare Jackson hostesses for the firemen's card party which was held Monday evening at the firemen's hall. Prizes were awarded in contract bridge, Mrs. Avery Meade; auction bridge, Mrs. Winifred Wentworth; and cards, Mrs. Harold Perry.

In response to an invitation by Rev. Somers of Canisteo to attend services at his church in that village May 5th, a large delegation of Dairymen League members responded. Locals were present from Belfast, Alfred, Cuba, Belmont, Bishopville and this village.

What a get-together and good time the Grangers of this section of Old Allegany staged Wednesday evening of this week. Fifty-seven members from Alfred, 17 from Whitesville, 14 from Yorks Grange, seven from Almond, four from Hartsville and 67 from Andover listened to a splendid program put on by Mrs. Jacob, worthy lecturer of the Alfred Grange, who brought the Traveling Altar Cloth to Andover.

William Rice is improving from an attack of illness at his home on Chestnut street. Mr. and Mrs. Patrick T. Loftis of Belfast celebrated their golden wedding anniversary May 2nd. Lyle Ellsworth and Elizabeth Swarthout of Allentown were heard Sunday in a piano duet in the radio broadcast from Olean.

Regular meeting of Anna McArthur O. E. S., Monday night, May 13th, at which time the members will enjoy a program and five-cent luncheon. The Wisconsin State assembly has passed a measure making it compulsory to serve both cheese and butter with every meal costing more than 25 cents.

Announcement has been made of the marriage, April 27, of Miss Ruth Hardy, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Hardy of Belmont and Philip Earl Page of Buffalo. Yale Jacobs has moved his family from Angelica to Andover where they are now located in the Joyce property on Chestnut street.

At the next regular meeting of Rebekeh lodge the degree will be conferred and the April and May birthdays honored. Those who are not solicited for the supper please bring a tureen and sandwiches. The firemen and Odd Fellows will play their first game of the softball season this Friday evening at 6:15 on the diamond at the athletic field.

H. S. Thorne, Subordinate Lecturer Eleanor Northrup, Juvenile Lecturer. What a get-together and good time the Grangers of this section of Old Allegany staged Wednesday evening of this week.

Attention Grangers! Our July National Lecturer, James C. Farmer, together with our State Master, Fred Freestone and Mrs. Susan Freestone, the National Juvenile Superintendent, will conduct a meeting in Scio May 14th at 8 p. m., for our benefit. Don't miss hearing him.

Every Granger is invited to go to the Yorks Grange Wednesday night, May 15th. The Grange regional conference at Belfast, May 7th was a great success in every way. Our State Lecturer, Mrs. Miller of West Chazy together with our county deputies and county lecturer, inspired every one of the 115 Grangers present to go home and put on new enthusiasm into the 19 out of the 22 Granges of the county. We are going to put old Allegany on the top.

Patronize the News advertisers. A neglected kitchen sink or lavatory use Trapene. It cuts and dissolves all the grease and slime from waste pipes so that they look clean, smell clean and leave no sediment to collect in traps and make trouble. Large economy can 20c. Use a little often, you will find it satisfactory.

LIBRARY NEWS

The following announcement concerning the annual library conference for this section of the state has been received from Frank L. Tolman, director of the Library Extension Division of the State Education Department, Albany, N. Y. "The annual library conference will be held at the Cuba Circulating Library, May 14th. As usual, there will be two sessions, at 10:15 a. m., and 2 p. m.

The theme for the 1935 series is to be "The Library's Opportunities and Obligations as a Community Builder." We are rebuilding our civilization. Are we not forgetting the life lines that bind us to the past and to the slow and sure processes of education and intelligence? Ought we not to emphasize our continued dependence on reason, on study and on the best that has been thought in the world?

There will be a meeting of the book committee at the home of the librarian, Mrs. E. D. Baker, this Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Notice. It is urgently requested that all disabled Veterans of the World War in Allegany County attend a meeting at the V. F. W. Lodge rooms in Wellsville, N. Y., May 13th at 7:30 p. m., for the purpose of organizing a chapter of D. A. V. in Allegany county.
