Rhubarb has a mild and delicate lavor and is relished when stewed or baked by itself. It also combines with other fruits to make delicious conserves and jams. The following recipes are given by the New York State college of home economics:

Rhubarb and Orange Conserve 2 cups rhubarb cut fine.

2 cups of sugar.
Juice and grated rind of 1 aronge
Juice of 1 lemon.
½ cup of nuts, blanched and cut small pieces

Combine all the ingredients the nuts. Stir the mixture the heat until the sugar disept the nuts. solves. Remove it from the fire add the nuts, mix well, and pour the

Butter More Reasonable
The butter market, due to imports and the beginning of the producing season, has steadied at a very moderate level. Eggs continue to remain at their recent level which is moderate but not as low as expected. Veal, Lamb and Poultry Best Meat Choices

Choices

Veal has continued to go down in price, and is an excellent choice this week. Lamb remains moderate. Roasting chickens are taking their turn at being lower this week. Ducklings, too, are attractive in price. For those who are beef hungry, forequarter cuts of beef have gone slightly lower. The season for fresh pork is growing short and altho it is fairly high it is not prohibitive.

Fish Especially Attractive

Good fishing weather and the advancing season make for a wide variety of fish in market at really low prices. With an ending of the oysprices. With an ending of the observer season, clams and scallops come into their own.

Here is a menu made up from seasonable foods which are moderate in price:
