spring the Richmond Post of the Legion purchased it and have taken it over as club house. It's an immense building of 20 rooms and will furnish plenty of room for their activities. The Post numbers around 160 members while another post in the lower part of the city numbers around 300. Many of the veterans are from the 28th Division, who came back here after the war and married Augusta girls. For the first few years a newcomer from the North is known as a d—Yankee, but as time passes the d— is dropped and he will be referred to as a Yankee. I belong in the senior or Mr. Yankee class.

There's usually a joker in the Georgia $3 auto license tag, but had no information regarding the personal property tax on the auto. Find, however, adding the $3 to said tax, that the rate per car or truck amounts to just about the same figure as New York State fee. The $3 is a good ad, if one steps at that. One seldom hears the Civil War referred to down here. It's always "the War hetween the states" Don't know but what that's a better nomenciature for there never was a real civil war. But might few Confederate veterans are now living in this section. The papes 'staed that only about ten remain in the city proper. The couple that I used to know have passed on so do not know any of 'the remaining ones personally. But they do have a read sire of the couple of the section of the couple of the section of the couple of the section. The longer heve Sine vety vous, E. KFS11 chairman of the meeting and E. D. Baker, secretary of the board, acted as clerk.

The minutes of the 1934 school meeting was read and adopted, as was also the financial report for the year 1934-35. The budget adopted called for the raising of $9,500 by taxation at a tax rate of nine mills, the same as last year.

A. D. Fuller, in a finely prepared statement, showed the necessity to the Andover school of an athletic field and moved the adoption of an appropriation of not over $300 to put a roof on the new grandstand recently erected on the field.

There was a lively contest staged when it came to the choice of members of the Board of Education in

When you buy

AN AUTOMATIC REFRIGERATOR

you want "the facts".

Here they are!

WE BELIEVE that the New Air-Cooled Elec-trolux is the very best of all automatic refrigerators. And we want to tell you why.

Electrolux operates upon a different principle than the others . . . a simpler, more efficient principle. A tiny gas flame circulates a simple refrigerant. Ordinary air cools it. For that reason it costs less to operate, has no moving repairing, is permanently silent, and gives constant steady cold.

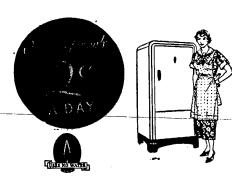

Only Electrolux can offer you all those things. In addition, the new Air-Cooled Electrolux has the modern conveniences that women appreciate so much.

Here are a few of them: Temperature regulator. Split shelf. New gleaming white Newtone finish. Trigger tray release. And many others.

You buy more than a kitch-en appliance when you buy an automatic refrigerator. You buy fuller protection for foods new pleasure in preparing salads and desserts.

Please consider this an invitation to come in and see the New Air-Cooled Electrolux. We know you'll appreciate it more after actually examining it.

And remember. Your own gas company stands back of Electrolux—promptly and willingly services every one it
