July 31.—To Mr. and Mrs. Karl

July 25.—To Mr. and Mrs. Nath-

'McAndrew of Wellsville, a daughter.

Aug. 2.-To Mr. and Mrs. George

Aug. 6.-To Mr. and Mrs. Marion

Aug. 6. To Mr. and Mrs. Lyle.

Morton of Allentown, a doughter

Aug. 3. Miss Helen Grames.)

Aug 1 Miss Florerse E. Govdyl

They will reside at Fel r

Miss Lysh h Fiber

of PetroPo and Prencis F Vitter of i

Deaths

Aug. 3 .- Mrs. Anna M. Clark, 65, died at her home in Wellsville. Mrs.

few months ago. Surviving are her husband, Dell Clark, four sons, three ters. Funeral services were held | Monday with burial at Wavland.

daughters and a step-son. Burial

Clark had lived most of her life .

Allentown, moving to Wellsville

Gardner of Wellsville, a daughter, born at Tullar Maternity hospital.

Williams of Wellsville, a son.

"Who was he gamblin' with?"

The malamute's pull on the line

A gold foreboding of the truth al-in the dancing snow.

ANDOVER NEWS

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE NEWS PRINTING HOUSE Claire C. Backus, Editor

OUR KEYNOTE: "If There is Not a Way, Cut a Way"

Congress, at the Postoffice at Andover, New York. all instances now, the tax is computed on a percentage ing. Subscription Rates

Our Time To Be Alarmed THEN the American naval maneuvers were held in It would also work a hardship on merchants as the ex- rights and physical property of the Corn and Lima Beans Plentiful larger quantities than are being The Pacific this spring, a great shout of alarm arose tra trouble of making change would prove very bother- Bath Waterworks Company to the Succotash is finally and definitely used. from Japan to the effect that the affair was an open some. But the money saved by the public in excessive village. The price paid the stock in season now that inexpensive lima. Here is a luncheon menu made in threat to the safety of that country. Our brown neigh-sales tax charges may prove to compensate for the exbors contended that maneuvers were directed toward tra trouble. If it does, the coins will be popular. It $120,000.

thus held were, in fact, practice for such a move. | the new coins. The unwarranted protests of Japan were taken up | It is predicted by some that the proposal of the by pacifists in this country and much pressure was new coins is the forerunner of a federal sales tax but brought to bear thru the press and directly to the naval this intention has been denied by high authority. Litdepartment. The basic plan was carried out but ac-tle difficulty is foreseen in getting the sanction of condepartment. The basic plan was carried out but act the dimensity is foreseen in getting the sanction of these small pieces to Doerler of Belmont, a daughter, Hilbeans are low in price. were confined to territory that did not extend as close-lour coinage system. ly to Japanese possessions as was planned, altho the Many mistakes are made in this world, but we an Swarthout of Allentown, a son. farthest point from this country to be reached according to the original schedule was hundreds of miles have yet to hear of a moth making a mistake and ear | away from the land of Nipponese. Now it is announced by the Japanese that they have begun their annual grand maneuvers which will, continue until October. The extent of war games as) planned previously, have not been made known althoit is understood that the most important phase has to do with the northwest Pacific territory which is readily OVERNMENTS have always been so careful in printinterpreted as practice against an imaginary gitack  $oldsymbol{U}$  ing and issuance of money that there have rarely  $oldsymbol{U}$ from the United States. Considering this, coupled with over been mistakes made in bank notes. As would be the fact that the Japanese naval practice will be held expected in dealing with human frailty, there are rare) hundreds of miles closer to American pessessions than exceptions. There has been at least one outstar ling the American practice was to Japanese territory, we exception in the United States. In 1890, a bill got into [ have a perfect right to be alarmed if we were inclined circulation that chowed one hundred dellare on one cide) to be apprehensive over every unimportant multary and fifty dollars on the other. move by other countries. In view of the pertinent facts surrounding the Japanese naval gence and the per was making up the accounts for the day, he found a in Wellsville, where Mr. Pichards is b affect the satety and well heirs of our country. We from right to left, his each talanced. When done the ne not went to get exclicit or one this exthat is alreather wry, there was a fifty dollar deficit imaginary and not real. ment of pacifiets are to be consistent in their view to manager and demonstratid his trouble to him ward the two happenings, they would immediately pur two decid d to examine every bill individuatly this up a great howl of protest. We are a proven neare was done and the faulty one found. It had been as a ful nation and Japan has created a reputation of being cepted as a one hundred dollar note.

Summer Responsibility

just the opposite.

period is one of grave danger to the growing,

The boy or girl just out of school feels like the caged bird that is suddenly released from its captivity It glories in its freedom to the exclusion of all else. Many of the lessons in deportment that have been much quicker learned in the class room are gradually forgotten as the child finds its way to the street. There is no room in its heart for anything but the glories of the present, unless the parental hand is ever guiding its steps. The ASA man thinks, so he is, and every man, using man soon for its purpose. ble importance to the future life of the child, for the sized so often that most people are familiar with it, but proprietor of Laf-A-Lot at Loon Lake careful work and training of the teacher must be car-how many realize its importance in forming habits, for the past 14 years. Surviving ried on thru the days and weeks of the vacation per-which in reality determine what our true character are his wife, a son and two daughiod, not to the extent of hampering the child in its rest shall be? and recuperation from classroom confinement, or depriving it of the innocent pleasures of life, but rather ways are called habits and they are the outgrowth of the daily impressing upon its young mind the necessity training and experience.

for continuing the rules of conduct learned in its Children are quick to learn and equally quick to directing influence before their powers of reasoning forget. An impression may sink deep today and be were very highly developed. forgotten tomorrow, but if it is repeatedly brought to the attention of the juvenile brain it will eventually quiring of habits easy because they are suggestible take deep root and live.

proper instruction of the child during its hour of study, wrong, they will very easily develop harmful habits. but the parent has a double responsibility—to both the teacher and the child—the responsibility of safeguard- parents or any grown people who may, without their ing the work of both.

If The Presses Stopped? CUPPOSE that all newspapers were discontinued to-|woman is prettiest at 45, but who ever heard of a wo-) morrow. What a furore there would be, for we man that old? must have news! Or suppose that beginning next week, the newspapers stopped running advertisements? We would you, that it is always the other fellow's habits that are discover that politics, the doings of society, accounts always atrocious. of fires, accidents, deaths, scandals, sports and the activities of the police and criminals of one sort or another, add little to our comfort and happiness in this fidence are not so apt to lose it. age of enlightenment altho they may be interesting. Without advertising we would remain in ignorance of much that concerns us vitally—news of the things talk shopping. that have to do with personal, everyday life of each

Someone might be selling a new, better and more with many of those who were not in the last one. economical food, or a utensil that would add immeasurably to our well-being, or some material that would be of immense value to us—but we would never know ple

Modern advertising has made and is making the world's capacity for things that elevate, improve and idealize the important business of living. It is a big vital force in fostering convenient and comfortable liv-stronger. ing. Without its direction we would overlook much

Early mankind had a hard fight against beasts and themselves.

Proposed New Coinage

THE treasury department proposes to coin two new I monetary exchange pieces, a half cent piece and a, one mill piece. The half cent piece would be coined pletely destroyed by fire Tuesday the amount of the tax is added to each purchase. basis as is necessary with the denomination of coins two trucks, fought hard to save an-AUG. 9, 1935. that we have and the small purchase is charged with the nearest penny. This causes the purchaser to pay a much higher rate on small purchases than what the let out of the barn a few minutes before the fire was discovered. One Year ----- $2.00 | various laws demand.

Just how the public will react to the small coins if they are put into circulation, is a question. There is Village of Bath o doubt but that they would prove a nuisance to the average person so far as carrying and handling them bulk of no great value to clutter up pockets and purses. nletted the transfer of the water now in market. to attack Japan in the future, and that the war games over the sales taxes may be increased by the advent of this purchase at a recent election and tomatoes are inexpensive and plenthem as an indication that this country was planning is also a possibility that the resentment and annoyance

Few Mistakes in Printing

Hollister of Belmont, a son. Idaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Laurence, Grames and Benjamin A. Richards, a This was discovered by a hatel clerk. When he both of Wellsville. They will reside a sistent heltigerent attitude of the country, we have discrepancy be could not explain. Placing the hills in proprietor of the Murray Courting evers right to be suspicious, yet we see content to pass his left hand, be equal dhem one by one by turning it The bufflet elect wester two house endegrains to Herror of Hernell end to does seem, however that if the minerity de find his arro. Finally, in decretation he called the Cheigh,

The treasury department was written to and had __ July 25.--Mrs. Hattie L. Barry of Hume. Deceased was born in Belrecord of the bill. There had been two misprinted; fast, April 6, 1854. Surviving are bills, due to their being reversed in the press. two daughters, Mrs. R. H. Colburn had a fifty-dollar reverse and a one hundred-dollar ob- of Fillmore and Miss Rose at home. COME parents lose sight of the fact that the vacation verse. The other had a fifty-dollar obverse and a one Aug. 1.—Charles H. Huntley, life hundred dollar reverse. The other one had been distlong resident of Scio, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Arthur covered before it was issued | Clark of Lockport. Funeral services | were held at Scio August 3 in charge All kinds of medicine is advertised to limber of the Wellsville Masonic Lodge of 'which he was the oldest member.

Our Thoughts

future is a sealed book which will be opened only too H in the broadest sense, is responsible for his  $\frac{1}{2}$

was in Wellsville. Herein the function of the parent becomes of dou- This is a psychological fact that has been empha- Aug. 2.—William C. Folts. 64.

> Tendencies toward thinking and acting in certain! Many form evil habits as children that remain with them thru life because they did not have the proper

Children have characteristics that make the ac-They imitate the words and actions of their elders and The teacher is responsible to the parent for the if they are not taught the difference between right and This makes the responsibility especially heavy on > knowledge, be examples from which children will acquire habits that will shape their lives. A prominent physician is quoted as saying that a

Everybody has habits, but you noticed, haven't

Those who are careful where they put their con-They are much alike. Men talk shop and women

The talk of the next great war is a favorite topic

they want to make bigger footsteps germs and insects that have come into our civilization the clothes that break the men.

Large Barn at Food Market Advice Kossuth Burns

The profusion of summer fruits half cents a pound wholesale in less does not seriously interfere with the than two weeks. Beef, pork, veal being a breakfast staple in many veal offer the best value ent. However, they are a good food Fish is less plentiful for some real son which means somewhat increased About 30 head of cattle had been White and red Malaga grapes are prices, but it is a very reasonable now in market as well as the Thomp- fiesh food, Eggs, Butter and Cheese Good son seedless variety. Sugar, Burbank and Wickson plums are this week's outstanding varieties. Yel-Buys Water System low Elberta peaches continue to be moderate in price. First

All Meats Higher

The village of Bath now has a plentiful and will be a few weeks eggs are somewhat higher but a would be concerned. They would represent quite a municipal water system, having com- longer. New greening apples are grades are moderate. Butter

The village taxpayers authorized your taste. Beefsteak vine-ripened Sliced Peaches so that the finest of these vegetables is coming from the west or north. Potatoes are plentiful, excellent quality and cheap. Squash, eggplant, of potatoes in 1933 was $72. The Smoked meats have made a rec- to the acre. For the three years July 30.—To Mr. and Mrs. John ord quick jump to higher prices— 1931 to 1933 the cost average

STOP AT THE HOTF' OF HOSPITALITY AND COMFORT

Most centrally located—close To all leading stores, office buildings and theatres. Most accessible to the unacquainted visitor -all main highways lead to its door. Pleasing rooms at rates you will like-Featuring Single Room Private Bath or Shower, $2.00; | Double, $3.00 to $4.00. Rooms with Running Water, $1.50. cordial welcome awaits you!

200 Main Street

Willard J. Gucker, Manager

FIFTH INSTALLMENT

met on a 197, when word of the heard a gold secret?" rich ores there first came down the Pacific coast. Maitland was deter- ed. if he could help it, and to clear out gether?" chy the fisherman whose smack took up the river canvon.

May go on with the story:

shielded their approach.

"What made you think you did?"

Maitland, "it's more visible."

Eggs, butter and cheese are all orunnen prospector; Garnet, well-to- bank she wouldn't be that much in- countable to him.

The average cost to grow an acre obtained averaged 25 acres of pota. toes and had yields of 156 bushels smoked hams rising three and one-about $86 an acre.

"I don't know," Maitland hesitat- The solitude of the region re- minute. "How drowned?" The ques- enanced for a moment. "All right," snow. It was Pete! "Something she said the first mained unbroken. Feathering snow tion had a cold directness. mined to make the returned home. The two losing his outfit when he was on his man's mount, which they had noted outfit in a game in Skagway."

men became partners, Speed promis. way to join a partner in the Yukon. occasionally. So, when they were men because the set tangled with the law -Do I imagine, or does that tie to- returning to the horses after a side "It ties to her," Speed grunted land was surprised to see his part-"Maybe nowheres else. Outfits are ner stop suddenly and look down, as of us. We don't know where he at the first scent of the patrolman. its own shelter. the two men north; Lucky Rose, the gambled and lost right along the if he had detected some mark on a went." the two mind who had given a ring trails without needin' a gold secret blank rise of snow. to Maitland as a keepsake; Fallon, back of it. What you heard Owens The shape of these marks was Owens?" camp leader, resentful of Rose's at- say doesn't count for much. And not that of bootprints but of some tention to the phantom dots and lines looked sort of interested." money denier Bill Owens; Brent, in' the secret? Another thing—I'd that suggested a sled track—unac-)

Speed to take his things over the comes by gold too easy." mountains—these are the principal "Then what motive would she recolled by a question from the stood motionless as a stone. The from Drew.

able. Speed broke up a shell game around her in circles. When she in much to bring a wanderin Si- "Feeble," said Speed.

Rece was waiting for him. She seem. Clouds billowed darkly on a chill liness hold her off. However, she wind, shadowed the crests of a pil-still more.

told him she had rescued his horses ing sea of mountain peaks. To the fighing and that they were waiting east and below them a gleam that followed this moving darkness changled a sable wood to misty enchanted! green, and glinted over the snowlusted surface of Summit Lake-

We'll take the street," said Speed firs' promise of their approach to _ The marbled thorofare, with its sky turned grayer as they descende, er restricts of light, opened a chan-led, till it melted in flakes that driftor course before them when they ed around them like leaves, mant turned the bend. These alternating ling their mud-stiffened clothes. paiches of light and darkness were! resort, while the dark spaces between reached the lower end of this water- feast from the timber wolves.

When the sign of The Pack Train of police, setting up a barracks. figures loitered around this entrance Drew, wearing a winter service uni- Maitland asked. -the noisy revel inside was appar- form. He asked where they were: canvas, clearly illumined the road-place to camp." said Speed.

the light, entered it, and passed the like to make some wages, I could was moving in the timber." Thru to Thirty Mile. One of our in- deer you shot?"

bronco's chest against his leg. Mait- be good politics to do the police a steaks on some wood coals. Releas-Something burned past his cheek. pect for a camp on the way." swinging to and fro, throwing blinks tor. "If you make your camp be- dark, slinking shape of fur. of light into the road. In the lumin- tween here and Lebarge, you'll be pool just below it, a man lay in the line of Cathcart's patrol. Cor- his partner. crumpled with his face upturned. poral Cathcart's a new man. It'll

'e features were clearly visible. It be an event for him to meet anyone steak he was browning. was the shell dealer they had seen along that lonely beat." They were in shadow again and asked curiously. before the street filled, for The Pack yet. Speaking of that, tho, Cath- it loose."

In wary silence the two partners kept trailing until they made camp tery?" Maitland asked. "The fact that no one has ever ing appeased it, they folled in the Over the fire, the outlaw sat in a had a clear view of the Siwash or fire's warmth.

ught of a saloon door. It just need- fering a potlatch of furs and nug- hands in the air. one look to see he was on'y a gets in exchange for supplies. A Tramp tin-horn. See os, tho, like he gold legend grew from it, and whenthings to be pervous about ever a cache was robbed, or ribbed tious?" Speed asked. he had friends in the camp and by wolves, the vanishing Indian was old-time prospection, and the steed even in a gold mine. She Speed studied them with an absent intentness, from which he was During a suspended interval Speed called to Tagish by some message He had hardly started when some-Beyond, the trail was almost impass- to get you wonderin' till you go settlements in this region, and noth- good is your memory?"

The snowfall continued in flurries your dog was trackin' the same.

'f that ain't her motive, it's just and putting miles of lake ice besaid roughly, "for five minutes, Retracing their lonely route with don't need to tell ye what'll happen when Maitland became aware that almost imperceptibly traced a course thru the malamute's fur. He gave t was turning dark. A wolf howl, thru the shadows to the tree where a trailing desolate howl. weird in the distance, deepened if they had cached the meat Some minutes later his ours were elapse before he lowered his arms. a deep organ stop. With that breath 1

The had hung the meat.

The discerned a dark lifelers bulk on native Drew's petrolman a transport the snow-blanketed ice. He found vin over." lit to be a stray woodland caribou-. the first he had ever seen. It had When the long strait of Windy been dropped by a clean head shot. from the fire. He stole in to unhook Maitland, already slanting with an advantage as well as a menace; Arm brought them into the wooded and its blood, still warm, stained the a piece of deer meat from the tree." the wind toward the canyon, was al. a girl! way, them came on an advance crew In answer to his shout, his part-that's the prospector Pete was look- the leash.

"If you can figure it." "Why does he wear native furs glimpse of the tracks of some animal "Because no one in the North, The other had an oddly abstracted look and was still scanning the shore reckon, pays much notice to a Si- he came out of the wallow he saw the three books written by Cathering from chinks and seams in the "Just lookin' for timber and a line. "I must be gettin' mental," he wash's trail. said. "I got a dim sight of this carway, making it an unlikely spot for Drew's eye was on the pintos, as ibou crossin' the river mouth, and mean?" The idea Rose had suggest- horse, standing with its tail to the News during the month of August. he filled and lit his pipe. "If you're had to shoot twice to stop it. Then ed loomed in Maitland's mind.

"I dunno," Speed pondered "they's heading toward the Lewes and you'd it seemed like I-like somethin' else somethin' more behind this prospeclow bright beam that issued from give you a load of supplies to haul "Maybe a wolf was trailing the tor than it's likely either of us can road spectors is camped there. He's tak- They put the deer on the sled and "His waiting for Owens here dancing feet, ing Judge McGuire and the Crown kept trailing till they camped in the would fit with your conclusion about v moved safely toward the mar- Prosecutor to Dawson," Drew ex- shelter of some timber above the Pete's not having gone down plained, as a pleasant conversational river mouth. When the had skinned river. But how would Pete miss "Which goes to show-" Speed item. "The goods are to be deliver- the game and cleaned up, darkness him?"

"Did von see him?"

"Just a glimmer when I got up cliffe

Speed looked darkly at his part- ter night cold. Maitland broke limbs luks had evidently gone in search for He stopped and wheeled with a ner, who had a provident thought. from a fallen tree for the camp fire, Pete. That seemed the last they suddenness that brought the lead With what lay behind them, it might while Speed was cooking caribou were likely to hear of him. bright flame stab from Speed's gun. here," Maitland ventured, "and pros- on his fingers, Maitland happened malemute they had seen in the timto glance across the river and was ber trailed the scent of the caribou, The saloon door behind them was "That's an idea," said the inspec- arrested by a yellow gleam from a in the sled. Its following them instead of the man it knew gave a) "There's your wolf," he called to grim color to Speed's idea about its lowner, and the cruel necessity to Speed gave another turn to the which he had been driven. On the trail the dog kept a caudistance, but it drew closer "That's no wolf," he muttered. tious "Does he use dogs?" Maitland "It's a Siwash dog. And lame. Must under cover of the darkness when of strayed from the team of that dis-they camped. Maitland cut off . had gained the darkness of the trail "No. Our dogs haven't arrived appearin' Indian. Or the Siwash cut strip of frozen meat and threw it out in the snow, at the rim of the Train was a "last chance" saloon. cart's very interested in the sled The cruelty of leaving a lamed firelight. The strip vanished in a They joined a scattered line of prostrack of a mysterious Siwash he's dog to starve seemed extreme to flash of wet fangs. So did several pectors who had started on the night seen down that way. If you should Maitland. But while the steaks were more, without visible effect of its trail into the canyon, and no one get a glimpse of this lone Indian, cooking, Speed mentioned some aloofness, except that it no longer you'll have exciting news for him." harsher examples of the law of sur-snarled when it evaded Maitland's

"What makes the track a mys- vival in the snow country. The top- approach. He called it "Rusty," beic did not dull their appetite. Hav- cause of its miscolored fur. After a day's log cutting at the place they had chosen for a winter, "I reckon that was a his team. This sounds odd, but it | Speed took a deep drag at a wan- camp, Speed left Maitland to trim case," he said at last, "of what you dates back to a time before our men ing cigarette and tossed the stub in timbers for the cabin, while he took Would call suggestion. The man entered the territory—when a min- the fire. Then he got up and sleep- the team up to Tagish and hauled Wouldn't believe I didn't have a gun er from the Pelly brought in some ily stretched his arms. As he did down the more necessary part of gold he claimed to have got from an so, his eyes came suddenly and their outfit.

They set up the cabin walls, and Indian in a storm. The snow, he sharply awake. said, was driving thick, and the na- "Throw up your hands, Bud, quick whipsawed the softer spruce into I followed him one night in Ne- tive, whose face was muffled in a -" was Speed's startling order lumber for the floor and fittings, Vada. Got a slant of him then in the parks hood, spoke in Chinook, of Maitland obeyed and both stood with laying aside the best wood to season

In the midst of this work they The woods gave back no comment. were interrupted by a surprise visit, from a mounted patrolman. "If I was a little more cautious," acgruff voice spoke with freezing corporal stiffly. It was their first weird tone that seemed to expect no Cathcart. "Did you see anything wind and its head low. carried him on till he staggered against the flank of the white horse Speed's eyes narrowed a little in a itself. When he groped to its head he had a vague glimpse of Rusty, a me see yard away, standing over a mound

| ready chilled his heart. . He stooped down, brushing the snow from the head of the fallen rider with one "We shot a caribou down on Lake er from the other to try and unblind Lebarge," said Speed. "Maybe you his eyes with stiffened fingers. mumur of protest choked him at The patrolman seemed discount- sight of a golden glimmer in the

he said abruptly, and took his de- He raised the boy's slight form. The two partners stared after him to his shoulder and felt for Rusty's and then exchanged a long unsmil- line. "Where's the dog?" asked Speed. mute, he thought, had answered "He trailed over the pass shead But Rusty seemed to have vanished simple savage law, and was finding voice spoke at last with a queer note Today a pale and furtive sun had fragment of tumbling storm wrack: land and Garnet hauled part of his "Motive?" Speed's mouth tighten- "Must be the track of the lone of deliberation. "I needed that deer risen high enough to send some ob- the sight of it atung his blood into stuff from the canvas camp on the ed. "You'd better not guess. Noth- Siwash Drew's patrolman was cur- meat bad. It may be lucky you lique rays into the canyon. But the sharper life and halted him. It ap-Skagway beach over the trail to the in' sets a man wonderin' like gold, ious about," he said. "Myster'ous, seen me, and it may be a long ways delicate harbinger had perished at peared again, and his heart leaped camp in the hills called Liarsville. and the best trick a woman has is too, because there ain't any native from it, for you and me both—How birth. In the western sky a strange- with a great thankfulness as Rusty's when a detachment of the Canadian Northwest Mounted Police came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came with a roll live to the Lewes and delivered their districts of the came was peering up at him thru rimmed slites of eyelids, its guard a man's maybe havin' a good reason nosed the wind with a faint bristling driving scud. dian Northwest mounted rouse came with a gold lure to go trailin' him, consignment to the inspector in didn't figure you for a friend of Warned by his nervousness, Mait- Unable to trust his fingers, he and her other argument is plausible. charge, without meeting the other Pete's, I'd take the chance of reach- land stowed his tools. He thought would the line around his arm. The It would surely be a wise move to official personages. Nor did Speed in for a gun even flow. But if you it strange that the dog should show rest lay with the dog; and Rusty's hunt Fallon down and settle that show any desire to do so. He lost are, you can bank we've never seen so much uneasiness about a still first move turned him from the di 'distant storm, and wondered if there rection he had almost taken. With-

A deathly stillness of cold amber battled thru the tearing maze for I "There wouldn't be a woman with "Not with him. There was a pret-yon.

"Stand where you are," the voice might be something else in the seem | in a few minutes they were in the Taking a length of rawhide. Mait- | gle up that roaring gut, they brought The quiet seemed to be absolute. hitch, and gave it lits head, curious

Out of the canyon rose a vaguely He slipped a tarpaulin under the He allowed a tactful space to prolonged moan like the tremor of lifeless figure and scooped a bucket stung to alertness by the muffled Then he went over to the tree where incredibly cold, the air came to life, out knowing whether raw whiskey Ult was like a gasping exhelation from t Wondering what game Speed Thei ominous visitor had gone, the indraught that had made the spoonful hetwern the white teeth, would consider worth that number taking with him an even half of the void. And now the pall from the praying that it was. To remove the leaped to a sparling bellow, and to la while and a whictle and on mam a murmur of complete astonishment I from the hending timber on they exposed the entrance of each stillness of Lake Tagish, and they snow. Speed's bullet had stolen a he was withholding something. "And mute kited before him at the end of he make the control of this water."

Maitland had a vague sense that most swept off his feet. The mala- not pause. Covering her with snow, he was withholding something. "And mute kited before him at the end of he make the control of the

In a seething draw at the foot of her flesh, with a cold fear in his , heart that he was too late. the slope, he caught a momentary

(TO BE CONTINUED)

Don't fail to take advantage of below him, dimly thru the blinding ine Caldwell, given with each sub-"To cover a gold secret, you air the effigy of a riderless white scription or renewal to the Andover

TVERYTHING is going stream-1 cup tart French dressing for an L' lined nowadays—automobiles, hour or two. Then add threeairplanes, trains, furniture, fourths cup finely diced sweet you can streamline the latter dur- diced stuffed olives, one-fourth ing these languid summer months | cup finely diced dill pickle, two tion yourself over a hot stove, chopped cucumber and eighteen canned foods which need little tossing all lightly together to cooking, and see how much fuel avoid breaking pieces. Add mayand energy you save and what onnaise to mask slightly, forking satisfactory results you can in gently. You will need for this You can streamline your guests, of mayonnaise. Serve on lettuce.

to a buffet table and help themselves to the dishes which you have prepared with so much ease. In that way it's really easier to the formalities of sitting down. A Summer Buffet Let's try it. Say someone for an appropriate streamlined afty.

from two and a half to three cubs too, by making them stream up Serves fifty. And there you are! Plenty of Fruit Juices Remember that it's hot. but there are plenty of cooling fruit juices in this streamlined menu. would be to serve fifteen with all There is lots of pineapple juice in wait another moment before be cups scalded and cooled cream ginning to repay an accumulation and the contents of five No. 2 cans of social debts. Here's the menu pineapple fuice. Freeze. Serves

Clumsily he lifted the light burden

The dog was gone. The mala-From one ravine to another he crystalled the White Horse river can- what seemed a mile. Swaying in the storm, with its grastly chaos This was ignored. "I mean an weeks before, Maitland had started He changed his direction on a mere building the boat, which was now gamble. Fortunately he was prealmost finished. Speed had been vented from testing it. thing dark wisped by him. like within reach of his hand. The mal-From a bank above him, the mal- amute was peering up at him thru river canyon. After a timeless strug-

He slid to the floor beside the llow bunk and placed Fete into it.

Fresently, thru the snow drizzle, finally. "if that ain't the imaginary Instantly the moan in the canyon garment ir order to save time. At sight of the form he revealed. fell from him. The adolescence of the slim, virginal figure had con lengled the strange fact that Pote was Amazed as he was, his hands did he rubbed the snow crystals against -erased before his eyes by pow-I dered drift. Shortly afterwards, as

Streamline

Pineapple Cream Sherbet: Soften three tablespoons gelatin in two-thirds cup cold water, then your family is getting married dissolve in one quart boiling was Or say the weather is torrid, but ter. Add six cups sugar, dissolve, you suddenly feel that you can't and let mixture cool. Add five