Mrs. Bessie Babcock has just installed a new Norge refrigerator. R. V. Akin and Mrs. P. M. Swink are among those who are having their houses repainted.

Do not miss the free Fade-A-Way demonstration at Geer's store, Friday, Aug. 23.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Cronin of Wellsville welcomed a son Friday, August 9th. Mrs. Cronin was formerly Miss Cerilla Dunningan of this village.

The Canistota Times prints a splendid picture of the proposed central school building for that village. It is a fine looking structure, which would be an asset to any city.

Mrs. B. B. Hann was given a surprise visit Monday evening by a party of out-of-town people, in honor of her birthday. An 8 o'clock dinner and social time made up the evening's program.

Mrs. Charles Rose, at her farm home near Belmont, recently killed a three foot henhawk which was molesting her chickens, by batting it down with a club. The predator weighed several pounds.

The property of the Genesee Golf Club and golf course has been purchased at public sale by ten persons for $3,000. The property represented an investment of $45,000. The name of the club has been changed to the Livingston County Club.

Clarence Jacob of Alfred was seriously injured August 15th when he fell 15 feet from a load of hay. Mr. Jacob who is 52 years of age, was taken to the Bethesda hospital in Hornell, where x-ray pictures were taken. He suffered serious internal injuries.

Daily average gross crude oil production in the United States increased 22,500 barrels in the week ending August 10, totalling 2,656,850 barrels, the American Petroleum Institute's weekly summary indicates. Daily average production east of California decreased 12,900 barrels to 2,065,650 barrels.—Boltivar Breeze.

No village in Allegany county or any other, can hope to progress as long as its residents will allow themselves to be tools for promotion of the larger towns in proximity. Such people should remove to the places they are assisting rather than remain leeches, for pecuniary reasons, upon their home town which can well spare them.

The following from Allegany county and vicinity had their licenses revoked or suspended during the three weeks ended August 3rd: Daniel S. Hughes of Ceres; Cora Smith of Andover and John H. Seckall, Wellsville, licenses revoked for reckless driving; Leslie Witherill of Weston Mills, license revoked for making a false statement in application.

Dr. J. Ross Allen, widely known throuth Western New York as a surgeon of great skill and also as a leader in civic and fraternal life and as a sportsman, died in the Buffalo General hospital, Sunday evening, Aug. 11. Dr. Allen had been in ill health for some months. He was born at Kingston, Ont., in 1869. The body was taken to his home in Olean.

At the county meeting of the American Legion and Auxiliary held at Belmont last week, Mrs. Frank LeClerc tendered the societies an offer to reserve a building of the health camp at Cuba Lake for the children of ex-service men if the county Legion would furnish the equipment for the building. A committee was appointed to consider the proposition.

Andover Rebekah Lodge will entertain the State Assembly officers the first of September.

Help make the Odd Fellows and Rebekah picnic at Loon Lake a success by being present this Sunday.

Forty-two quail, from the Federal conservation department, have been liberated in the Big Creek section and other places adjacent to Hornell.

Members of the New York State Dragons, Civil War regiment, will hold a reunion at the old camp grounds near the high bridge at Portage, Thursday, August 29.

The Andover American Legion band are playing a concert at Alfred at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon as a closing feature of the S. D. Baptist General Conference, in session at that place.

Mrs. M. A. Orvis entertained at a birthday party Monday in honor of Mrs. A. D. Shepard. Those present were Rev. and Mrs. A. D. Shepard, Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Stearns, daughter Reta and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Orvis.

A picnic dinner was enjoyed on the lawn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruger Sunday, in honor of the birthday of Mrs. Ruger. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Kaple, son Elden of Pingree Hill; Miss Patricia Nobles of Towanda, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Church, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Higby and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hoard and Miss Evelyn Burgett.

Card of Thanks
 To all those who tendered words of sympathy or assisted in any way in our bereavement, we wish to express our appreciation and gratitude.

Home From a 13-Day Cruise
 Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Snyder returned Sunday from a most enjoyable trip and cruise on the Cunard White Star liner Franconia. The cruise took 13 days. They went from New York City to Boston, Saginaw River, the St. Lawrence, Quebec, and Newfoundland. From there south to Bermuda and return to New York.

Mr. Snyder brought the News very interesting copies of "The Humber Herald," published at Corner Brook, Newfoundland, and the "Mid-Ocean and Colonial Government Gazette." On the front page of the former was a half tone of the Cunard ship in which they made the cruise.

M. and Mrs. Snyder report a very pleasant and enjoyable trip.

Voorhees Hill Old Timers' Picnic
 The 13th annual Old Timers Picnic of Voorhees Hill will be held in the Pine Grove on the Carroll Church farm, Voorhees Hill, Sept. 1st.

All former residents and their friends are cordially invited to attend. There will be a basket lunch. Bring your own dishes and silver.

MURIEL CHURCH, Secy.

A Little Daughter
 Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brown of Painted Post have a little daughter, born Thursday, August 15th at St. James Mercy hospital, Hornell.

Mrs. Brown has been passing some weeks at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Smith of Maple street, this village.

The little one has been named Mary Cecelia.

Prof. and Mrs. Bretsch Return Home Tuesday
 Prof. and Mrs. Glenn E. Bretsch arrived in Andover Tuesday and have taken up their residence in the Owen house, corner of Elm and Church streets.

Andover people are pleased to welcome Principal Bretsch and his bride as residents of our village.

Be Represented in the Big Labor Day Parade
 Plans for the tenth annual Labor Day celebration are fast shaping themselves into one of the biggest celebrations ever.

The Legion boys are asking that every business place, fraternal organization or individual make an effort to put a number in the big parade on Labor Day.

Trim your automobile, bicycle, wheelbarrow or what have you and come out for the parade. Fantasies and comedy numbers are welcome.

Set that head of yours working and think up a good parade number and put it over.

Pomona Cookie Contest
 Allegany county Grange cooks are getting ready for the next lap in the race to pick the best molasses cookie baker in New York State. The contest, which is state-wide and is sponsored by American Agriculturist and the New York State Grange, opened in May. Since then thousands of Grange women have competed in their local Granges.

The Allegany county Pomona contest will be held at the Andover meeting, August 29th and 30th, and is in charge of Mrs. Edith Jacox, Pomona Service and Hospitality Committee chairman. Women who won first prize in their local contest are eligible to compete. The top county winner will then match other Pomona winners in a final state contest, to be held at the time of the annual meeting of the State Grange in December.

Surrogate Court News
 A grandson, John A. Burrows of Andover, was given $2,000 from the $3,000 personal and $7,000 real property estate of Minnie J. Donigan of Friendship, who died August 1, it became known when the latter's will was admitted to probate in Allegany county Surrogate court of Belmont. Life use of the remainder of the estate was given a daughter, Etta D. Burrows of Andover, executrix named in the will.

Langworthy Reunion
 The thirty-sixth annual reunion of the Langworthy family was held at Letchworth Park, August 11th. The election of officers was held with Lynn L. Langworthy presiding.

The officers elected for 1936 were as follows: President, M. L. Palmer; vice president, Ora Langworthy; secretary-treasurer, Lucile L. Hildebrand.

It'll be still nicer when the girls' ngernails get out of the red.

Lice and Mites
 If your small chickens are not doing well, look them over and also the house they live in. Chances are too many red mites are living off them.

"Black Leaf 40" is the best thing we know of to rid the house and the chickens of these pests and do a good clean job. A 35c bottle makes six gallons of spray.

Don't feed the mites—just the chickens.

Flies
 The worst season of the year for flies is just approaching.

A full line of fly sprays in packages from 15c to $1.00. Black Flag powder 15c. Cattle sprays in one gallon cans $1.00 and $1.50. Also hand sprayers for applying the spray at 15c, 35c and 60c.

This is also the season for moth millers. Spray rugs, upholstered furniture and clothes closets once a week for best results from now until the first of October.

Reaping Time
 Slats for canvasses, long copper rivets and staples for putting them on, also reel slats for binders. Reel slats are not bored so they will fit any binder by just boring the holes where needed.

We have installed a new machine to clean and adjust Spark Plugs at the small sum of Five Cents Each-While You Wait!

Did you know that you are wasting one gallon of gasoline out of every ten if the spark plugs of your car are dirty or worn? Also, your engine loses power on hills and at high speeds.

This is just another service to our customers. We invite you to drive in and take advantage of this important service. May we serve you.
