Leaky Roofs

We know what a nuisance they are for we have had one here at the store, but now it is repaired and what a relief.

These recent rains will hunt out the poor spots in the roof and what a lot of damage they cause to wall paper and plaster.

A can of roof cement and a coat of roof paint will repair those places if they are not too bad. If they are, a new roof is needed.

You will find us able to supply your needs in repair material or new roofing.

Storm Sash

For several years you have been promising yourself that you would fit up certain parts of your house with storm windows. You know it will make a more comfortable place to live and take less fuel to heat the house. Old Man Winter is only a short distance ahead of us. Better measure up those windows and come in and get a price on them. It may surprise you at how low a cost it can be done.

Early Sunset

You will need to do chores by the light of a lantern these evenings. Have you a good one from which there is no danger of setting the buildings on fire? Better look them over. It is better to be sure than sorry.

Fay: "Why does Geraldine let all the boys kiss her?"
Mae: "She once slapped a lad who was chewing tobacco."

Doors and Windows

Often the remark is heard "Where in I buy a door or window?" In our stock we carry the regular sizes of doors, windows and combination screen and storm doors. Odd or special sizes can be produced on short notice and a truck from Binghamton factory every Friday assures prompt delivery.
