VOTE for County Judge, Surrogate [No. 3 on Republican ballet]

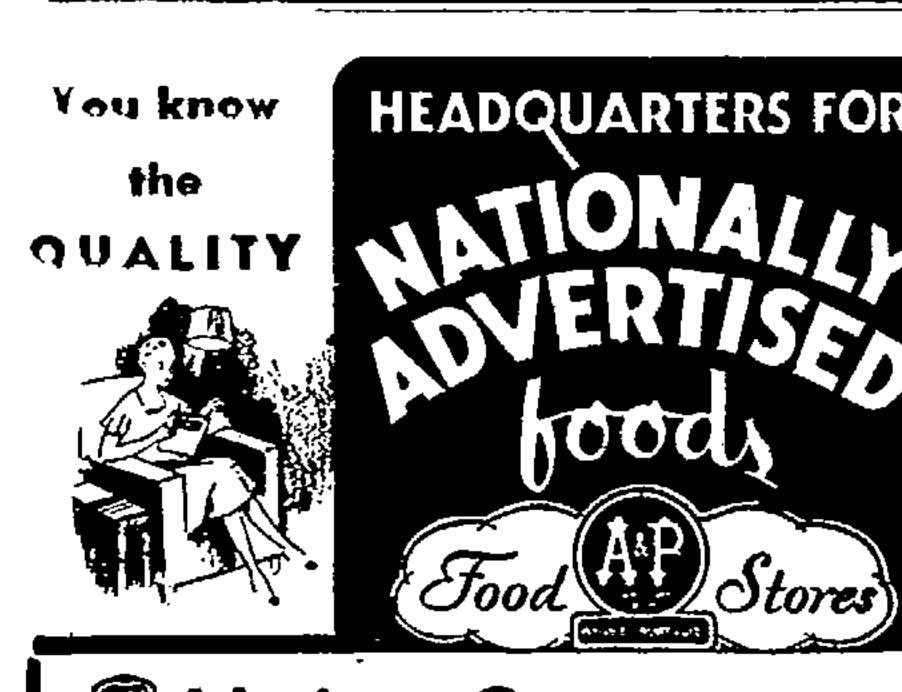

Your support of Mr. Hopkins for the office of County Judge and Surrogate and Judge of Children's Court at the polls next Tuesday, Sept. 17, will assure the county of honest, conscientious, capable and sympathetic conduction of the office.

Mr. Hopkins presents himself to the Republican voters of Allegany County as a 100 per cent Republican who has served the county for the past six years as District Attorney, the logical ground and stepping stone to the position he seeks. In his private law practice, Mr. Hopkins has been highly successful and has built up a large clientele. He has specialized in Surrogate Court work

The problems of youth have given an avocation to Mr. Hopkins for a long period, during which thru many means he has endeavored to show thousands Court hundreds of cases of unfortunates, both adult and minor, pass before the bar of justice. His understanding of the problems of conduct of the common man's home, his family relations and the problems of youth make him the best fitted man Allegany County to handle this type of work.
