

October 1, 1935

TRAIN SCHEDULE

Table with train routes (Tr. 95-96) and times for West and East Bound directions.

MAIL CLOSING TIME

Table with mail closing times for Tr. 95-96 in West and East Bound directions.

One week to Thanksgiving.

Planning your work is good, but doing it is much better. Mrs. Alice Baker entertained at a bridge luncheon, Wednesday afternoon.

The Senior Philathea Class of the M. E. church will meet with Mrs. Cora Baker, Tuesday afternoon, November 26th.

Through the kindness of her brother, Frank Smith of Wellsville, Mr. Hubert Whitney has her house wired for electricity, that she may enjoy a radio.

Christopher Hoffman, 90 years of age, and Angelica's one surviving Civil War veteran, participated in the Halloween parade in that village recently.

After the regular session of Rebekah Lodge Wednesday evening, a short program and a fine supper was enjoyed in honor of the October and November birthdays.

J. A. DeGroot of Little Genesee enlisted in the U. S. Navy at the Hornell recruiting station, Nov. 13. Mr. DeGroot is now stationed at the Naval training station at Norfolk, Va.

Mrs. Margaret Lounsbury and family of Wellsville have rented the Frank Ingraham house on Barney street. Miss Doris Lounsbury and brother, Robert Lounsbury are attending the high school.

At the men's monthly meeting which is held this Friday evening at the Baptist church, the usual social time will be held and Rev. Lentz of the Christian Temple of Wellsville will be present and give a talk.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Mulconery entertained a party of friends from Hornell at a 7 o'clock dinner Saturday. The occasion was their wedding anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Mulconery were presented a remembrance gift.

Members of Edward Seaman, W. R. C., passed a pleasant afternoon Tuesday in celebration of the November birthdays. One honor guest was present this month, Mrs. Ella Dougherty. A fine supper was served by the committee, Mrs. Grace Wagner, chairman.

A card party and social time was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Reisman, Wednesday evening. Those present are very grateful to Mrs. Edward Hyland for her efforts in making the occasion such a big success in every way. A delightful time was reported by all.

Subscribe for the News, only $2. Several cases of scarlet fever are reported in Angelica.

Andover Rebekah lodge has accepted an invitation to confer the degree at Fillmore, Dec. 10th. The Independence-Willing group of rural teachers will meet with Miss Dorothy Greggs at Fulmer Valley this Friday afternoon.

At the Home Bureau meeting last Thursday, the lesson was on "Bathing the Baby," in charge of Miss Shoem of the State Department at Albany.

Andover farmers are busy improving the fine fall weather given us by turning many acres under the plow. Our vicinity boasts of many livewire farmers.

The L. L. Bridge Club met at the home of Mrs. John Nobles Tuesday night. Those who were awarded prizes were Mrs. Wm. Woodruff and Miss Emma Folsing.

Anyone wishing to contribute a gift for the Auxiliary baby benefit who cannot attend the benefit party Friday afternoon can leave the same at the Atlantic Service Station.

The News believe that every village should enact an ordinance forbidding the setting of steel traps in the incorporation, thereby making it unsafe for any citizen's pet cat or dog.

Announcement was received by Mrs. James Guinn of the arrival of a daughter, Mary Catherine, Friday, Nov. 15th, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Guinn of Port Jervis.

J. A. Benjamin of Rushford was sent as a representative from Allegany county to Albany, to attend a business session of the New York State Federal Directors and Embalmers association last week.

Members of the Subordinate and Juvenile Granges attended the Union services in a body Sunday night at the First Baptist church. An interesting service was conducted by the pastors of the four Protestant churches.

Mrs. Florence Chase, widow of Lieut. John H. Chase, has presented Herbert W. DeLong Post of the American Legion of Belmont with the sword, medals and a brief of her husband's 28 years of army service as a memorial to him.

The W. W. G. class met at the home of Miss Reta Stearns, Friday. The program was in charge of Mrs. Hattie Eggleston, and the lesson was on Assam. All members took part in the work. The December meeting will be held at the home of Miss Ida Clair.

The Young Women's Friendly Class of the M. E. church met at the church parlors Friday afternoon after a business meeting luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Lyle Mulconery, Mrs. James Wentworth, Mrs. Dewey Northrup and Mrs. Pearl Mesler.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Woodruff entertained at a dinner party at their home Thursday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd E. West and William E. Stewart of Wellsville, who left Monday for their winter home in Florida. The other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Al Nordin and Mr. and Mrs. Leon Wyant of Wellsville.

Clair Dawson, aged 32 years, passed away at Bliss, Saturday, Nov. 16. He is survived by his wife and four sons, also his father, Frank Dawson and two brothers, John and Francis, and one sister, Lucille. The family formerly lived in Andover. Those who attended the funeral from here were W. H. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Green, son Dale, Clifford Green, John Burns and Earl Dawson.

Neighbors on Elm street are complaining about traps being placed on their property where valuable cats have been caught in the traps and mutilated.

There will be initiation at the next regular meeting of Anna McArthur Chapter of the Eastern Star, Monday evening, Nov. 25th. Refreshments will be served.

The Philathea Class and the Mary Martha Class of the Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Lee Trowbridge this Friday evening for their regular social time, which is held each month. All of the ladies of the church are invited.

The issuance of checks on a Boller bank with no funds to meet them has resulted in the commitment of Frank H. Parsons, Friendship street, Bolivar, to the county jail for 30 days and the assessment of a $10 fine in addition.

A birthday dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Baker on Corwin Hill, Sunday, in honor of Mrs. Baker and her mother, Mrs. P. J. Dougherty. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Griswold and family of Hornell, Mrs. T. J. Lynch and family, Mrs. Charles Howland, daughter Kathleen, Mrs. P. J. Dougherty, daughter, Irene and Kirk Burdick.

Mrs. Henry Livermore of Rochambeau avenue entertained the Woman's Christian Temperance Union for their November meeting, Tuesday afternoon, Nov. 15th. Mrs. W. L. Greene, acting president, presiding. The program hour was in charge of Mrs. Hervey Thorne. A dainty luncheon was served by the hostess. The December meeting will be in charge of Mrs. A. D. Shepard and Mrs. DeEtta Bullard.

Monday morning in many sections of New York State residents awakened to gaze outside in astonishment upon a mantle of snow ranging from three to nine inches in depth in many places. Four deaths are reported as a result of the storm. Traffic was impeded by scores of accidents from the icy condition of the highways with damages running into thousands of dollars. There was no snow in Andover, however.

Mrs. Mina L. Gordon entertained at a shower in honor of her little granddaughter, Joyce Shirley Green, at her home Friday, Nov. 15th. Little Joyce Shirley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Green of Petrolia, was born October 20th and received many fine gifts. Refreshments were served by the hostess. Those in attendance were Mrs. Clayton Green, Mrs. Luella Gordon of Petrolia, Mrs. Lena Barnes, Mrs. Elton Green, Mrs. George Aspey of Wellsville, Mrs. Grace Neu of Niles Hill, Miss Harriet Turner of Bolivar, Mrs. Hester Green, Mrs. Clara Childs, Mrs. Anna Childs of this village.

The O. E. S. Circle held their November meeting with Mrs. Albert Randall in Corning. About 20 were present. Officers were elected as follows: President, Mrs. C. S. Rennells; vice president, Mrs. Frances Beebe; secretary and treasurer, Mrs. Lyle Mulconery. A tureen lunch was served and a fine time reported.

Members of the Joyful Workers Class of the Baptist church were entertained at the home of their teacher, Herman Lehman, on Barney street, Saturday evening. A devotional and business meeting followed by games and refreshments made up a pleasant evening. There were 12 boys present.

The funeral of Mrs. Lillian Morrison Kyser, formerly of Wellsville, was held at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morrison at 2:30 Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Kyser died at the Mountain Clinic in Olean Sunday, after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, Kenneth Kyser, one son, Albert of Olean, one sister, Mrs. Paul Edwardson and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Morrison of Wellsville. Rev. Richard E. Lentz, pastor of the Christian Temple, officiated and burial was in Woodlawn cemetery. Mrs. Kyser was a nurse and well known in Andover, where she was a frequent visitor. Those who attended from Andover were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Green and family.

Allegany county increased its voters by 528, enrolled this year.

Of six towns in Wyoming county which voted on the liquor question at the last election, five voted dry.

The Andover fire department responded to an alarm Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mester on West Center street where a chimney was burning out.

The M. E. church two-cent supper held Monday night was well patronized and also a success financially. The chairman for the month was Mrs. H. W. Boyd. The Young Ladies' Friendly Class of the M. E. church gave a shower in honor of Mrs. John Croyle at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gath, Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Margaret Dean III

Our readers have missed greatly the news column for South Hill, so nicely written each week by Mrs. Margaret Dean, our loyal correspondent, whom the News regrets to report as having been ill and unable to write the copy. We trust she may be soon able to resume her spicy accounts of events with our South Hill citizens and neighbors.

OUR CHURCHES

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. R. E. Dronfield, Pastor. Morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. Sermon title, "A Stranger's Gratitude." Text: Luke XVII-18. Sunday School, 11:45 o'clock. Young People's Meeting—Young people please notice that the meeting hour has been changed for this Sunday's meeting. The meeting will begin at 5:30 o'clock. The meeting will be a Thanksgiving banquet and program which the young people hope to make an annual event.

Evening Service—The Presbyterian church will co-operate with the other Protestant churches of the community in a Union Thanksgiving Service at the Seventh Day Baptist church. The service begins at 7:30.

SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST

Walter L. Greene, Pastor. Sabbath services at 2:30 p. m. The pastor will speak. Bible School following the church service at 3:30.

Union services in this church Sunday evening at 7:30. This will be a Thanksgiving service. A more complete notice in another column. Independence. Morning worship and sermon by the pastor at 10:30. Subject, "Do We Need Religion?" Sabbath School at 11:45. S. W. Clarke, superintendent.

Community Thanksgiving dinner and short program at the parish house next Thursday. Those desiring to attend are asked to communicate with Mrs. John H. Bigg, chairman of the committee.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Rev. A. D. Shepard, Pastor. Morning worship, 10:30. Subject "Our Great Debt to God." Bible School, 11:45. Our attendance is good. Let us make it better. C. E., 6:30. Leader, Miss Minnie Clair.

Union Service in the Seventh Day Baptist church at 7:30. We all rejoice in the fine spirit shown and the number attending. Let us all keep on doing our part. Monday, 7:30 p. m., Y. P. Bible Class.

Thursday, 7:30 p. m., Midweek Service. Friday is Men's Night. We meet at 7:30 for games and at 8:45 Rev. R. E. Lentz of the Christian Temple of Wellsville will speak. Refreshments—of course.

The Philathea and the Mary and Martha Classes meet for a social time Friday evening, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Trowbridge.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Edward J. Cory, Minister. 10:30 a. m., Thanksgiving Sunday. The pastor will preach on "A Providence That Never Fails." Special anthem by the choir and singing by the Juniors. Also an address to the children by Miss Queenie Cory.

11:45 a. m., Church School. We continue to ask for the support of our people in the school. There are signs of improvement. Let us keep the good work going. 2:30 p. m., Junior League. 6:30 p. m., Young People's Meeting. A larger number present last Sunday. Let us double it! 7:30 p. m., Thanksgiving Union service at the Seventh Day Baptist church. Rev. Greene, the pastor, will direct the service. Rev. Dronfield and Rev. Shepard will present the forum, using the President's proclamation as the basis of discussion, and Rev. E. J. Cory will preach a brief sermon with Thanksgiving as the subject. Anthem by the chorus choir. All invited.

Monday, Nov. 25th at 7:30 p. m. Annual Election of Trustees. All members 21 years and over are entitled to vote.

Tuesday, the Epworth League will entertain as guests the members of the leagues of this Wellsville group of ten churches. At 6:30 p. m., a supper will be provided. A study period on Epworth League methods will follow, conducted by the Rev. Dieterich of Wellsville. A period of recreation will follow, with devotions. The closing study period will be on Missions. A large attendance of young people is expected.

There will be no prayer meeting because of Thanksgiving Day. Friday, Nov. 22. Will our men please notice the announcement of the gathering to be held at the home of Harry Smith. Every man is asked to be present. The hour is 8 p. m. We shall organize and follow with a program of entertainment and refreshments.

Large advertisement for THANKSGIVING SPECIALS featuring products like LARD, FLOUR, MEAT, and NUTS at various prices. Includes a logo for THE MARKET BASKET and a note about meat specials.

Advertisement for Baker's Hardware News featuring various products like Hot Oven Chinaware, Stoves and Heaters, Pumpkin Time, Lamps, and Soot Remover, with prices and descriptions.

Advertisement for Wall Paper 10c Double Roll, Flat or Gloss PAINT $2.00 gal., and WHITE'S Wall Paper & Paint Store.

Advertisement for Kruger's Garage featuring a New 13-Plate WILLARD BATTERY for $3.95 and other services.