This is the week for Christmas buying. Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Olive of Cuba started last week on a Southern trip, traveling in a house car.

John Will is ill at his home in Shovel Hollow. Walter Craig, Canaseraga merchant, fractured his knee Monday in a fall at his store.

Practical gifts for Christmas at low cost, at the S. D. Baptist sale, Tuesday afternoon. Don't fail to see them.

Benj. S. Brundage has resigned the office of Worthy Patron of the O. E. S., after serving in that capacity for 24 years.

Don't be anxious over that belated Christmas gift. Call at the News office and make it a magazine gift.

Two Allegany county hospitals, Cuba Memorial and Jones Memorial of Wellsville, have each received $2,990 as residuary legatees under the will of Miss Annie M. Hatch, former Belmont resident.

James Monahan and family have moved from the John Mitchell place in Shovel Hollow to the Earl Hyland farm and Clarence Blutchan has moved to the Mitchell farm vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Monahan.

The house on the Hastings property near the Proctor bridge, Wellsville, occupied by Benj. H. Allen, was completely destroyed by fire last Saturday evening.

The ladies of the S. D. Baptist church will serve a 35c roast beef dinner, Tuesday, Dec. 17th, beginning at 5:30. Their annual needlework sale will be held at the same date.

Miss Doris Dewey of Cuba suffered a fractured hip and severe lacerations about the face and head and an injured leg when her car collided with a truck near Canadea.

Carcasses of four deer have been found in the Allegany county woods this fall that have been shot and killed. One of them had the hind quarters removed.

The W. F. M. S. of the M. E. church met with Mrs. E. J. Cory, Tuesday afternoon, for their December meeting. The devotionals were in charge of Mrs. Marguerite Walton and they used the study book.

Mrs. Cory served delicious refreshments. The January meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Elmer Bixby.

Word was received by Allegany county friends of the death, Nov. 22nd of Mrs. Joseph Owen at the home of her son, S. S. Owen at Tulsa, Okla.

A letter received by Mrs. O. C. Parker reported that her son, George Bennett is recovering from his recent accident, when he was hit by a train at a railroad crossing in Elmira.

The Odd Fellows are putting on a series of card parties at their hall this winter. At the last party held prizes were given in five hundred to Mrs. Myrtle Mingus and Mrs. Michael Casey.

Mr. Allen was clerk of the Board of Supervisors before his death. The Monday evening after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett were surprised when a company of friends from Allegany county, who were wintering in Florida, called, bringing baskets well laden for supper.

Mrs. Emma Hurd is reported as about the same at this writing. The Andover News, one year, and our magazine combination with it is an ideal Christmas gift for the entire family.

Mrs. Frank Willover of the Haskell, near Cuba, had her hip broken December 2nd when she fell on a wet linoleum rug in her home.

Amin Campbell fell while shingling his barn as a scaffold on which he was working collapsed. His leg just above the ankle was broken in two places.

We note the name of Philip Crandall, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Crandall, as a member of the Houghton College Oratorio Society of 120 voices, which sang recently at the Boulder Concert.

The Belmont Dispatch last week chronicles the organization of a Townsend Club, with 35 members, organized at the county seat, with W. M. Corbin president and J. E. Thompson secretary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Milligan and family have moved from the Lyle Hunt house on Greenwood street to a farm in Belmont and Mr. and Mrs. Derward Williams have moved into the Hunt house vacated by Mr. and Mrs. Milligan.

Betty Poulitic Hergerveld Lass, registered Holstein cow, five years old, owned by Raymond Strahan of Friendship stood first of 691 Allegheny fresh cows, whose milk was co-operatively weighed and tested and the butterfat determined.

The brotherhood class of the M. E. church held its December meeting Monday evening at the church parlors. About 25 were in attendance and a very enjoyable evening was had with games, music and readings.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burdick of Little Genesee started for Hamilton, Ontario last Saturday to visit their son, Lyle and family. At Ceres their car skidded on the ice, turned around and landed against the bank of a ditch.

Mrs. Affa Allen of Belmont Weds in St. Petersburg Belmont, Dec. 9.—Friends here received announcement last week of the marriage of Mrs. Affa C. Allen, widow of Lucian C. Allen, to Arthur B. Jewett of New Hartford, Onondaga County. The wedding took place November 30th at the Methodist parsonage in St. Petersburg, Fla.

The officiating clergyman was the Rev. Paul Horton, pastor of the Methodist church of St. Petersburg. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Sumner B. Tuttle and John Hyde of Scio.

Mr. Allen was clerk of the Board of Supervisors before his death. The Monday evening after the wedding, Mr. and Mrs. Jewett were surprised when a company of friends from Allegany county, who were wintering in Florida, called, bringing baskets well laden for supper.

The guests were from Scio, Wellsville, Fillmore and other Allegany county villages.

"We are richer for what we give, and only by giving we live." Don't forget the S. D. Baptist needlework sale and dinner Tuesday, Dec. 17th. Sale will open at 3 p. m.; dinner at 5:30.

Genesee county supervisors turned down a $400,000 new county home project, deciding the work could be done more satisfactorily under local control.

The teachers of Willing and Independence meet this Friday afternoon with Mrs. Carolyn Helmer at the Shongo school for their regular group conference.

The December meeting of the Allegany County Ministers' Association was held in Cuba, Monday. Rev. C. E. Malcomson, pastor of the Baptist church was host.
