Saturday, December 21st is the shortest day in the year.

Donald Northrup, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Northrup is very ill. Stanley Ruger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ruger, is ill with scarlet fever.

John H. Coleman is assisting in the Andover postoffice during the holiday rush of mail.

Dr. Sophia Kimball fractured her hip in a fall in the cellar at the home of her nephew, Roy M. Carter of Friendship.

Fifty chickens were stolen the night of Dec. 9th from the farm of Monroe Evert of Canaseraga. The chickens were black Jersey giants.

Miss Cecelia O'Connell entertained the Contract Bridge Club at her home on Main street, Tuesday evening. High score was awarded Mrs. Richard Harder.

The dinner and sale at the S. D. Baptist church Tuesday evening was well attended. Mrs. F. S. Potter was in charge of the dinner and Mrs. Henry Livermore the sale.

William Hammel and George Dean, who were critically injured in an auto accident on the Alfred-Andover road were both brought to their homes from the Jones Memorial hospital in Wellsville, Wednesday.

The Junior Choir of the M. E. church will be entertained at a Christmas party and tree at the home of Mrs. David Slocum Friday evening at 7:30. All members of the choir are urged to come and bring a gift to be exchanged from the tree.

In a chopping contest during a woodlot demonstration held at the farm of Samuel Clarke in Independence, Tuesday, Earl Greene of Andover chopped thru an eight-inch beech log in 59 seconds. He may now compete in a State contest later in Ithaca, having out-chopped four other contestants and winning a double-bitted Plumb axe.

A few days ago W. H. Bassett found the remains of a small rubber balloon, attached to which was a return card to be sent to the Syracuse Herald. The carrier boys of that paper were having a contest to see which balloon would go the longest distance. This balloon was found on the Elmer Lonsberry farm near Phillips Creek, caught on some briars.—Alfred Sun.

Send the News to a friend. Mrs. Ada Long is ill at her home on Chestnut street.

Mrs. Robert Dean entertained at bridge last Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Schneckler have moved from the Hawkins house on Water street to Stannards. The supervisors' banquet was held at Hotel Belmont yesterday afternoon. Supervisor J. I. Williams was in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Beers, well known residents of Bolivar, celebrated their 61st wedding anniversary Dec. 10th.

James, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Pettit of Rushford was badly burned when a quantity of hot grease was overturned on his feet and leg.

The A. B. C. Club was served a 7 o'clock dinner followed by a Christmas tree and party at the home of Mrs. Guy Wood, Wednesday evening.

K. E. Bowles of Canisteo, breeder of Rose Comb R. I. Reds, attended the Rochester Poultry show last week. He took ten first prizes on his stock out of 12 offered.—Times.

A big buck deer jumped thru the plate glass window of the West Penn Power company store in Kane, Pa., and then chased two men about inside while townspeople gathered outside to watch.

G. B. Proper and Floyd Cartwright returned Tuesday from the Pennsylvania mountains with a deer bagged by each. Last week Frank Emery brought one home from the same hunting ground.

James L. Metz, 19, of Nile, has been sent to Elmira reformatory for an indeterminate sentence for cashing forged checks of small amounts. The charge was violation of probation following a suspended sentence in 1935.

The Department of Motor Vehicles announces the following Allegany county drivers who are deprived of their driving rights: O. T. Calhoun, Friendship and Laurence Miller, Bolivar, license revoked for driving while intoxicated. Frederick Hale, Wellsville, license suspended for unlawful use of plates.

Clarence H. Bierman, chief clerk at the United States Narcotic Farm at Lexington, Kentucky, formerly of Belmont and now employed in the Federal public health service, was recently honored with a commission as colonel on the staff of Governor Laffoon of Kentucky. Mrs. Bierman was formerly Miss Julia Sor-tore of Belmont.

Miss Mary and Hildah Jerman of Rushford had an unpleasant auto slide last week. Near the top of a steep hill near the Pondouque school house, their car began to slide backward on the icy road, gaining momentum on the way until it struck the edge of a bridge which overturned the machine into several inches of water. They were able to get the door open and crawl out of the car, drenched and badly shaken up. They fortunately escaped serious injury. The car was badly damaged.

At the last meeting of the Junior Relief Corps, the following officers were elected: President, Fern Holroyd; vice president, Bernadine Briggs; junior vice president, Norma Steadman; chaplain, Marjory Bergman; musician, Mary Mesler; captain of guards, Wanda Dolan; secretary, Katherine Perry; treasurer, Emily Mae Greene; color bearers, Martha McDonough, Kathleen Howland, Aletha Perry, Anne McDonough; director, Mary Carr, assistant directors, Lelia Livermore and Pearl Mesler.

The Young Women's Friendly Class met around a friendly fire-place at the M. E. Church Tuesday night for their Christmas tree and the pleasant exchange of gifts. The presents for children, which were wrapped up and sent to the Williamsonville Home. They answered to roll call with a verse about friendship and Christmas carols were sung. At the business meeting, Mrs. C. M. Nottingham acted as president. They planned to pack candy boxes for the Christmas tree at the church. Light refreshments were served.

The Three Link Club was entertained at the I. O. O. F. Hall last Thursday afternoon by Mrs. Marie Hammond, assisted by Mrs. Berneta Wercley and Mrs. Harriet Lauser. After the business meeting a program of songs and conundrums under the direction of Mrs. Bertha Hardy was carried out. Mrs. Hardy also presented each one with a book of poems written by her father, D. E. Livermore, which was very much appreciated and a very thoughtful act on the part of Mrs. Hardy. At the business meeting plans were made for work to be done by the club. The January meeting is to be held at the hall with a special program and supper.

Miss McLaughlin Secures Position at Brockport

Miss Dorothy McLaughlin has been selected as first grade critic teacher at Brockport Normal School, beginning in January.

For the past five years Miss McLaughlin was a member of the Andover High School faculty and her many friends are happy to hear of her excellent promotion.

King's Daughters Entertain

The afternoon division of the King's Daughters entertained the evening division at a Cinderella party Friday night, at the church parlors. The ladies were uniquely dressed as Princes and Cinderellas and opened the festivities with a grand march. A business meeting followed when the new officers were elected as follows:

President, Miss Helen Folsing. Vice Pres., Mrs. J. E. Cannon. Secretary, Mrs. Albert Rogers. Treasurer, Mrs. R. O. Snyder. Director for the afternoon division, Mrs. Anna Wood.

They then entered the dining room, which was beautifully decorated with Christmas trimmings, where a delicious supper was served by a committee consisting of Mrs. E. A. Mullen, as afternoon director, assisted by Mrs. John Oakes, Mrs. T. R. Bassett, Mrs. W. S. Calhoun, Mrs. Arling Baker and Mrs. Anna Wood.

An entertainment of numerous stunts, which created much merriment, was carried out under the direction of Mrs. Ray Snyder, Mrs. Leo Snyder and Mrs. R. E. Dronsfield, which preceded a Christmas tree where the "old witch" presided and in presenting each one with a gift also gave out "wishes" for the future. An especially enjoyable time was reported.

Regular meeting Edward Seaman W. R. C. Saturday night.

Our stock of News and magazine subscriptions are not exhausted. Call at the News for the gift that is enjoyed the entire year.

Almond Democratic men have formed a new club, with Clarence Cook as president. Future meetings will be addressed by out-of-town speakers.
