Lesson By REV. CHARLES E. DUNN

Jesus the Water of Life Lesson for Jan. 17. John 4:7-26. Golden Text: John 4:14.

The record of Jesus' conversation with an unknown Samaritan woman at Jacob's well is most appealing. A woman of the place came to the spring to draw water, and Jesus requested of her a drink. It is all very natural and human.

But something happened to give a divine and eternal significance to what might have been a merely casual meeting. Unforgettable words were uttered sure to last as long as)

Think of the significance of the Saviour's contact with this unfortunate woman. Jesus treated her Pledged: pathy, for he had no sex prejudice' of any kind. Altho he lived in time when women were not held high esteem, he always manifester toward them an impressive courtesy -Turn now to the words spoken b the Master to his new friend. What essons was he seeking to teach her? First of all, he told her that the divine, life-giving presence is akin to -cool, refreshing water. "As the wa-
