My Edvice, in your opinion, probably very shocking. I'm a kernel off the old cobb. I've been thru the mill. You'll probably think I'm an acorn because I'm nutty. There are a few Cobb-Rogers type of boys and they are far apart. If you are keen, you'll find one some of these days. If you detest clinging boys, I advise you to try to be more independent. The boys think you're a honey, but don't let that stick you. If you do you'll get stung.
