INTERVIEWS INTERESTING

After reading some of the interviews which the English II students

Following is a partial list of the types of people who were interviewed

The interviews enjoyed by the English III class proved to be so interesting

The following interview took place between Mary Teresa Burns and Mrs. Burns,

Mrs. Burns—Good morning. I will give you information to the best of my ability.

Teresa—Do you enjoy the work? Mrs. Burns—Yes, I do. It is very interesting,

Mrs. Burns—Because one handles mail for hundreds of people which is personal matter,

Teresa—Why is honesty required? Mrs. Burns—Honesty is required

Pasture Improvement Topic for Farm Meeting

The Allegany County Farm Bureau program for January includes a meeting for all members,

In order to improve a pasture it is necessary to plan well in advance. The job cannot be done quickly.

This is the first in a series of three meetings to be held this spring on pasture improvement.

HUMOR

Here's a laugh which some of our readers may have enjoyed before

Where? Where can a man buy a cap for his knee?

Or a key to the lock of his hair? Can his eyes be an academy?

Who can travel the bridge of his nose? Can he use, when shingling the roof

Mr. Host: "I can remember when I had a car that the frame was riveted

Joe McAndrew: "A rattling good car, I'd call it."

Joe Mc: "I have seen people soak wooden wagon wheels before putting iron rims on."

Leo N.: "That's a queer pair of stockings you have on, John; one red and the other green."

John B.: "Yes, and I've got another pair like it at home."

LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

Impatient "Johnny, what do you suppose inspired the pioneers to set forth in their covered wagons?"

No Beauty Queen Doctor (after examining the patient)—"H'm! 'I don't like the looks of your wife at all'."

Does Make a Difference Conductor, have I time to say goodbye to my wife?"

Extremely Different "I married my wife because she was different from the other women I had met."
