Notice to Creditors

In pursuance of an order of the Surrogate's Court of Allegany County, New York State, made by Hon. Ward M. Hopkins, Surrogate of the said County of Allegany, Notice is hereby given to all persons having claims against the estate of Luther G. Probasco, late of the town of Independence, Allegany County, New York, deceased, to present the same with proper vouchers thereof to the undersigned Mae R. Probasco, Executrix of said deceased, at the late residence of Luther G. Probasco, deceased, at Whitesville, N. Y., on or before the twenty-third day of May, 1937.

Dated at Whitesville, N. Y., Nov. 15, 1936.

MAE R. PROBASCO, Executrix

ALMON W. BURRELL, Attorney for Executrix, Canisteo, N. Y.

PUBLIC SALE

The undersigned Augustus Lynch, administrator of the Estate of Edward T. Lynch, late of the Town of Andover, N. Y., deceased, for the purpose of settling said Estate, pursuant to an order of the Surrogate's Court entered in the Office of the Clerk of the Surrogate's Court at Belmont, N. Y., January 8th, 1937, will sell at public auction on the 8th day of March, 1937, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day at the Law Office of Crayton L. Earley in the Village of Andover, Allegany County, N. Y., the following parcels of land and oil and gas properties, to wit:

ALL THAT CERTAIN PIECE OR PARCEL OF LAND, situate in the Town of Andover, in the County of Allegany, and State of New York, known and distinguished as the North part of Lot Number One hundred and four, in Township Number Two, in the Seventh Range of Townships, containing eighty-three acres and forty-three hundredths of an acre, as surveyed by B. Collins Brundage be the same more or less.

ALSO, ALL the Southeast part of Lot Number Eighty-nine (89) in Township Number Two (2) in the Seventh (7th) Range of Townships in the Town of Andover, County of Allegany and State of New York, containing fifty-three acres and sixty-two hundredths of an acre of land, as surveyed by A. C. Brundage, be the same more or less.

Together also with a right to pass between the premises above described and the highway with teams, stock, or any other personal property for any purpose which E. T. Lynch Estate desires as a passage-way between the highway and the premises above described over a strip of land now owned by the said E. T. Lynch estate, lying between and adjoining the premises above described and the highway on the west, which strip of land is bounded by lands formerly owned by Rollins on the south and lands formerly owned by Frank Raufenbarth on the north, said strip of land being about three or four rods in width; this said passage-way to extend over said strip of land or any part thereof as may be necessary in order to make a convenient passage-way for the use and benefit of said E. T. Lynch Estate. All of said rights as to said passage-way shall apply to the heirs, executors, employees and assigns of the E. T. Lynch Estate.

Also all that tract or parcel of land situate in the Town of Andover, Allegany County, New York, known and distinguished as the northeast part of Lot No. 46 in Township No. 2 in the Seventh Range of Townships in said County of Allegany and bounded as follows, viz: Beginning at the northeast corner of said lot running thence south two degrees west along the east line of said lot, twenty chains and nine links (20 ch. 9 links) to a stake at the northeast corner of the south one hundred acres of said lot; thence north 88 degrees west along the north line of said south one hundred acres of said lot, 25 chains to stake; thence north 2 degrees east and parallel with the east line of said lot twenty chains and nine links (20 ch. 9 links) to a stake in the north line of said lot; thence south 88 degrees east along said north line 25 chains to the place of beginning; containing fifty and 22-100 acres of land more or less. Excepting and reserving therefrom a small parcel thereof heretofore conveyed to Henry Horan to give him a spring and access thereto situated near the east line of said premises.

A conveyance is to include the oil and gas right and the E. T. Lynch Estate will sign or cause to be signed a transfer of the Royalty interest of the oil from said premises to take effect from the date of sale.

Also all that tract, piece or parcel of land, situate in the Town of Andover, County of Allegany, State of New York, portion of premises formerly owned by John Keough, afterward owned by Henry Eggert, Sr., as shown by deed of record in Allegany County Clerk's office to which reference is hereby made, bounded as follows: Westerly by the center of the highway passing through said farm premises; Also by a portion of the so-called John Keough farm now owned by Augustus Lynch and a portion of the so-called Sullivan farm now owned by Augustus Lynch; northerly by lands of Michael T. Lynch; easterly by other lands owned by E. T. Lynch, Jan. 25, 1923, also by lands of Michael Dougherty; southerly by lands formerly owned by William J. Lynch, deceased, and the so-called Sullivan farm, owned by Augustus Lynch, containing by estimation about sixty-seven acres of land, be the same more or less.

Excepting and always reserving all those certain rights and privileges described in a deed of conveyance bearing date Jan. 25th, 1923, by which Augustus Lynch and the said Edward T. Lynch, now deceased, conveyed to William J. Lynch certain rights and privileges to operate the so-called twenty-five acre portion of said premises for oil and gas purposes. There is to be included with the sale of said premises a one-eighth royalty interest in the oil and gas saved from said twenty-five acre parcel so authorized to be operated and there will be executed by the Estate of E. T. Lynch to the purchaser a proper transfer transferring the one-eighth royalty interest including all other rights and privileges which the E. T. Lynch Estate owns in said premises to be sold to the purchaser from and by the seller. Such transfer to be subject to any and all reservations contained in deed from Augustus Lynch and William J. Lynch to E. T. Lynch recorded in Allegany County Clerk's Office in Liber 258 of deeds at page 277, to which reference is hereby made.

Also a certain oil and gas right as owned by E. T. Lynch at the time of his death on the Newton Clark Farm being an undivided one-half interest in the oil which may be produced and saved from the said farm, including an undivided one-half working interest and including a one-sixteenth royalty interest, being the lease now existing in favor of Augustus Lynch and E. T. Lynch Estate on the farm lands of about 78 acres known as the Newton Clark farm.

ALSO, ALL THAT TRACT OR PARCEL OF LAND, situate in the Town of Andover, County of Allegany and State of New York, being a portion of a 34 acre parcel devised by Jonathan Lanphear by his last Will and Testament to Ella G. Vars, which 34-acre parcel is mentioned and described in the last Will and Testament of the said Jonathan Lanphear, deceased, dated September 28th, 1879, recorded March 2nd, 1882 in Liber 118 of Deeds at page 417, Allegany county records, bounded and described as follows: North and westerly by the northerly and westerly boundary lines of the 34-acre parcel so devised to Ella G. Vars; easterly also by the easterly boundary line of the said 34 acre parcel which easterly line is also the westerly line of lands now owned or supposed to be owned by Grace Carpenter; southerly by the center of the creek known as the south branch of the Dyke's Creek, which creek runs easterly and westerly through said 34 acre parcel between the Andover-Greenwood new State highway on the south and the north line of said 34-acre parcel, containing about ten acres of land, be the same more or less; being also distinguished as the north portion of the said 34-acre parcel devised to Ella G. Vars by her father and from the said Ella G. Vars to Floyd C. Vars by her last Will and Testament which last Will and Testament is recorded in Allegany County Clerk's Office at Liber 286 of Deeds at page 217, Allegany County records.

Subject to the rights of the Empire Gas and Fuel Co., Inc., Ltd., or the Mutual Gas Co., either or both under existing oil and gas lease now thereon. Also subject to the reservation of the oil and gas produced on said premises and the right to operate the same as contained in a deed from Floyd C. Vars and wife to Edward T. Lynch, recorded in Allegany County Clerk's Office in Liber 286 of Deeds, page 543 to which reference is hereby made for more particular description and the terms and conditions of such reservations.

ALSO, an undivided one-half interest in all that other tract, or parcel of land, situate in the Village of Andover, County of Allegany and State of New York, portion of Great Lot No. 65, Township Two, Range Seven and bounded and described as follows: Northerly by a line in Center Street in the Village of Andover, N. Y., known and distinguished as the northerly line of the store property lot owned by Daniel S. Bradley at the time of his death, upon which was then erected the building known as the Bradley store building; easterly by the center of Main Street in said village; southerly by the real property formerly owned by the Burrows National Bank, upon which was situate the Burrows National Bank Building and the northerly line of premises of which Henrietta D. Burrows was conveyed an undivided interest by deed bearing date September 2nd, 1924, recorded in Allegany County Clerk's Office in Liber 285 at page 188; westerly by a line running parallel with the easterly line of premises formerly owned by Robert Mings, formerly known as the Lauterborn lot and 40 feet easterly therefrom.

Excepting and reserving, however, such rights as now exist in favor of the Village of Andover pertaining to the use of the southerly wall of the brick store building for party-wall purposes, and the reservation for driveway purposes over the real portion thereof as reserved in deed from Frank Burrows and wife to William J. Lynch and E. T. Lynch in a deed recorded in Allegany County Clerk's Office in Liber 294 of deeds at page 204 to which reference is hereby made for more particular description as to the rights and privileges hereby reserved.

AUGUSTUS LYNCH, as Administrator of the Estate of E. T. Lynch, deceased.

CRAYTON L. EARLEY, Attorney for said Estate, Andover, New York.

Don't Neglect Them!

Nature designed the kidneys to do a nervous job. Their task is to keep the body free from toxins. If they fail, the blood is constantly poisoning the body. The kidneys must remove from the blood all the waste products of the body. When the kidneys fail to function as Nature intended, there is a possibility of disease that may shorten life. One may suffer from backache, rheumatism, headache, dizziness, indigestion, getting up at night, nervous prostration, and other ailments. Prompt, easy or burning passage may be further evidence of kidney trouble.
