Bible School Lesson B, REV. CHARLES E. DUNN

The New Commandment Golden Text: John 13:34.

Henry Drummond is best known for his famous address, "The Greatest Thing in the World." "Contemplate the Love of Christ," he says, other officers of the Village of And-"and you will love." Stand before that mirror, reflect Christ's character, and you will be changed into the same image from tenderness to tenderness. There is no other way." before the meeting. But what, exactly, is this love of Christ? We can agree that it is much more than an emotion. To be sure, it has its sentimental side, but fundamentally it is an ethical forgetfulness of self, an absorption forward step toward a more reasonin the needs of others, a sacrifice of able and durable economy. What is one's own desires that one's neigh- needed is something more thorobors may be benefited.
