LITTLE BITS OF HUMOR

Getting Even
"Your doctor's out here with a flat tire."
"Diagnose the case as flatulency of the perimeter and charge him accordingly," ordered the garage man. "That's the way he does."

Two Varieties
"How's your garden getting on?"
"It's troubled with two kinds of pests."
"What are they?"
"The pests that eat the plants and the pests that want to know how my garden is getting along."

Reformed
Customer: You charge more for cutting a woman's hair than a man's. How is that?
Barber: We barbers have had to learn an entirely new line of conversation for you ladies."

Back-Fire
Bobby came in at noon looking very distressed.
"Mummy," he said, "is it true that an apple a day keeps the doctor away?"
"Yes, dear," replied his mother. "Why?"
"Well, I've kept thirteen away this morning, but I'm afraid one'll have to come this afternoon."
