Local Happenings

Regular meeting of Edward Seaman W. R. C., Saturday night. Wade Theetge is reported as gaining nicely from a severe illness with bronchial pneumonia at his home over Wade's restaurant.

The eleven inches of snow and high wind which accompanied it this week gave plenty of opportunity to try out snow removal equipment.

The pot-luck supper and program which followed, held at the M. E. church Monday night was well attended and a fine social get together time was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Irving Gilfillan moved Saturday from the Brewster house on Harmon street to the Warfield house on Greenwood street, which they purchased recently.

Mr. and Mrs. David MacKay have moved their household goods to Andover from Ulysses, Pa., and are living in the apartment over the new Clover Farm Store of which Mr. MacKay is proprietor.

Maynard Kuhn, 29, of Friendship and Howard B. Oakley, 21, of Olean are dead as a result of an auto crash when the car in which they were riding on the Hinsdale-Olean road struck and piled up against a tree.

Mrs. Marie Chesbrough had the misfortune of falling down the cellar stairs at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gath on Chestnut street Tuesday evening. Fortunately no bones were broken and she is apparently not seriously injured.

A son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Clark W. Slade at Columbia hospital, Washington, D. C., Saturday, March 13th. He has been named William Irvine Slade and weighed 8 1/2 pounds. Mr. Slade is the son of Mrs. Carrie Slade of this village.

The Rev. Stephen J. Byrne, 53, pastor of St. Mary's Catholic church at Geneva, was found dead in his bedroom at the rectory March 1st. Death was caused by a wound in the head from a bullet fired by a .25 calibre pistol. Coroner Swan stated that Father Byrne had apparently died about midnight and that the wound appeared to be self-inflicted.

Leave orders for Easter Flowers with Mrs. Ralph Burgett, Phone 369.—Advertisement.

Mrs. W. J. Alderson was chairman for the St. Patrick's dinner held at the Blessed Sacrament hall Wednesday of this week.

A pancake supper will be served at the O.E.S. Hall Thursday, March 25th. Mrs. Lizzie Green, chairman. Price 25 cents.—Advertisement.

Mrs. M. Skaehill fell down the cellar stairs Tuesday evening injuring herself severely, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. J. Alderson.

Harold McNeese, now of the Hushford Central school faculty, will be in charge of the athletic department at Houghton College next year.

Alfred N. Hills, 92, Civil War veteran of Friendship, is anticipating a trip to Gettysburg this summer, to attend the reunion of Union and Confederate veterans.

The Zipper Pinockle Club met at the home of Mrs. E. H. Higby Tuesday night. After cards a light lunch was served in honor of the birthday of Mrs. George Vickers.

Mrs. Rosetta Dodge had the misfortune to fall down the cellar stairs last week at the home of her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Otto Nye and was confined to the bed several days from shock and bruises.

The 18-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Elon Wiles of Fillmore was taken to Buffalo General hospital Monday for removal of a two-inch nail which the child had swallowed, from the stomach entrance.

Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Rice moved this week from Chestnut street to the Allen Corwin house on Baker street and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gath moved from the Jordan apartment to their new home on Chestnut street.

The Niagara University debating team defeated Houghton College team in a debate at Niagara Falls, March 12th on the proposition "Resolved, that Congress should be empowered to legislate Sunday hours and wages for a day for the Bradford field."

The Bradford field is producing 4,183 barrels and of the Allegany field 9,934. This compares with 44,112 barrels and 9,870 barrels a day for the previous week.—Bolivar Breeze

Carl D. Aylor of Fillmore lost his license for driving while intoxicated and Daniel Freed of Alfred University for reckless driving. Eugene Butler, Andover, was also on the suspension list for reckless driving, according to the last Motor Vehicle bulletin.

Mrs. Frank Halmes entertained the L. L. Bridge Club at her home Tuesday night at a 7 o'clock dinner. The table decorations were in keeping with St. Patrick's Day. Mrs. Mildred Woodruff was awarded high score and Mrs. Margaret Sackett second high.

Mary Margaret, eleven years old, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Trowbridge of Hornell, won first place in the annual amateur vaudeville contest by station WSYR in Syracuse in a dance last week, competing among 25 high class juvenile professional entertainers.

Directors of the Allegany county fair have decided to again put on a dog show at the Angelica fair this year. Friday Sept. 3rd is the day set for the canine exhibits.

The interior of the Market Basket grocery, in the Vars block, has been rearranged, giving more floor space for the purchasers and adding to the attractiveness in the display of fruits and green goods.

Charles L. Morris of Flemington, W. Va., was sentenced Friday afternoon to an indeterminate period in Elmira Reformatory by Judge Ward M. Hopkins for his part of a forged check given in Wellsville some months ago.

Two clever salesmen are reported to be working in small communities selling a "Go to Church" campaign. They tie up with a church group and then solicit advertising, collect the money and disappear. Church organizations are warned.

The proposal to procure a community hall is under consideration at Friendship village, to be used for community gatherings, dances, dinners and entertainments. A committee of five has been appointed to ask for Federal aid to be used for this purpose.

We wish to make a correction in an item in last week's News. Clinton Elmer Davis was a brother-in-law of E. F. Stearns instead of a nephew as was mentioned. Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Stearns and son Judson attended the funeral held at Seneca Falls, Friday.

A New York traffic expert says that the London drivers and chauffeurs enliven many occasions by their wit and sarcasm. One London driver drew up when he saw a pedestrian directly in his way, leaned over and very politely inquired: "I say, sir, may I ask what are your plans?"

The Three Link Club was entertained at the I. O. O. F. Hall Monday afternoon by Mrs. Darwin Lehman and the Misses Davis Howland and Marial Bague. At the business meeting items of interest to the members were talked over and work given out to be done. A program of stories and guessing contests conducted by Mrs. Clara Hann created much merriment. A fine lunch was served by the hostess and her assistants to a good attendance.

In the Alfred University Alumni News, a university magazine, we notice the following items among the deaths listed in the February number, the name of Dr. Charles W. O'Donnell of Andover, Jan. 28th and among the births, a daughter, Carol Louise, to Mr. and Mrs. Maxson Crandall of Darien, Conn., Jan. 16. Mr. Crandall, a former Andover boy and graduate of Andover High School, is a grandson of Mrs. Mary Crandall of Church street, this village.

Card in Relief Package Brings Appreciation Note

George M. Coon placed a card with his name and address in a package of home-cured bacon and other food which he contributed to the food relief collections in January. Last Friday he received a card from Rev. Albert Spaulding, New Albany, Ind., on the opposite side of the Ohio River from Louisville, Ky. Mr. Spaulding acknowledged receipt of the food and expressed his thanks to whom it went. He also stated that they are still feeding several hundred persons who have not yet been able to reestablish themselves in the food district, but that there is not much sickness among them and that everybody is coming on well. He added that the flood water stood six feet deep in his own residence at New Albany during the height of the flood.—Friendship Register.

Baker's Hardware News

Cup Cakes

So good to eat, so easy to make, and so clean to serve or pack in lunch boxes if baked in Parchkraft Baking Cups. They are also fine for muffins and corn cakes, and if baked in these paper cups, any cake or muffin will stay fresh much longer.

Package of 100 cups for only 10 cents—try a box—once you use them—always you will use them.

No More Leaky Dishes

If you have a package of "Men-dets" in the house. Only 10c per package and they save much trouble and annoyance.

Wet Feet

If your leather shoes get wet thru, give them a greasing with "Neats-lene" before the spring thaw begins. "Neatslene" will soften the leather and make it waterproof and is only 25c per box.

Try Sandpaper

If it is hard to keep the food chop- per firm on the porcelain topped table, just put a piece of sandpaper under the clamps, rough side up on the edge of the table and then screw down the chopper tightly and the clamps will not work loose.

What has become of the gold-brick; and that other swindle, the brick that they told us would make cherry wine?

Started Spring Cleaning?

A bit early perhaps, for the real job, but the pantry and closet shelves may be done any time. Shelving looks neater and retains a clean attractive appearance longer if covered with especially prepared shelf paper. It comes in folds 12 feet long with a lacy edge and tinted border for only 5c per strip.

New Cars for Old

We can't all have new cars this spring, but we can make the old one shine so that people will think we have a new one.

Simoniz is the answer—and now is the time to do this job—when the ground is frozen, and it also protects the finish during the cold weather yet ahead of us. A whole year's supply for less than $1.00—and it does a job of which you may be very proud.

Vigoro

You will soon be starting your Easter flower pots, and making your boxes for garden plants. When you prepare the soil, mix in Vigoro two tablespoons to the quart and see what a wonderful improvement in growth and vitality. Vigoro is all plant food, and its occasional use will greatly improve foliage and flowers of all growing plants.

Try a quarter's worth and we will refund your money if you think it has not rendered full value.

BUY RUGS AT 10% SAVING DURING MARCH

If you need a new rug this spring it will pay you to take advantage of the special March Rug Club prices at Davie's, Wellsville. Any kind of rug in any size may be selected from the most complete and up-to-date stock of rugs and broadloom carpets to be found anywhere in Western New York or Pennsylvania outside the large cities. Davie's carry a complete assortment of Bigelow-Sanford rugs and carpets, also Whittall Wiltons and Karastan Oriental type rugs. Rugs may be delivered at once or later in the spring or summer as you prefer.

All who order their rugs during the month of March will receive ten percent discount on their purchase. A special installment purchase plan has been arranged for those who prefer it.—Advertisement.
