ACROSS THE PRINCIPAL'S DESK

There is one monthly magazine that I invariably try to read from cover to cover. In fact, it is the only magazine to which I personally subscribe and have time to read. I refer to the Reader's Digest. This litle magazine, packed so full of a variety of articles of lasting intertaken and condensed from the Nation's most popular magazines, has so much to commend it that I would like to see it in the home of one of our pupils

e Reader's Digest has made a special offer to schools whereby pu-pils may obtain any month's issue for 15 cents. Already, a half dozen pupils are taking advantage of this but I would like to see this magazine in at least 50 homes where parents and pupils alike might pro-fit from reading its timely, interest-ing articles. Such would be a real ontribution to our plan of educa-
