

OUR CHURCHES

SEVENTH DAY BAPTIST

Walter W. Greene, Pastor

Sabbath services at 2:30 p. m. Sermon by the pastor. Bible School at 3:30. C. J. Burdick, superintendent.

Community service in this church Sunday evening at 7:30, in honor of Rural Life Week. The churches of the village and the Grange and all farm organizations are invited to attend. Pastor Greene will speak on "A Philosophy of Life for Rural Life."

Independence—Morning worship and sermon at 10:30. The pastor will speak. Sabbath School following the church service at 11:45.

METHODIST EPISCOPAL

Edward J. Cory, Minister

10:30 a. m., Public Worship. Sermon by the pastor. Subject: "Ideals versus Ideas."

11:45 a. m., Church School. There is great need to build up this phase of our work. We want the support of every member in this important department.

6:30 p. m., Young People's meeting. Our chapter for discussion will be "To What Extent Should We Try to Improve Other People?"

Let us have a large attendance. Sunday, May 9th—Mother's Day: Special music and sermon. An effort will be made to get to the service all the mothers of the parish.

Thursday, May 6th—A ministers' retreat of the joint Hornell and Olean districts will be held at Wellsville, opening at 10 a. m., and continuing to 4 p. m., with luncheon at 12 noon. Great public meeting at 7:30 p. m. Speaker, Dr. Harold Sloan.

PRESBYTERIAN

Rev. R. F. Dronfield, Pastor

Morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. Sermon, "After This Manner Pray."

Sunday School, 11:45 o'clock. Young People—The young people are entertaining their mothers at this meeting. A special program has been planned in honor of our mothers. Tea will be served. The young people are urged to give their mothers a special in-home treat.

Friday, April 30th—The choir will meet for practice at 7:30 o'clock. School closes.

Move to the fore! Say not another is fitter than thou; Shame to thy thinking. Up! Face thy task now.

Own thyself equal to all a soul may, Cease thy evading. God needs thee today.

Move to the fore! God Himself waits and must wait till thou come;

Men are God's prophets the ages lie dumb.

Halts the Christ's Kingdom with conquest so near, Thou art the cause, thou soul in the rear.

Move to the fore!

BAPTIST

Rev. A. D. Shepard, Pastor

The subject of the morning worship at 10:30 will be "Some of God's Mighty Promises."

This is the last Sunday of the year for our Missionary offering. Let us be as generous as we can. We are on the upgrade and may we keep going.

Bible School at 11:45. Everyone was pleased with the attendance of last Lord's Day. May we soon have to set a new goal. And the sooner the better.

Christian Endeavor at 6:30. Leader, Robert Perry.

After our attendance at the County Rally in Belmont and the many good things we heard, we ought to have the very best meeting thus far this year. Be ready with your report of the meeting.

For our evening worship we join in a union service at the Seventh Day Baptist church, in honor of the Grange.

Monday evening, 7 to 8 o'clock, we again meet the Live Wire Boys for Bible study. A wonderful and a most interesting class of boys.

Thursday evening, 7:30, our mid-week service of prayer and Bible study. Our subject will be "The Gospel Story."

Choir rehearsal on Saturday evening at 8 o'clock.

Bible School Lesson

By REV. CHARLES E. DUNN

Abraham a Man of Faith Lesson for May 2nd. Genesis 12:1-9 Golden Text: Hebrews 11:8.

The story of Abraham is attractive to the highest degree. He has been well called "a mighty idealist"
